FOREWORD

We have attempted to produce in this WESTERNER a permanent record of the accomplishments of Western High School for 1926. If at some time in the distant future this book brings back to you half-forgotten scenes and faces of your high school days, we shall feel that our aim has been fulfilled.

Greater Western

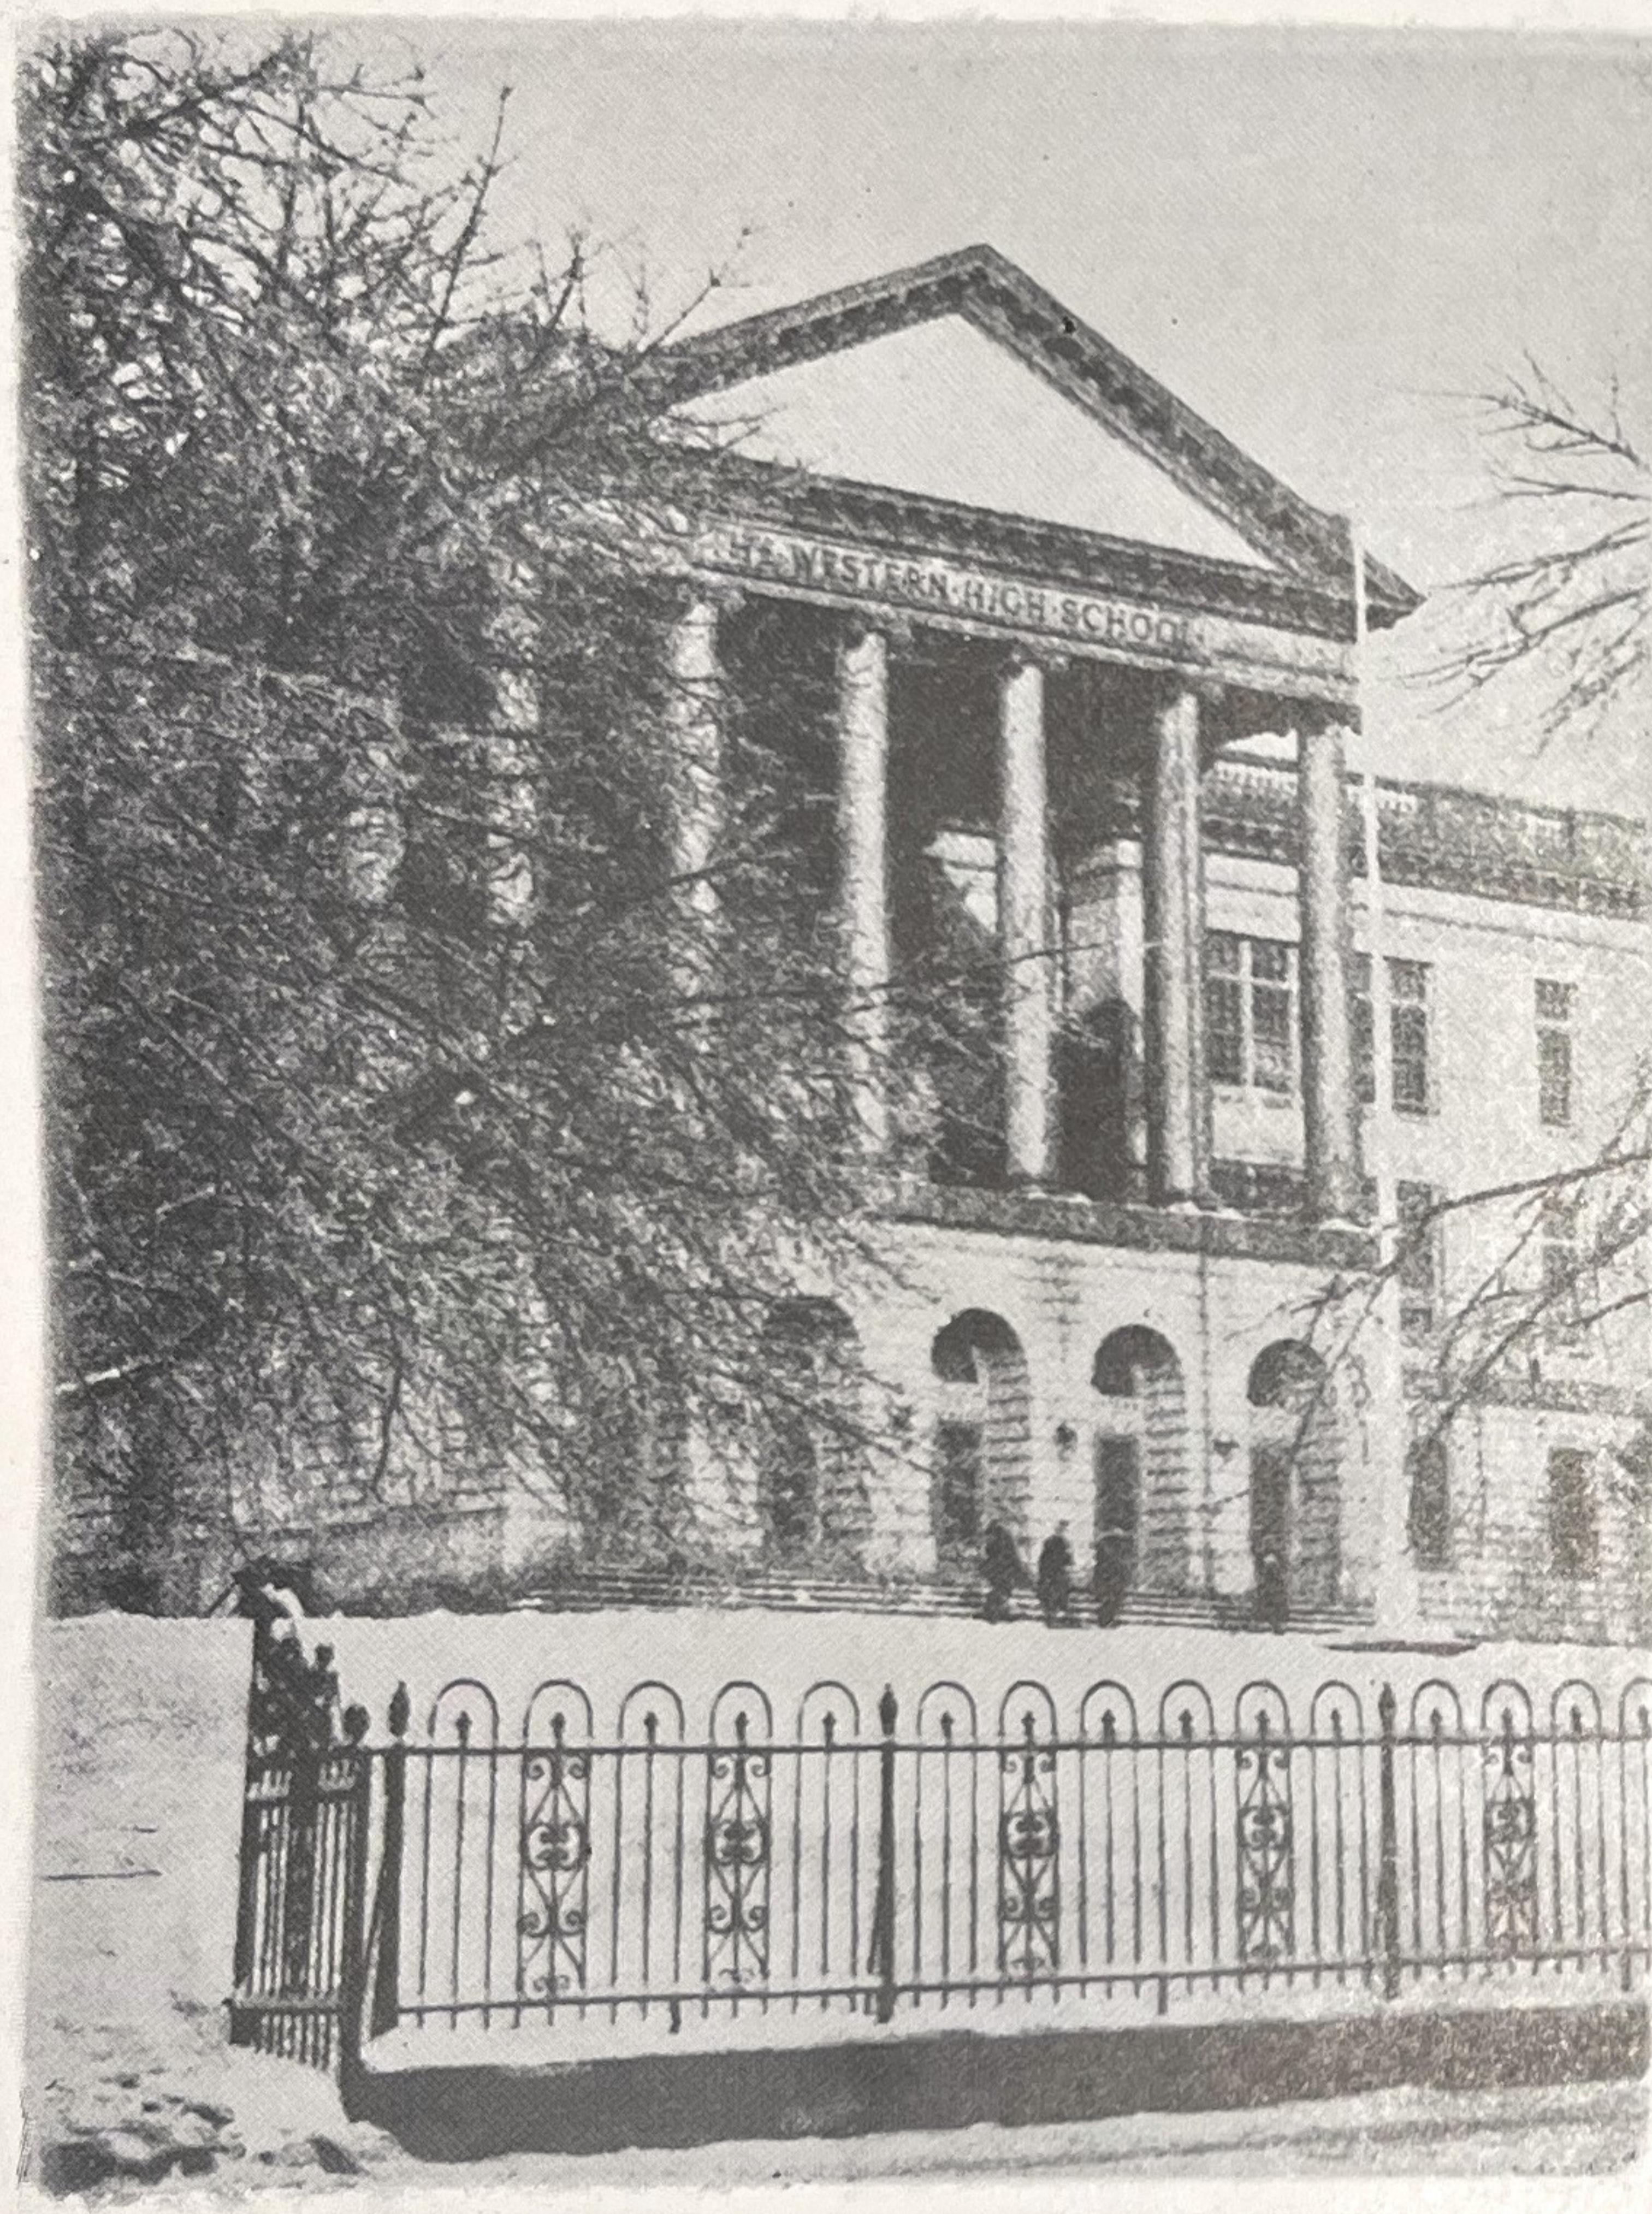

Dig deep thy foundations, O Western to be,
In the rock of thy past and its rich memory;
For fadeless thy laurels and far-flung thy fame;
Tho' christened anew, 'tis the old cherished name.

Rise high, walls of Western, rise high as the praise
All thy sons and thy daughters are eager to raise;
Rise builded in beauty, as fair as our dream
Of the lives of the future in glory agleam.

O build, youth of Western, our lives strong and fair;
Not in walls raised in stone rests the honor we share,
But in beauty and truth build we all her fair fame;
Lay our lives, dear old Western, make radiant thy name!

Then sing we, O Western, our praise to thy name—
With pride in the past, and with hope all aflame!
May thy walls, rising high, shine in glorious light
With our banner emblazoned, the red and the white.

February Seniors, 1926

In February, 1922, a large group of Freshmen entered Western and joined the ranks of the afternoon school. No one paid much attention to us, but in February, 1926, when many of that group graduated, we had left our mark in many ways. Some of our number completed the course in less than four years and graduated in June of 1925, while others from later classes, who finished in less than the usual time, joined us in the fall of 1925. We were therefore the largest class to graduate from Western in the middle of the year.

There was no class organization until September, 1925, though our class was a unit from the beginning of the senior year. In September class officers were elected for the first time in the history of Western High School. Senior rings were chosen early in the year, and plans were made for a mid-year graduation, with class night and other features common to the June Commencement.

In addition to the four class officers, the following commencement and class night officers were elected:

Commencement Committee

Beatrice Haverty
George Joseph
Joseph Joseph

Class Night Committee

Kay Moorehead
Lucy Tillman
Richard Bedon

Class Poet

Class Historian
Class Prophet
Class Giftatorian

Adele Varela

Priscilla Wallace
Lucy Moore
Kay Moorehead

RICHARD BEDON

"To be honest as this world goes is to be one man picked out of a thousand."

Often Westerners wondered what made Dick so well known notwithstanding his short stay. But they soon found that when honesty and sincerity are so clearly revealed in a boy's face, he must necessarily be liked and respected.

JAMES DOUGLASS, JR.

"He who melts with social sympathy is of more worth than a thousand kinsmen."

February Class Secretary, '26; Cadets, '23-'24-'25 (Captain of Company H); War Games, '25; Officers' Club, '25; Rifle Team, '22-'26; Basketball, '23 (Asst. Mgr.), '24 (Mgr. "L. W. W."); Student Committee, '25-'26; Honor Roll, '24; Debating Society, '28; Radio Club, '24; Glee Club, '23-'24-'25; Dramatic Association, '23-'24-'25; Hi-Y Club, '25-'26.

VIRGINIA EATON

"The saying that beauty is but skin deep, is a skin deep saying."

Vice-President February Class, '26; Student Committee, '26.

Virginia proves the above quotation. All her friendship is filled with that loveliness pervading even her features, and wherever she is, her sweetness seems to be infallibly contagious.

BEATRICE HAVERTY

"Youth that sighs and conquers worlds."

Glee Club, '25-'26; "Patricia," '25.

Many are loved because they are kind, pleasing, and beautiful; some, because they are good, and a few simply for themselves.

GEORGE JOSEPH

"And gladly would he lern and gladly teche."

Not even in disposition does George differ from his twin. As his brother, he is always bright and happy, and in his presence no one seems to be able to feel "blue," because his gaiety is of a most infectious character.

JOSEPH JOSEPH

"When what is given, is given willingly, the kindness is double."

Joseph's cheery disposition makes him a most agreeable and welcome companion. He is ever ready to do anything asked of him, and puts all his heart and mind in all he does. A kind deed is his greatest pleasure.

CHARLES MARTELL

"No pleasure is comparable to standing upon the vantage ground of truth."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25; French Club, '26; Honor Roll '26.

Charles has the gift of telling always the right and truthful thing at the right time, sincerely kindly and mindful of others. At Western every one knows this except himself.

MARGARET MEIGS

"What sweet delight a quiet life affords."

There are those who instruct us through many words and undoubtedly we profit much by them, but much more stable is that learning which we acquire from another person's good example, combining the desire to resemble her with much love for the kind teacher. This, Margaret gave us.

CHESTER MITCHELL

"A day for toil, an hour for rest."

Sergeant-at-arms February Class, '26.

"Chet," or the "Boy with a fine head on him," as we call him, well knows how to divide his time and efforts so that by the aid of all his good qualities, he most often comes out first.

LUCY MOORE

"She in beauty and education holds the hand with any princess of the world."

Hockey, '25-'26; Civic Association, '25; Literary Club, '25; Girls' Minstrel Show, '23.

A girl full of charm without losing her dignity, pretty without vanity, refined, kind, and loved by all—such is Lucy.

KAY MOOREHEAD

"She was as pretty as she was fair."

Arts Club, '26; Tennis, '25; Glee Club, '23; Honor Roll, '23.

Often a pretty girl is attractive alone because of her beauty, but with Kay, this is far from being the case. Always ready to give help, or, a greater kindness, to receive offered help, even when unnecessary, in order to oblige her friends, she made indeed a charming companion.

MARIE PENDLETON

"Never elated while one is oppressed; Never dejected while another's blessed."

Orchestra, '23-'24-'25-'26; Glee Club, '23.

This little friend of Western as a whole and of every one in particular, was often the right hand of many of our undertakings; constantly helpful and cheerful.

CHARLES STEWART

"Otium cum dignitate."

It takes two hundred years to make a gentleman, so they say, and here in this youth we find all of the gentlemanly characteristics. Without losing his poise or being guilty of affectation, his distinguished manner and conversation are agreeable to all with whom he comes in contact.

FRED STRINE

"Knowledge is indeed that which next to virtue, raises one man above another."

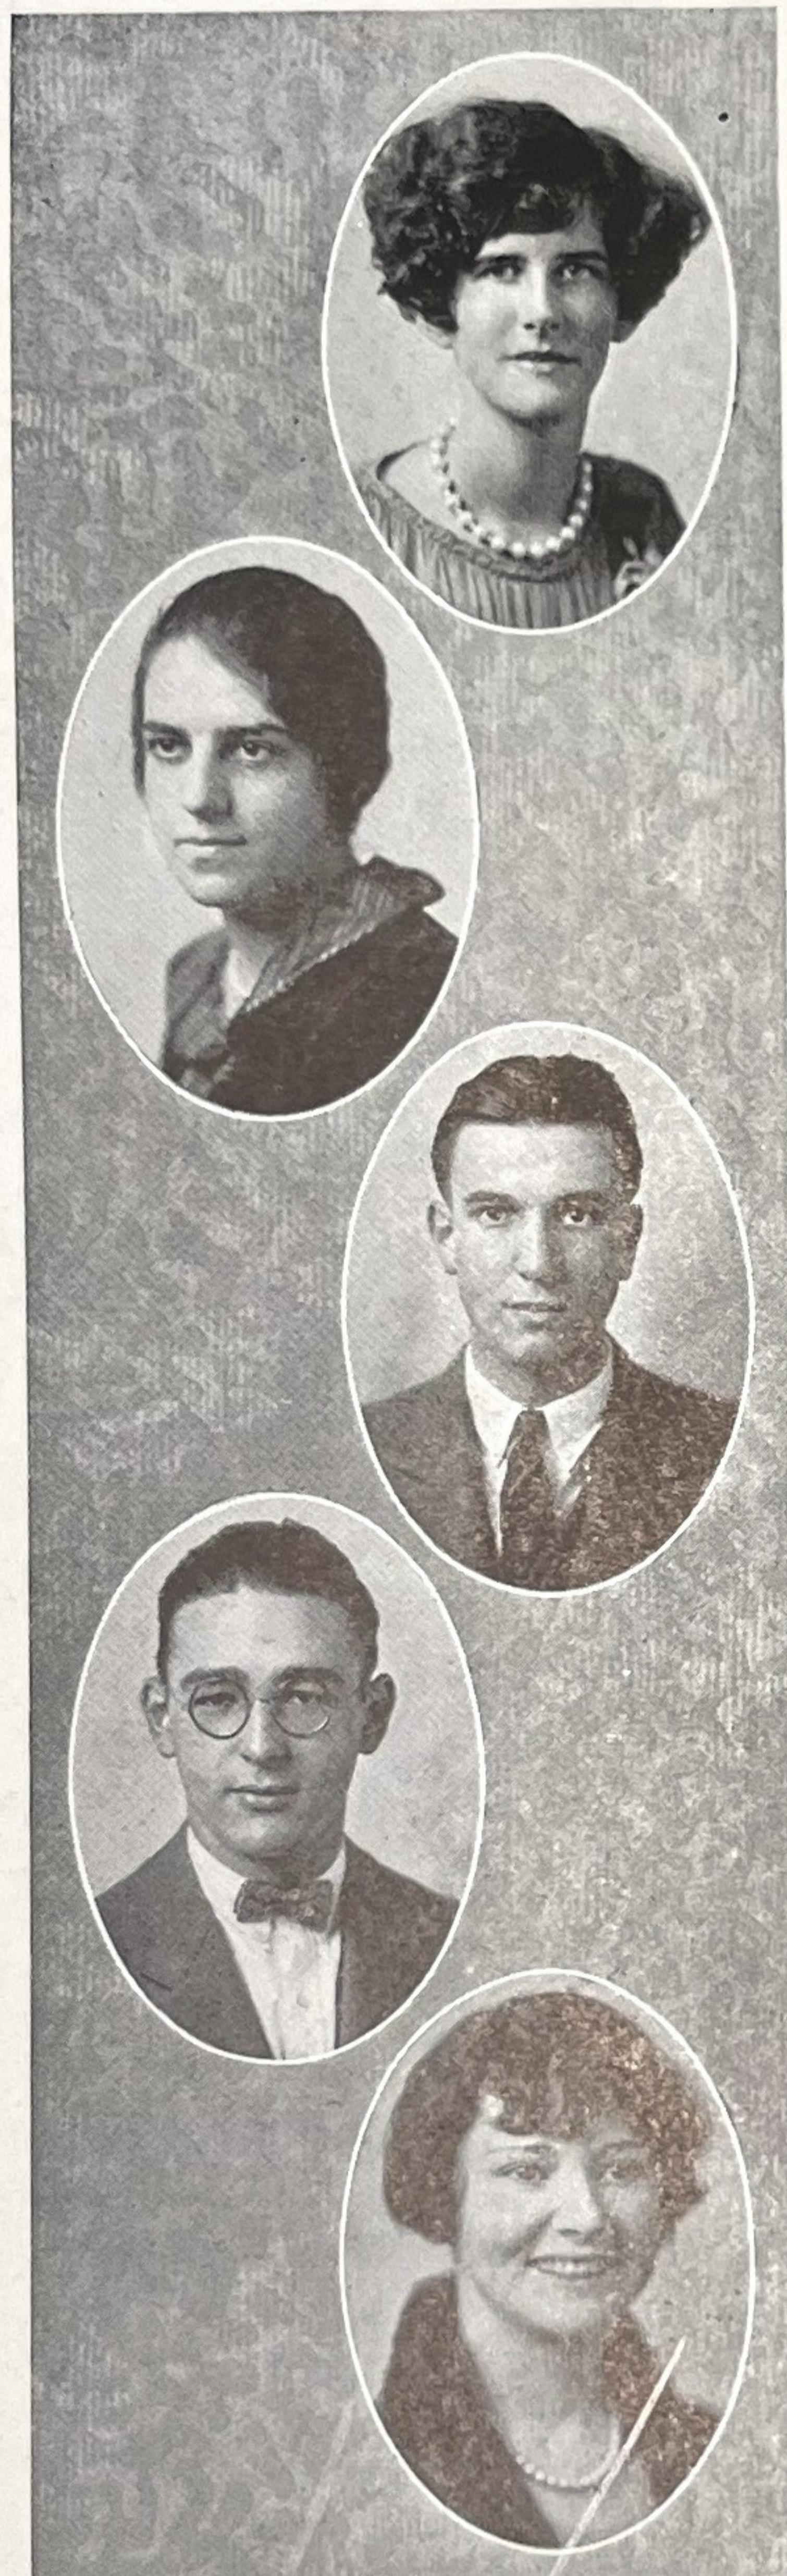

Cadets, '23; Radio Club, '23; Spanish Club, '25-'26; Treasurer February Class, '26; Honor Roll, '24-'25-'26.

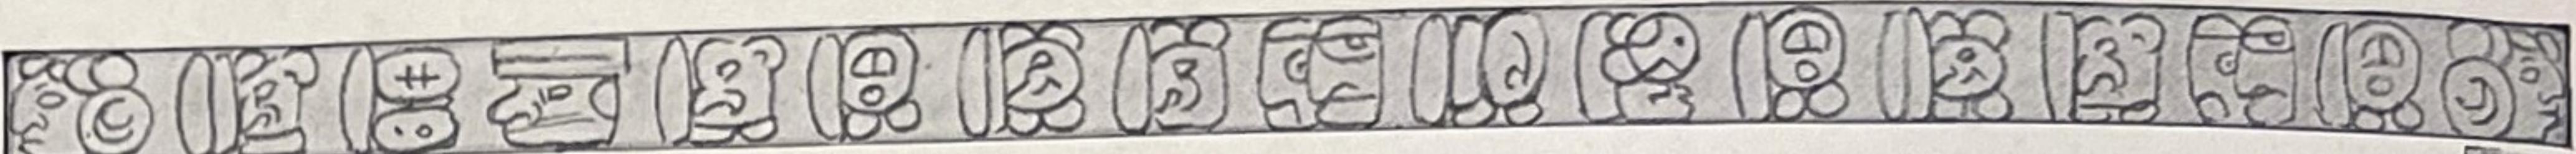

Fred holds the first and greatly desires the second, in the above quotation, which is all that old or young can do. Should we wonder that he is admired?

LUCY FRANCES TILLMAN

"Wherever there is a human being, there is an opportunity for a kindness."

Lucy possesses the rare quality of having at all times a favor and a smile for those whom she meets, and even if we were able to remember nothing else, her unselfishness would be unforgettable.

ADELE VARELA

*"The stars of midnight shall be dear
To her; and she shall lean her ear
In many a secret place."*

The Westerner Staff, '26; February Class Poet, '26.

Class poet and a speaker of many languages, Adele brightened up Western for three and a half years. We miss her help in French and Spanish, but most of all her sweet smile.

PRISCILLA WALLACE

"Blest with that charm, the certainty to please.

Glee Club, '23-'24-'25; "Trial by Jury," '24; "Patricia," '25; Dramatic Association, '25; Honor Roll, '26.

"Tommy" was one of Western's most popular girls, and this popularity was not merely the result of her beauty and charm, but because of her sportsmanship, her friendliness to all and the readiness with which she would lend a helping hand.

VIRGINIA WILTSHERE

*"Of every noble work, the silent part is best,
Of all expression that which cannot be expressed."*

Virginia is one of those scarce girls whose lips seldom pronounce that word most often repeated in every language, the wearing "ego." But instead she goes her way modestly, constantly striving for the best and always lending a helping hand to her host of friends.

FORD YOUNG

"Forethought and prudence are the better part of a leader."

President of February Class, '26; Football, '24; Basketball, '25-'26; Cheer Leader, '25; Glee Club, '25; Student Committee, '25-'26.

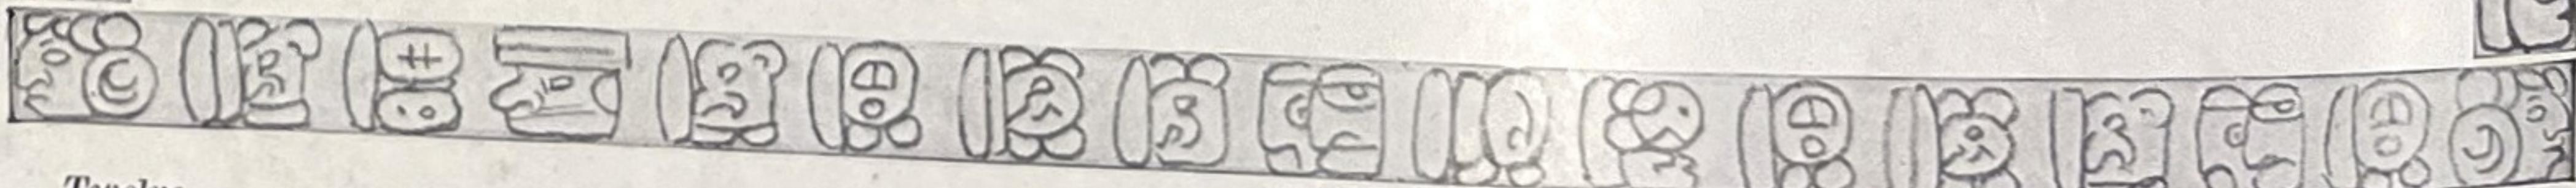

Ford knows that through kindness better than strength, power is exercised, and this he not only did when presiding over his class, but with his companions whom he always influenced rightly.

HELEN ZIEGLER

"He takes the best ornament from friendship, who takes modesty from it."

Basketball, '24-'25; Hockey, '25; Honor Roll, '26.

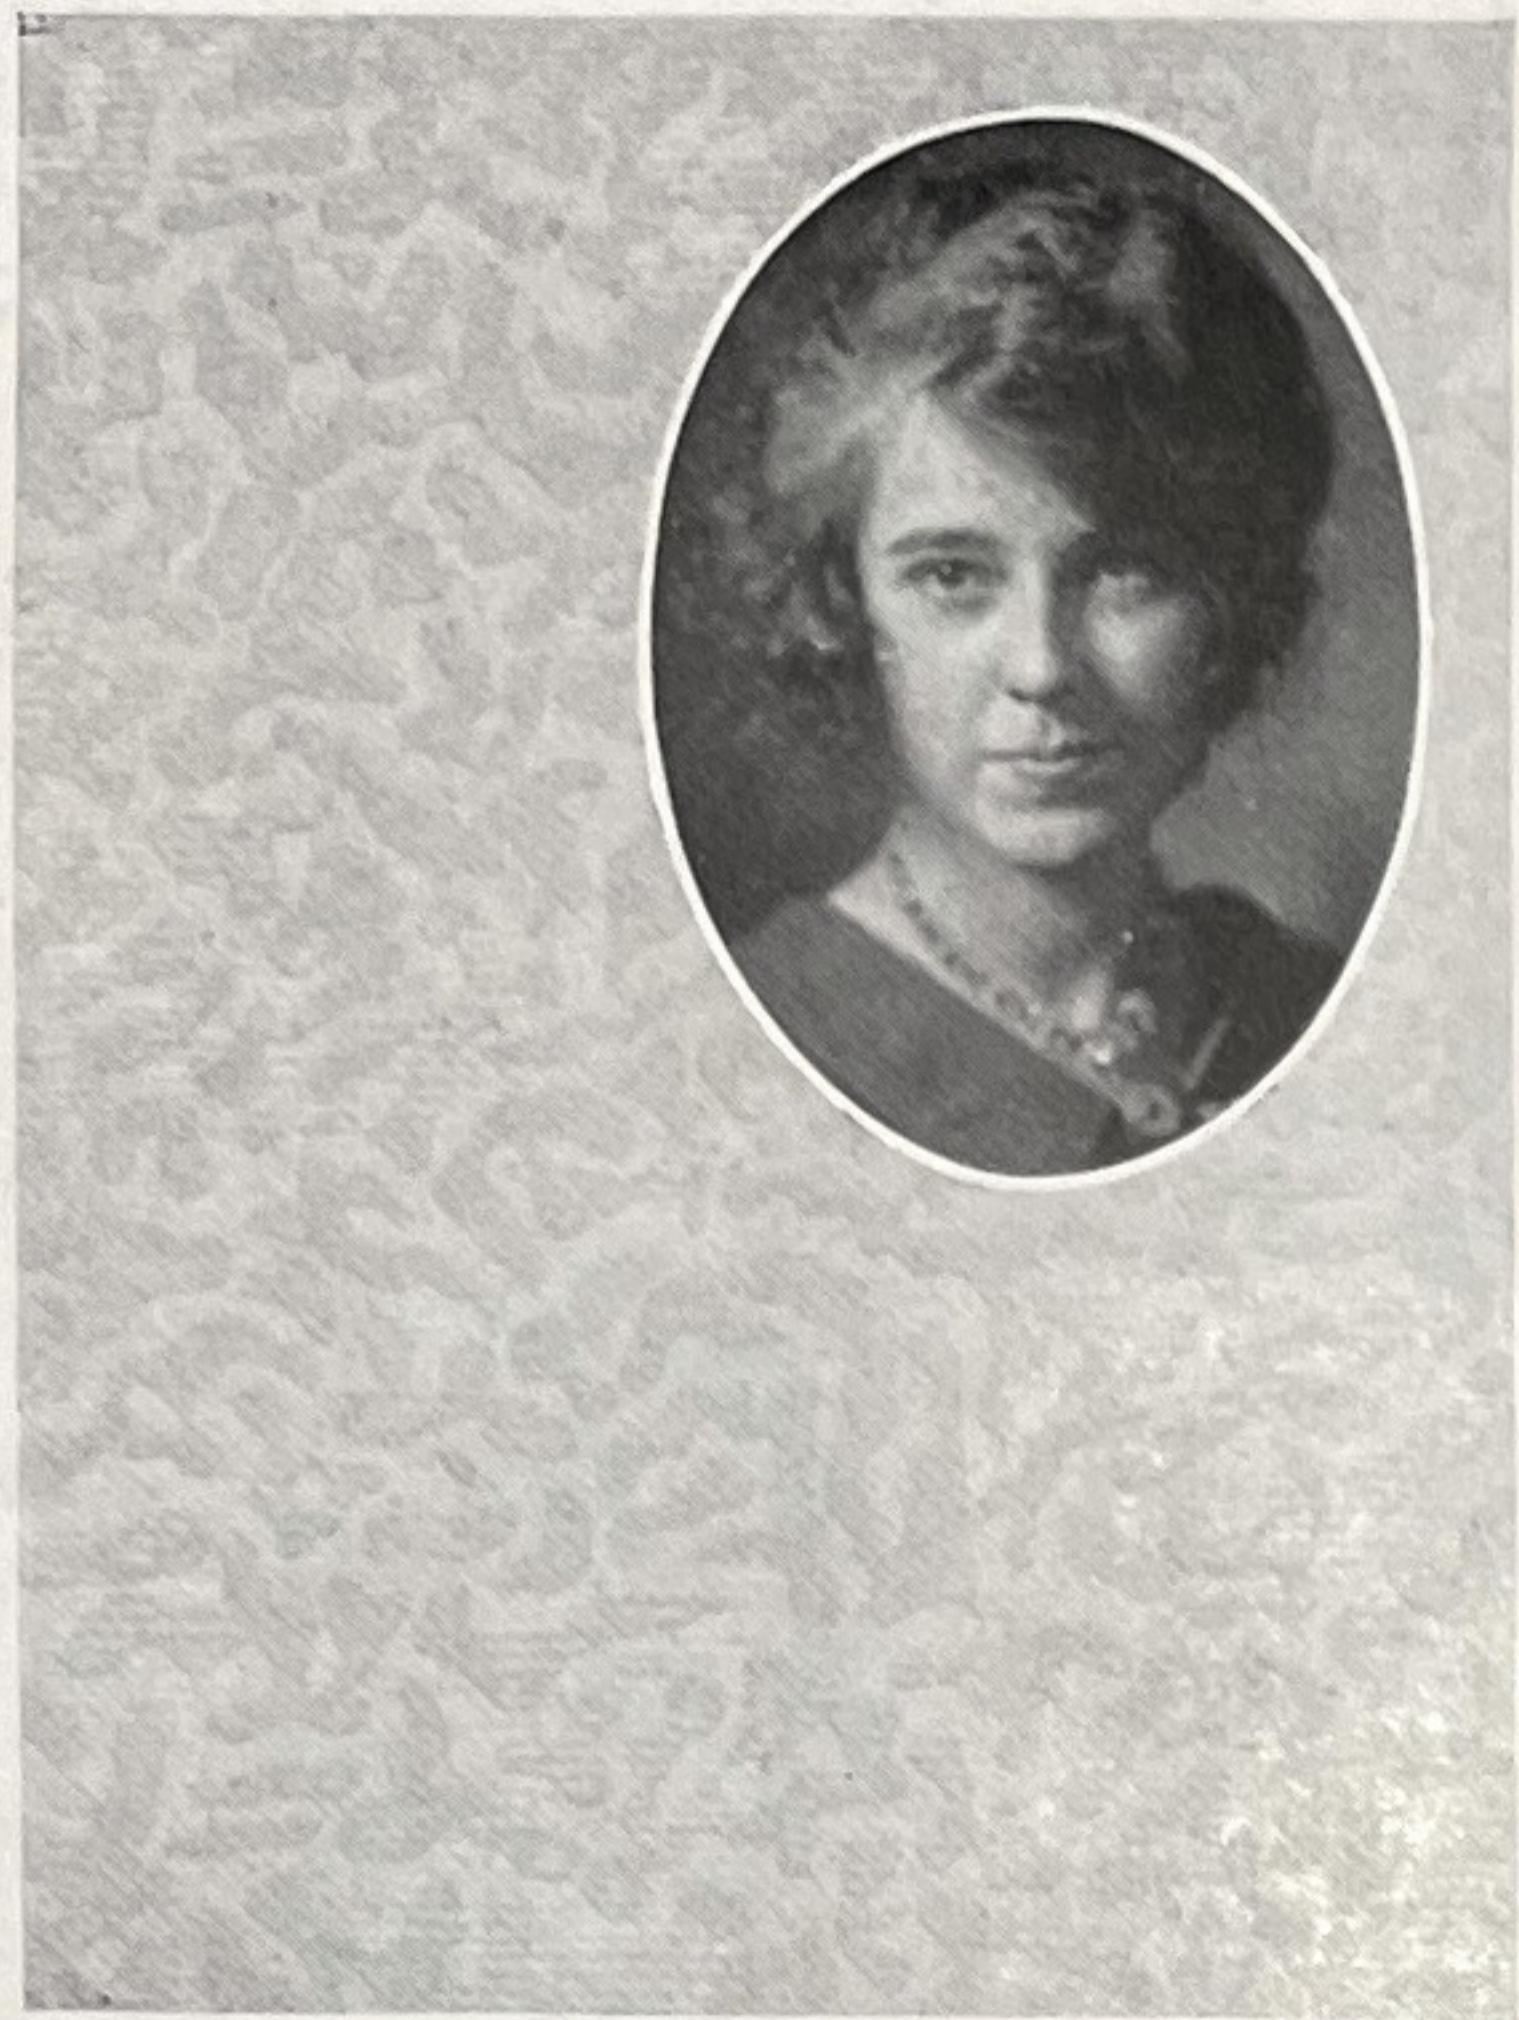

In spite of Helen's desire to pass unnoticed, this could not be. Her very modesty was an irresistible attraction which made her the friend of many girls, who undoubtedly profited by her example.

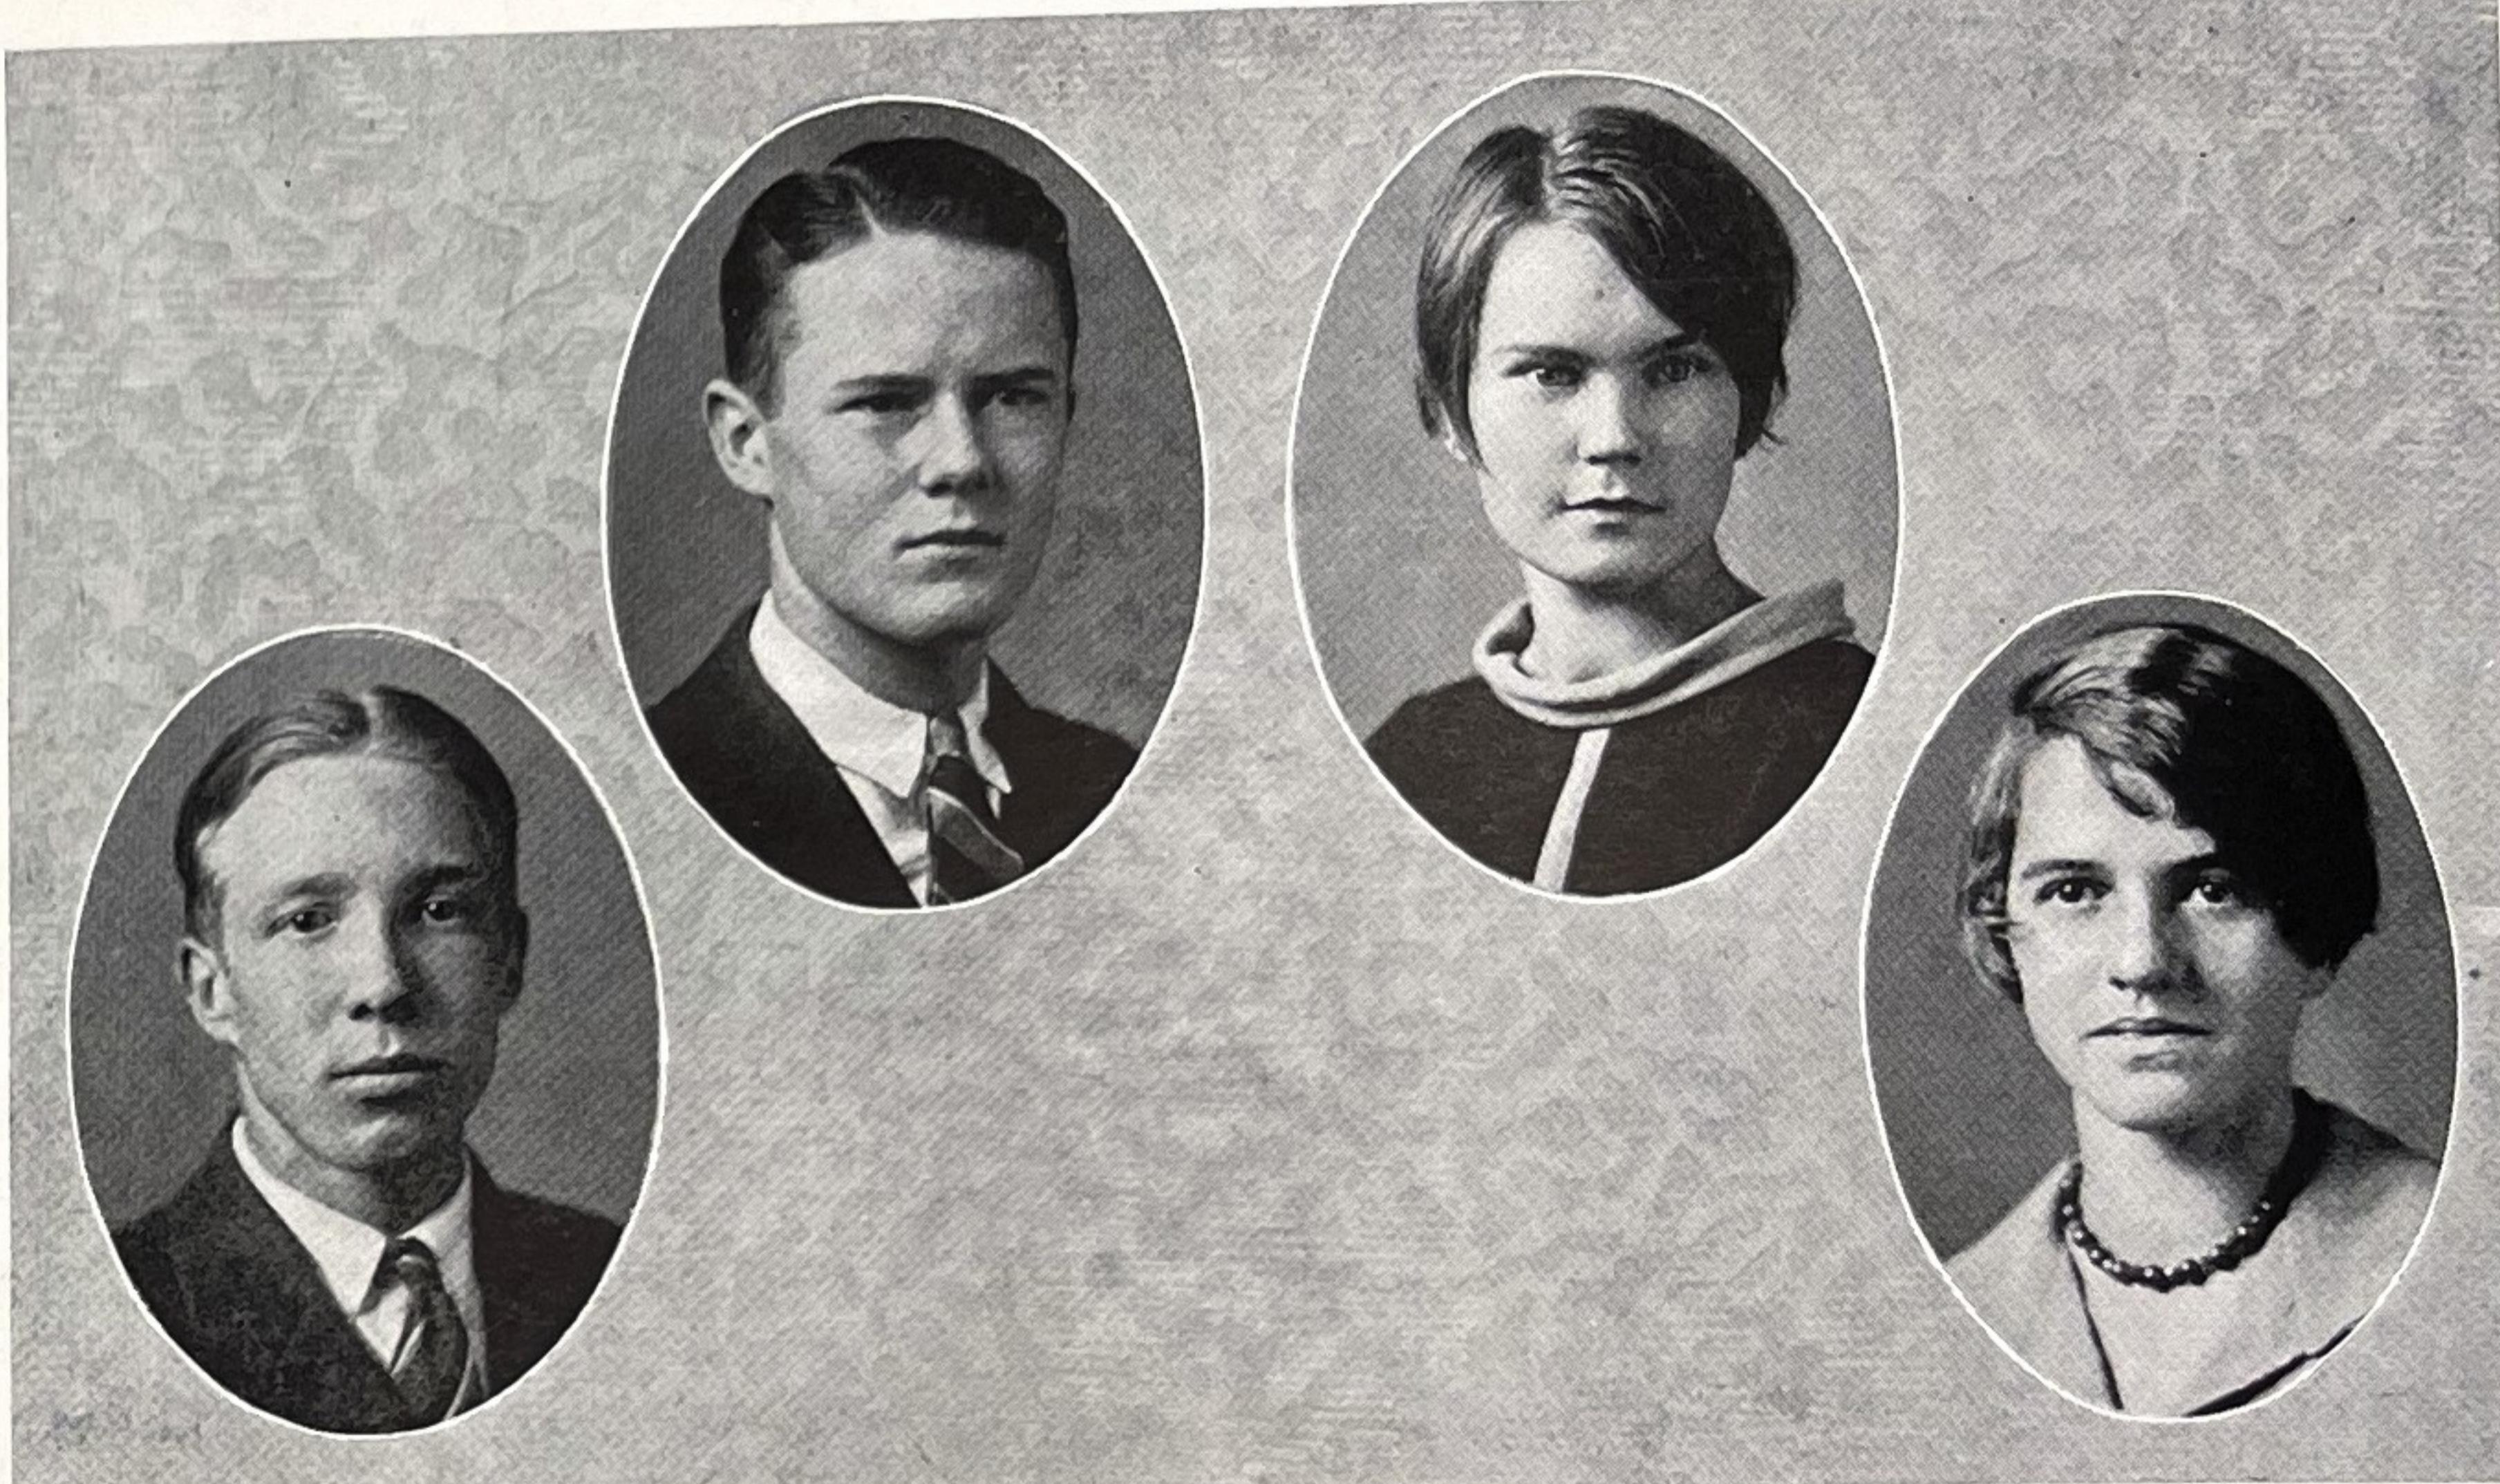

ADA VOLKMAN

*"A sweet attractive kind of grace,
A full assurance given by looks,
Continual comfort in a face."*

There is one thing of which we are never tired, and which is welcome regardless of our mood. Ada possessed it.

June Seniors, 1926

The Class of 1926 is noteworthy for the activities of its members during their four years' sojourn, rather than for any activity of the class as a unit. Thus, by tracing these activities, we are necessarily reviewing the history of the class.

Our class has been particularly endowed with athletic stars, Albert Heagy and George Hageage heading the list. Heagy was on the lightweight football team for two years, a member of the Varsity football and basketball teams his junior year, and captain of the basketball team his last year, after having also served on the football team; Hageage was captain of freshman football in 1922, captain of Varsity football his senior year, and a member of the football and baseball teams for three years. Other important members of this group are: McDiarmid, with three years of basketball, one of football, and an equal number of tennis to his credit; Batson with three years of baseball and one of football; Sasher with four of baseball; and Palmer with two of both football and baseball.

As for the girls, their record speaks for them. Mary Evelyn Bowers won two "W's" her freshman year, a record never before equaled. In her sophomore year, Elizabeth Wilson and Mary Evelyn were members of the Varsity hockey team. As juniors, our class won the Inter-class Girls' Basketball Championship, with a team consisting of Betty Garber, Captain, Jenny Turnbull, Helen Sheckells, Elizabeth Wilson, Mary Evelyn Bowers, and Marian Ziegler. The next year this same team, with Elizabeth Zalesky playing for Marian Ziegler again repeated its performance, and carried off class honors.

Our cadets also made a good record last year when Arthur Kimball, Paul Clark, Wade Safford, and Williamson Smoot received lieutenants' commissions their junior year and helped to bring a first, third, and fourth place in the Company drill, and first in the Battalion and Regimental Competitions, to Western.

As far as studiousness goes, we are well in the van. Our six highest scholars in order of their records are Margaret Fleming, Marie Herzog, Frank Weitzel, Helen Goodner, Elizabeth Wilson, and Philip Evans. Philip Evans certainly is due special mention. While maintaining an excellent scholastic standing, he was chosen one of the six best orators at Western in the National Oratorical Contest, and won at Western this year.

EDWARD AARONSON

"Who mixed reason with pleasure and wisdom with mirth."

Baseball, Freshman, '23; Track, Freshman, '22; Lightweight Basketball, '24; Math Club, '26; Debating Society, '26.

Edward is one of those friendly sort of chaps that make Western famous. He is especially well known for his wide smile and curly hair.

EMILIANO ACUNIA

*"A town that boasts inhabitants like me,
Can have no lack of good company."*

Spanish Club, '25-'26; Civic Association, '25; Philatelic Club, '26.

Emiliano, who was born in the Philippines, has proven himself a real Westerner during the year he has been here. He is a good sport and a friend to everyone.

ALBERT ADAMS

*"In my desk my books do lie;
They are at rest and so am I."*

"Bert" is a good fellow. Everybody likes him and he seems to like everybody. He's a good Westerner but it took him until his senior year to find out that Western is a better school than any other. He knows it now.

MARTHA ALLISON

"Everybody knows Martha."

"Patricia," '25; Glee Club, '24-'25-'26.

There are very few Westerners who do not know and love Martha. She has been with us four years and will be greatly missed by all her friends, although those who go to George Washington will probably see her there.

ELIZABETH BAGBY

*"She was as good as she was fair,
None—none on earth above her."*

Civic Association, '26.

Betty's popularity at Western was due to her friendliness, charm of manner and her diminutiveness. She will soon board a train for Florida, but the orange blossoms will be shipped to Washington first.

DOROTHY BAILEY

"Mindful not of herself."

Basketball, '26; Studio Club, '26; Westerner Staff, '26.

Dorothy has been with us only a year, but in that year she has won many friends by her unselfishness and friendliness. She is always ready to lend a helping hand and Western wishes her lots of success at Wellesley.

LINWOOD BAILEY

"The best or none."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25; Westerner Staff, '26; Fencing Club, '26; Glee Club, '26; Civic Association, '26.

Who is the senior, who by his quiet, unassuming ways has gained the friendship of us all? Why "Lin" of course. He is a man with a purpose and is sure to succeed.

MARY BAKSHIAN

*"She doeth little kindnesses,
Which most leave undone or despise."*

The Westerner '26.

Mary is one of the lucky people who have stayed at Western for four years. She is quiet, conscientious, and a loyal friend.

DOROTHY BARTLETT

"Her smile recures the wounding of misfortune."

Literary Club, '26; Hockey, '25-'26; Civic Association, '26.

We all know Dot—the pretty little girl who lives so far from school. She seems to be so fond of Western life that she comes all the way from Gaithersburg to be with us.

GEORGE BATES

"Honesty is the best policy."

Cadets, '23; Radio Club, '23; Football, '25 (L. W. W.)-'25; Debating Society, '25; French Club, '26; Dramatic Association, '26; Student Committee, '26; Class Giftatorian, '26; Class Treasurer, '26; Breeze Staff (Business Manager); Tennis, '26 (Manager) ("W").

MARY BATES

*"I do not trust those eyes;
They dance in mists and sparkle with surprise."*

Mary's hearty laugh is the outlet of a happy disposition. She has that appealing drawl and sweet, innocent stare that is so contagious. Here's hoping the Bates family will send more like her.

JOHN BATSON

"To know him is to admire him."

Cadets, '22-'23; Freshman Baseball, '22; Varsity Baseball, '24 ("W") - '25 ("W") - '26; Lightweight Football, '22; Varsity Football, '23-'24-'25 ("W"); "W" Club, '24-'25-'26.

John has been one of the mainstays in Western athletics and his popularity is unsurpassed by none.

RUTH BAXTER

"Glowes the wealth of simple beauty and rustic health."

Glee Club, '25-'26; Art Club, '25-'26; Pianists' Club, '25-'26; Literary Club, '26; Mandolin Club, '26.

Ruth will leave quite a vacancy in the halls of Western. She is one of the exceptions to the "red-headed temper," for no one could have a sweeter disposition. As to accomplishments—she is a wonderful musician, a good artist and an excellent actress.

HELEN BECK

"Five feet two, eyes of blue."

Spanish Club, '24-'25-'26; Glee Club, '24-'25-'26; "Patricia," '25; Tennis, '24; Fencing Club, '24-'25; German Club, '25-'26; The Breeze Staff, '25-'26; Literary Club, '25-'26; Honor Roll, '24-'25-'26.

Helen, of the long, golden tresses, is the first member of "The Inseparables." She is jolly good company and takes interest in whatever is going on.

KATHARINE BERRALL

"Much Ado About Everything."

Basketball, '23 (H. M.)-'24-'25 (B); Baseball, '23; Hockey, '24-'25-'26; Tennis, '24-'25-'26; Secretary Senior Class, '26; Honor Roll, '26; Western Breeze '26; Student Committee, '26.

"K. B." is the secretary of our class and no organization is complete without her. Too, she goes out for all kinds of Sports, and is Athletic Editor of The Breeze.

JEAN BETHUNE

*"For what are all our contrivings,
And the wisdom of our books
When compared with your good humor and the gladness of your looks."*

Glee Club, '25.

During her four years at Western, Jean has been an earnest worker, always striving for and gaining the best and highest in life.

ANDREW R. BIRD, JR.

"Six feet two, eyes of blue—"

Cadets, '23-'24-'25-'26 (2nd Lieutenant Co. M.); Radio Club, '25; War Games, '24-'25-'26; Math Club, '25; Civic Association, '26; Officers Club, '26.

Andrew is certainly the exception that proves the rule when it comes to the old saying that "Good things come in small packages."

WARREN BOUVE

"By sports like tennis are all our cares beguiled."

Cadets, '23-'24; Tennis, '24-'25 ("W"); "W" Club, '25-'26.

When anyone at Western thinks of tennis, he or she just naturally sees Warren swatting the ball about the court with his mighty arm. He usually wins on the courts of tennis and friendship.

MARY EVELYN BOWERS

"Some are born great—so was Mary—"

Hockey, '25 (Capt.) ("W")-'25 ("W"); Basketball '24 ("W")-'25 ("W"), Numeral-'26; Baseball, '23 ("W"); Tennis, '23 Numeral-'24-'25-'26; Track, '23 ("W")-'24; Glee Club, '25; Dramatic Association, '25; Minstrel Show, "Too Much Bobby," '26; Student Committee, '26; "W" Club, '23-'24-'25-'26 (President).

BENTON BROOKS

"Bang!"

Cadets, '23-'24; Radio Club, '23; Rifle, '26; Light-weight Basketball, '24.

Eagle-eyed Benton is another of the Western boys who has made the rifle team. He is a mighty fine boy to be on the good side of—but beware of his gun if he's mad.

EDWARD A. BROWN, JR.

"He's smiling all the while."

Math Club, '25-'26 (Treasurer).

Although "Ed" has only been with us for two years, he has endeared himself to all who know him, for—

"So gentle, mild and coy
He seems a model boy;
But gentle reader mark you well,
You cannot sometimes always tell."

VIRGINIA BUELL

"Those graceful acts, those thousand decencies, that daily flow from all her words and actions."

Tennis, '25.

Is it true that "Ginny" is carried to school in inside overcoat pockets when it's very cold? In spite of her diminutiveness she is one of Western's favorites.

ELLEN BULL

*"Pleasant to walk with,
Witty to talk with,
And pleasant to think on."*

German Club, '25-'26; Track, '22.

Eyes of brown, red lips too; always smiling, always true. If we'd one time see her frown we'd think the school would tumble down. So we all hope we'll always see Ellen happy as can be.

MARTHA BURCH

"Always dancing, always gay."

Glee Club, '22-'23; Civic Association, '25-'26; Track, '22.

Forever talking, talking, Martha always has her say. We believe a famous orator she will become some day. We know she has a loving heart and is really, Oh, so gay.

RALPH BURGESS

"I will have sport from morn till eve."

Swimming, '24; Dramatic Association, '26 (Vice-President); Cadets, '23-'24; Radio Club, '23-'24 (Secretary); The Breeze Staff, '26; The Westerner Staff, '26; Civic Association, '26; Public Speaking Play, '25; Hop Along, '26; Cheer Leader, '26.

ALTON BUSCHER

"Better late than never."

Though Alton has only been here two years, he has proved himself a good Westerner and an asset to the school as a member of the varsity basketball squad.

ELIZABETH CALDWELL

"Pep, good humor, animation, make a friend worth having."

Track, '22; Civic Association, '25-'26.

When we see her eyes atwinkling
And when her lips begin to smile,
We know our "Lizzie" has an idea
That is quite worth our while.

ELIZABETH CAREY

*"If to her lot some common errors fall,
Look on her face and you'll forget them all."*

Broadway's bright lights are calling to Betty, with their promise of glory and fame. You see, Betty plans to be a great artist some day, and if she ends up as she has started, we know she will be.

LAURA CLARK

"I have often regretted my speech but never my silence."

Glee Club, '24-'25-'26; Art Club, '26; Mandolin Club, '26; Honor Roll, '24-'26.

A good sport, a loyal friend, a live wire, popular with all and the enemy of none—that's Laura. Now here's a good record if there ever was one.

PAUL CLARK

"There is more in me than thou understand'st."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25 (Lieutenant)-'26 (Major); War Games, '23-'24-'25-'26; Officers Club, '25-'26 (President); Breeze Staff, '25; Student Committee, '26; Freshman Baseball, '23; President Senior Class, '26.

Major Paul has certainly made his mark in the annals of Western both as a cadet and as a president.

HARRIET CLARKE

*"A very good sport from her toes to her nose
And she's very tall, as everyone knows."*

Basketball, '23-'24-'25 (Numerals)-'26 (Manager);
Hockey, '25 ("H")-'26; Track, '23; Baseball, '23;
Tennis, '23-'24-'25; Rifle, '24.

Will Western be lost when "Happy," the substitute, the manager and the chauffeuse, leaves? We hope for the best.

BEN CONNALLY

"A good reputation is more valuable than money."

Spanish Club, '26; Spring Play, '26; Debating Society, '26; Business Manager The Westerner '26.

Ben has always been known to be a tennis player and a business manager, but one more thing has been discovered. He's an actor! On top of all this, he's one of the best known and most popular seniors.

RICHARD CRAIGHILL

"Eventually, why not now?"

Cadets, '23-'24-'25-'26 (2nd Lieutenant Co. K);
Officers Club, '26; War Games Team, '25-'26;
Breeze Staff, '26; Math Club, '25.

"Dick" is the sort of fellow who "gets there." He always succeeds in whatever he attempts to do because he is such a determined worker.

ROBERT CRAIGHILL

"Show me the way to go home."

Cadets, '22-'23-'24-'25-'26; Track, '24-'25-'26.

Bob is a member of Mr. Leland Norton's celebrated two-piece jazz orchestra, located in Room 113. He also studies Math 8 once in a while, just for the fun of it.

ROGER CRAVEN

"He reads much; he is a great observer, and he looks quite through the deeds of men."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25; Track, '26.

Roger always seems to be very quiet and gentle, but just let him at his French—in French he is quite a "shark."

ELEANOR CROPLEY

"A true friend forever."

Basketball, '23-'24-'25-'26; Hockey, '25-'26.

Eleanor is one of those quiet little persons with a kind heart. You can always depend on her when you get in a tight place. During her four years at Western she has starred in basketball and hockey and her loss will be keenly felt next year.

GLADYS CUMMINGS

"The quiet mind is richer than a crown."

Glee Club, '25; Civic Association, '26.

Gladys goes her way quietly and without ostentation, but we suspect her of doing a great deal of thinking.

MILDRED DANIEL

"Her eyes like wells, where sun lies late, so clear and trustful blue."

We are sure you never saw any smiles quite as sweet and winsome as those of Mildred's. She has a regular talent for making friends, maybe because she is so full of pep and loves to dance, especially the Charleston.

THOMAS DAVID

"Manly and strong in all his actions."

Lightweight Football, '22; Freshman Football, '22; Freshman Baseball, '22 (Captain); Football, '23-'24-'25-'26; Baseball, '23-'24-'25-'26; Basketball, '24; Glee Club, '23 (Treasurer)-'24 (Librarian); Hop Along, '24; "Trial By Jury," '24; Operetta, '23; Track, '22; "W" Club, '23 (Secretary)-'24 (Treasurer)-'25 (Vice-President)-'26 (Sergeant-at-Arms).

SAM DETWILER

"So modest and—words fail us."

Math Club, '25-'26; Cadets, '25 (Winning Company) prize inexperienced man-'26; Breeze Staff, '26; Westerner Staff, '26; Western Hi-Y Club, '26 (Secretary-Treasurer); Honor Roll, '26; Civic Association, '26.

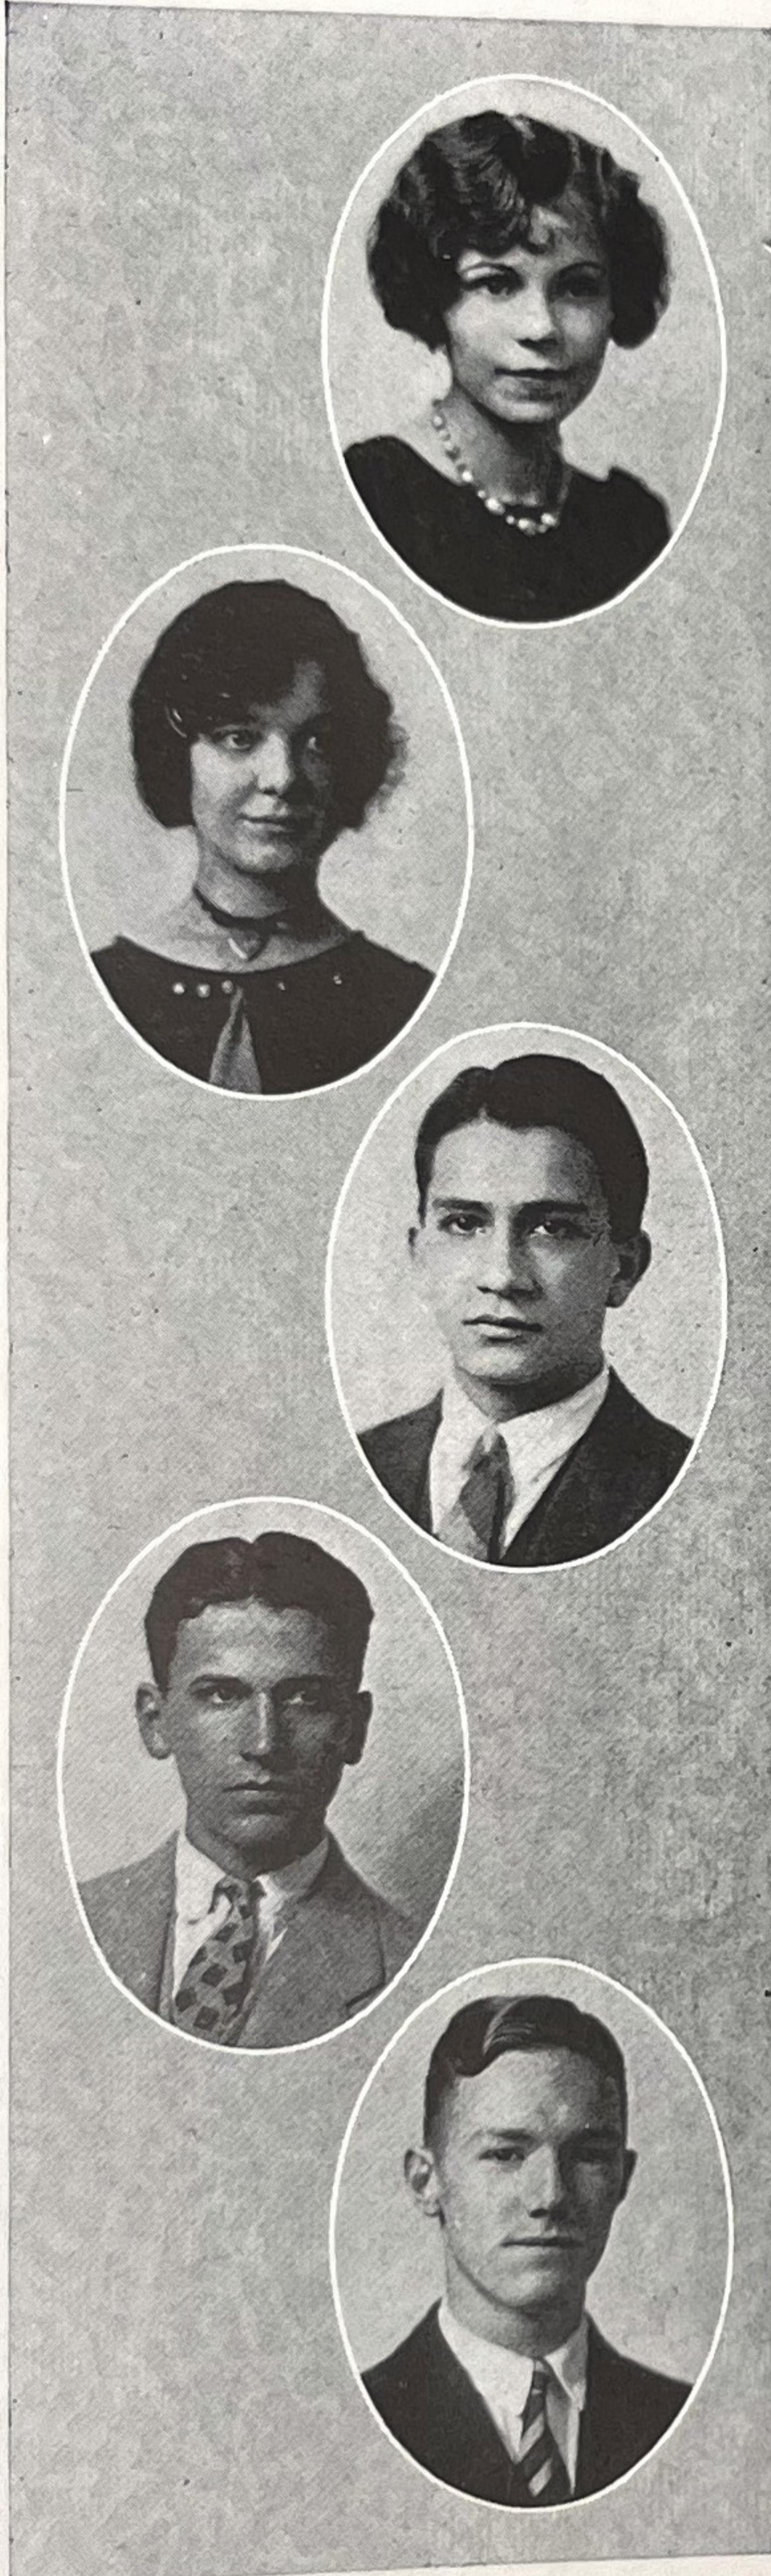

Sam is finishing the course in three and one-half years, and getting on the honor roll is no easy job either.

NELL DISMUKES

"Are there any more at home like you?"

French Club, '26; Glee Club, '25-'26; Literary Club, '25-'26.

Nell is the little girl with the big brown eyes that appears so quiet and shy to the world in general. But those who know her assure us that she is full of fun and mischief.

VIRGINIA DYE

"She is a friend, a kinder friend has no one."

Civic Association, '26; Debating Society, '25.

Virginia deserves the best fortune in the world, whether it be in the line of painting or public speaking, in both of which she is quite talented.

ELLIS EDLOWITZ

"Exhausting thought and having wisdom with each studious year."

Cadets, '24-'25-'26; Glee Club, '26; Math Club, '26; Baseball, '23; Track, '23; Debating Society, '26.

Oh, ye most silver-tongued of silver-tongued orators! How well we remember Ellis' play on the emotions of the throng in Miss Gardner's Public Speaking class.

RUSSELL EDMONSTON

"First in fight and every graceful deed."

Cadets, '22; Lightweight Basketball, '23; Baseball, '25-'26; Football, '24; Basketball, '26; Freshman Baseball, '22.

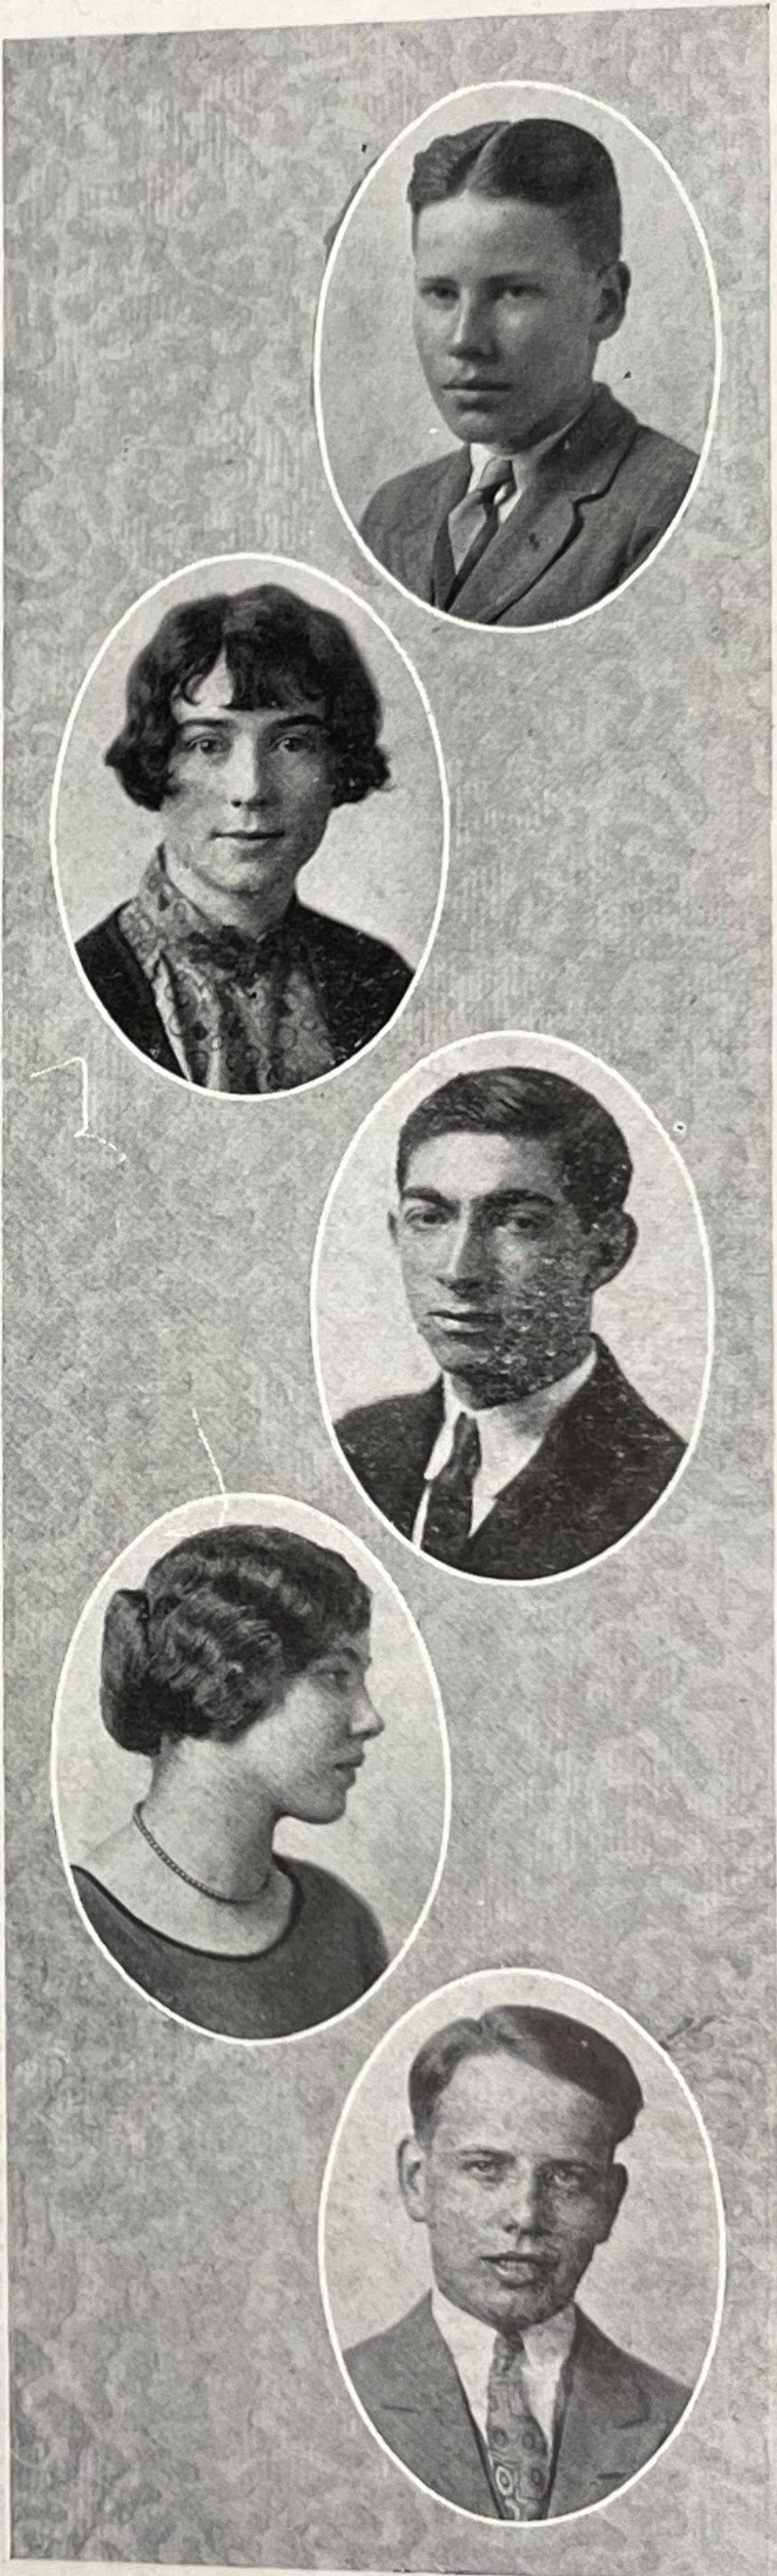

We associate "Russ" with "hustle and bustle" after the manner in which he has raced through high school, making his mark in football, baseball and basketball.

WINTON ELLIOTT

*"To be with him the ladies strive,
When he goes out to take a drive."*

Cadets, '22-'23; Track, '22-'23-'24-'25-'26; Rifle, '22-'23; Math Club, '24-'25; Spanish Club, '26; Lightweight Football, '22-'23; Tennis, '26.

Here's to Winton whose genial smile and Western spirit have made our four years here much merrier.

PHILIP EVANS

"Whose words of learned length and thundering sound, Amaze the gazing rustics gathered round."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25-'26; Debating Society, '24-'25-'26 (President); Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Spanish Club, '25-'26; Math Club, '25; The Breeze Staff, '26.

Philip is one of those boys to whom all things are seemingly known. Oh, yes; he is very popular as he is a jolly good fellow.

MILDRED FANSLER

"Sober, steadfast and demure."

Basketball, '25; Girl Reserves, '26 (Treasurer); Rifle, '26.

Mildred is the quiet little girl with the big blue eyes and an everlasting smile. She has her own individual pleasant way about her and Western will have a time filling her place.

MAX FELDMAN

"To know is to be known."

Lightweight Basketball, '26.

Max has shown that old Western spirit, as an important part of the lightweight basketball squad, and has been a staunch supporter of the other teams.

CAROLINE FEIL

"An equal mixture of good humor and sensible soft melancholy."

German Club, '25-'26; Spanish Club, '25-'26; Literary Club, '26; Tennis, '25; Breeze Staff, '26; Glee Club, '26.

Caroline is one of our few excellent linguists; she is also unwavering in her friendship, faithful in her studies and steady in her upward climb.

AUBREY FELTON

"To be young is to be jolly."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25.

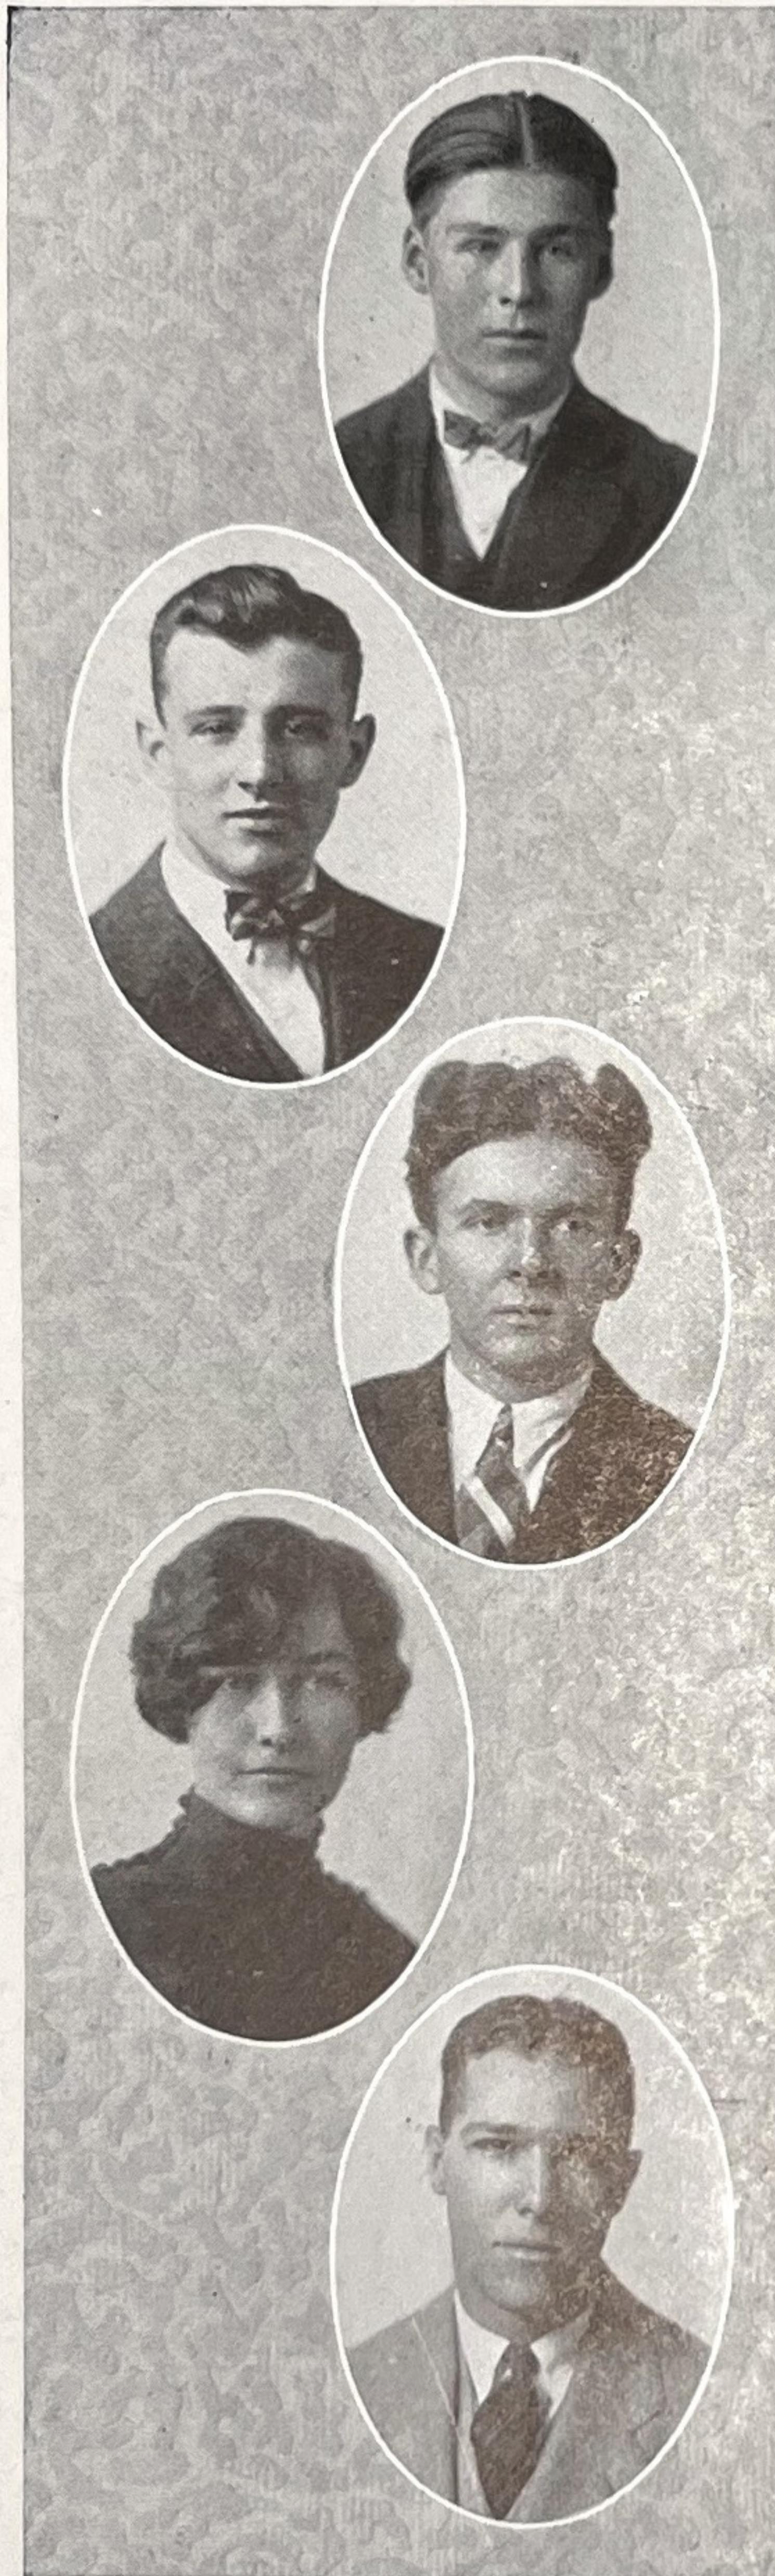

Aubrey is one of those energetic people who came to us from the wilds of Virginia. His chief activities are being funny and being a cadet.

WILBAR FISHER

"At sight of thee, my gloomy soul cheers up."

Cadets, '22-'23.

From a little clearing called Falls Church comes our modern Demosthenes. Wilbar has a wonderful knack of making speeches and bestowing radiant smiles on teachers and girls. The life of any gathering, Western will miss this sunny disposition.

THOMAS FITCH

"A lion with the ladies is a most dreadful thing."

Christmas Play, '25; "Dulcy," '26; Spanish Club, '26; "Hop Along," '26; Golf, '26.

"Tom" is the famous kid brother of "Dulcy" fame, the love-sick youth of "The Trysting Place," and an all around good sport, which is the most that can be said of anybody.

BERCHMANS FITZPATRICK

"I should worry while she loves me."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25 (Sergeant Company H)-'26 (First Lieutenant Company H); Lightweight Football, '23 (L. W. W.)-'24 (L. W. W.)-'25 (L. W. W.); Track, '23; Freshman Baseball, '23; Officers Club, '26.

"Berch" is one of those quiet, sincere, good fellows who upholds Western's traditions so creditably in the cadets. Spring came. At that time a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love. "Berch" is no exception.

MARGARET FLEMING

*"Such heavenly figures from her pencil flow,
So warm with light her blended colors glow."*

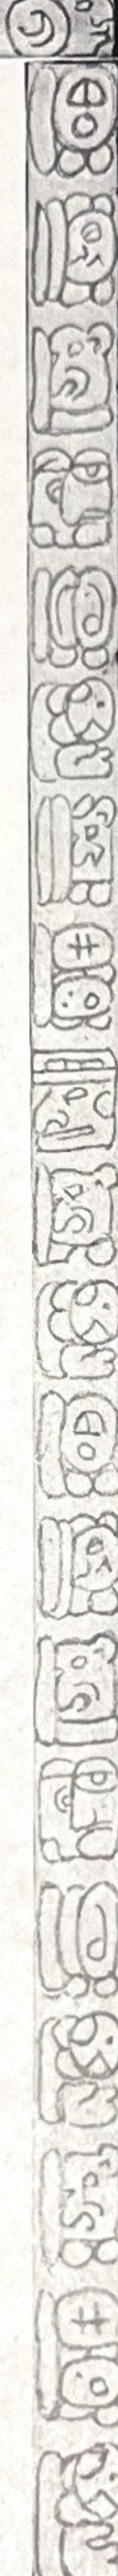

Spanish Club, '24-'25-'26 (President); Arts Club, '25-'26 (President); German Club, '24-'25-'26 (Vice-President); Literary Club, '25-'26 (Vice-President); Dramatic Association, '24-'25-'26 (Secretary); Hockey, '24-'25-'26 (Manager); Student Committee, '25-'26; Tennis, '24; The Breeze Staff, '26; The Westerner Staff '26; Honor Roll, '23-'24-'25-'26; Valedictorian, '26.

HARRY FLETCHER

"A bold, bad man! Beware, girls!"

Football, '24-'25 (Manager); "W" Club, '25-'26.

Harry has been with us only two years, coming from Tech, but he has attracted many boys into his select circle, and the girls—just ask them!

DAVID FONOROFF

"Strange melodies arise to his musical touch."

Cadets, '23-'24; Glee Club, '23-'24; "Trial by Jury," '24; Dramatic Association, '26; Hop Along, '26; "Dulcy," '26; Civic Association, '26; Baseball, '26.

Aside from being a good musician, Dave has won fame in dramatics.

LLOYD A. FREE

"There is mischief in this boy."

Cadets, '23 - '25 (Lieutenant) - '26 (Lieutenant-Colonel); Lightweight Football, '23 (L. W. W.); Student Committee, '23-'26 (Vice-President); Rifle Club, '23; French Club, '26 (Treasurer); Math Club, '25; Honor Roll, '26; Officers Club, '25-'26; War Games, '26; Freshman Basketball, '23; Editor The Westerner, '26.

BETTY GARBER

"And mistress of herself tho' China fall"

Basketball, '23-'24 (Captain) ("W") (Varsity), '26 (Captain) ("W") (Varsity); Hockey, '23-'24-'25 ("W") (Varsity), '26; Track, '23-'24-'25-'26; "W" Club, '24-'25-'26 (Secretary); Civic Association, '26 (Secretary).

Betty's ability to make goals and to keep calm at the same time is a mystery to all who play the game with her.

MABEL GOERNER

"Her air, her manner, all who saw admired."

Glee Club, '25-'26.

Mabel has remained one of the few girls at Western with unshorn tresses, and with such hair who can blame her? One of the demure Mabel's many accomplishments, not generally known at Western, is her ability to sing.

HELEN GOODNER

"Ever with a smile she cheered all those around her."

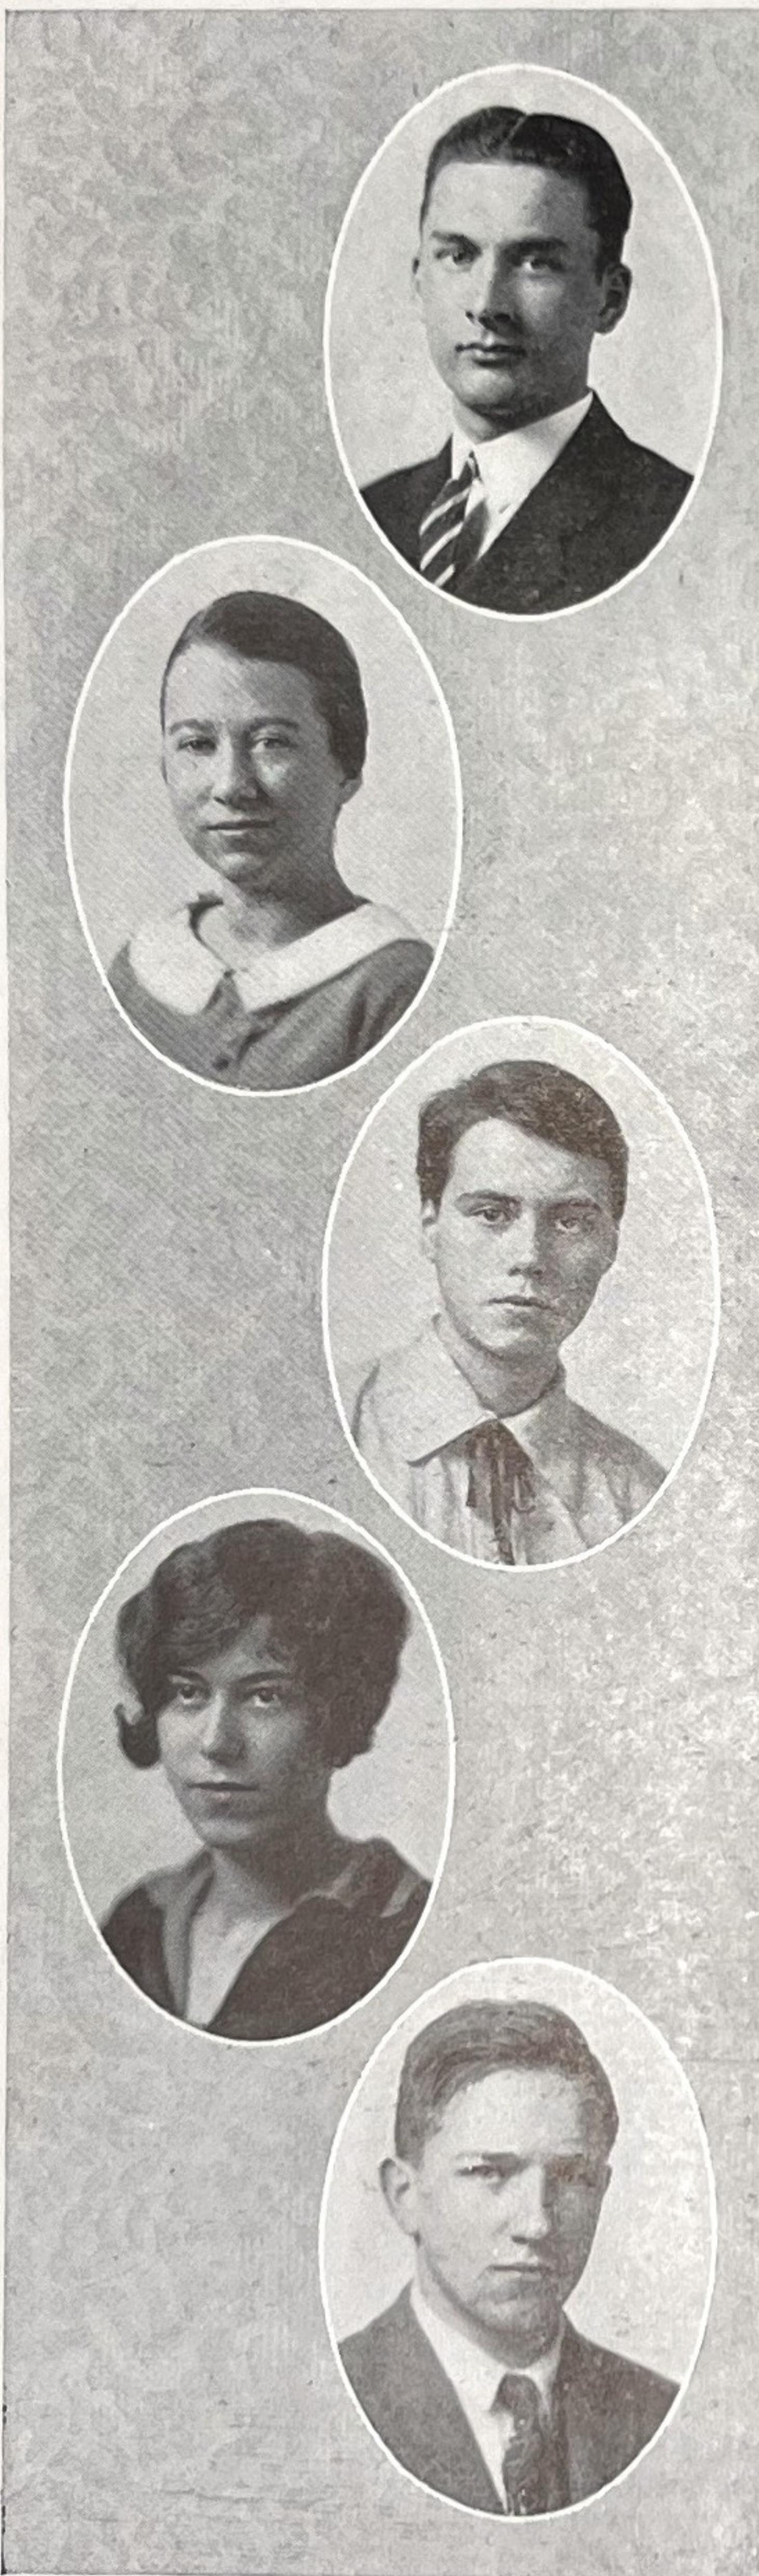

Honor Roll, '23-'24-'25-'26; Student Committee, '25; Math Club, '25-'26 (President); Spanish Club, '26; The Breeze Staff, '26; The Westerner Staff, '26 (Associate Editor); Literary Club, '26 (Treasurer); Girl Reserves, '26; Girl Reserve Fashion Revue, '26; Western Carnival, '24.

ALDEN GOODWIN

"The sheik from the West."

Dramatic Association, '26; Debating Society, '26; "Dulcy," '26; Cheer Leader, '26.

Alden was one of the late comers at Western. He dropped in on us just a year ago, and since then has made many friends at school. As a cheer leader he is unexcelled because he has the old Western fighting spirit in him.

MOLLY GREELEY

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Debating Society, '25-'26 (Vice-President); "W" Club, '24-'25-'26; Glee Club, '25-'26 (Vice-President); Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Literary Club, '26; The Breeze Staff, '26; Basketball, '24 "W"-25 "W"-26; Hockey, '25-'26; Tennis, '24-'25-'26; French Club, '26; Student Council, '25; "Minstrel Show," '25.

Molly, yes, the one with the infectious giggle, has shown that there is nothing she cannot do, and do well.

NANCY GRISWOLD

"Wise to resolve and patient to perform."

Westerner Staff, '26; Glee Club, '23; Math Club, '25-'26; French Club, '26; Art Club, '25-'26; Mandolin Club, '26; Basketball, '23; Baseball, '23; Hockey, '24; Western Carnival, '24; Fencing Club, '24-'25; "Dulcy," '26; Hop Along, '26.

Nancy combines a boyish bob with a good business head, two traits seldom found in the weaker sex.

PHYLLIS HALLAM

"She's pretty to walk with, and witty to talk with."

Art Club, '24-'25-'26; Carnival, '24.

We all know the pretty little pilot of the "Puddle Jumper." (So named for its ability to jump over large bodies of water.) She has been with us four years. We wish we could keep her four more years, but Western ranks second in her estimation, Dartmouth leading.

FRANK HANNA

"Why so quiet, Frank?"

Cadets, '23-'24-'25; Banjo Club, '25-'26; Glee Club, '26; Swimming, '24; Track, '26.

Frank is one of our true Westerners. He has been a loyal supporter of the Cadets, and other Western activities. Frank is quiet, but when he does speak it is something worth listening to.

VIVIAN HARRIS

"'E' stands for Excellent—that's me!"

Civic Association, '25.

On Vivian's reports there is nothing but "E's." She is one of our brightest, jolliest and happiest girls. If Mary is there—there also is Vivian. Here's to the future, Viv!

JEAN HAYWOOD

"Beautiful brown-eyed Jean."

Civic Association, '25; Basketball, '24.

Who at Western has not seen Jean? Her big brown eyes and dark hair make her one of our prettiest girls. Jean has many friends, one of which is Marion.

ALBERT HEAGY

"He's the king of good fellows."

Cadets, '22-'23; Lightweight Football, '22-'23; Lightweight Basketball, '22-'23; Football, '24-'25; Basketball, '24-'25 (Captain); "W" Club, '24-'26 (President); Basketball, '25 (Captain); Student Committee, '23-'25 (Chairman); Glee Club, '22-'23 (President); "Hop Along," '25-'26; Minstrel Show, '23.

JANE HENDERSON

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

Civic Association, '25; Literary Club, '26.

During her sojourn at Western, Jane has been a rather mysterious person keeping her likes and dislikes to herself. However, we have discovered one of her "likes," to wit, dancing. Well, well, I suppose she also will succumb to the Charleston. Here's luck!

RUTH HENDERSON

"To have friends is to be one."

Basketball, '25-'26; Glee Club, '25-'26.

Ruth, who is admired by all her classmates, is a member of the Glee Club, active in basketball, and other Western activities. We also hear she has outside interest—George Washington and Devitt's.

JOHN CONWAY HENRY

"I am not in the roll of common men."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25-'26 (Captain, Regimental Adjutant); Track, '26; Dramatic Association, '26.

John is loved by all, especially the girls. His career at Western has been a success, and we are sure he will carry his fine qualities with him to the University of Maryland.

MARIE HERZOG

"Those graceful acts, those thousand decencies that daily flow from all her words and actions."

Spanish Club, '24-'25 (Treasurer)-'26 (Vice-President); Arts Club, '25-'26; German Club, '24-'25-'26 (Secretary-Treasurer); Literary Club, '25-'26; The Breeze Staff, '26; The Westerner Staff, '26; Hockey, '25-'26; Tennis, '24; Honor Roll, '23-'24-'25-'26; Girl Reserves, '26; Girl Reserves Fashion Revue, '26; Salutatorian Senior Class, '26.

JOHN HIGGINS

"He smiles, and sleeps."

Baseball, '25 ("W")-'26; Boys' "W" Club, '25-'26; Football, '25.

Although John has not been at Western long, he has made many friends. His support of athletics has helped Western in several events, and we feel sure that he would have been one of our star athletes had he been here longer.

MARIAN HINTON

"Black hair, shining blue eyes, and, 'Have you seen Jean?'"

Civic Association, '25; Basketball, '25.

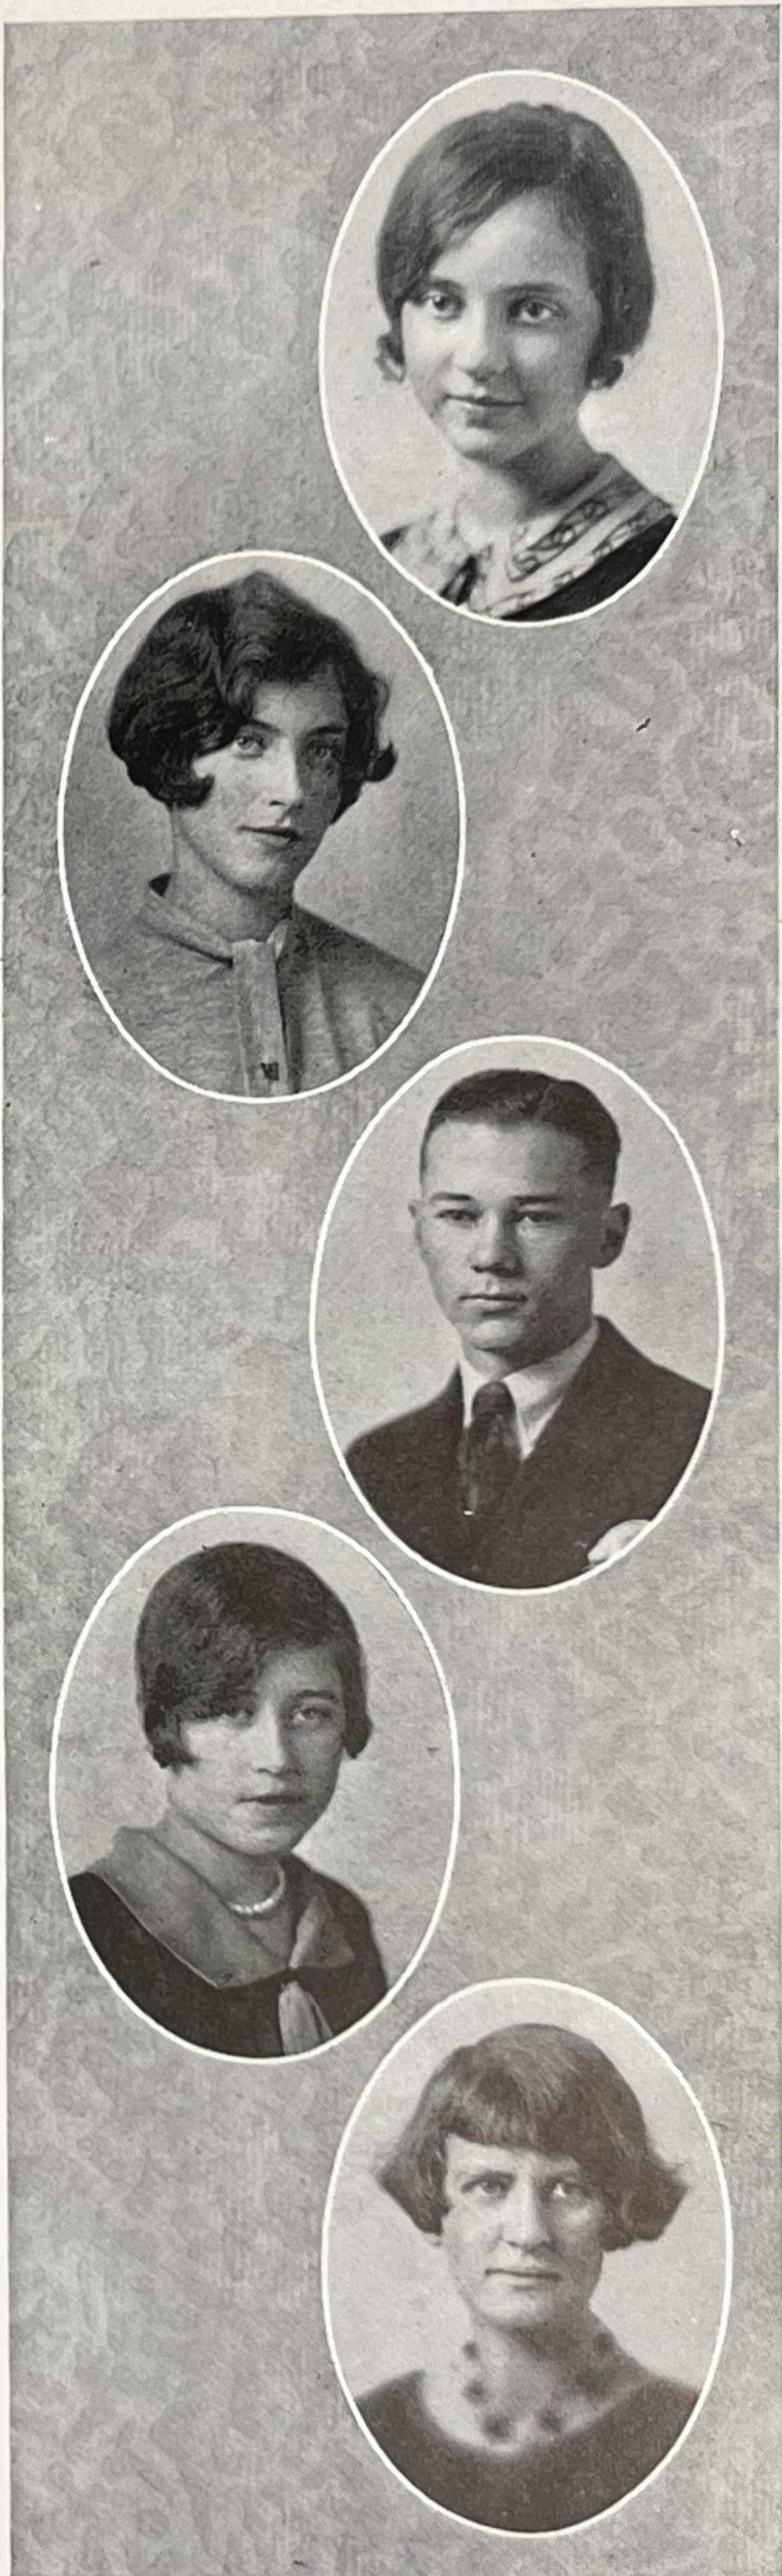

Marian has spent a good deal of her four(ty) years at Western in looking for Jean and making good marks. She is one of Western's favorite girls.

CAROLINE HOBBS

"Some are wise and some are otherwise."

Glee Club, '25-'26; Debating Society, '26; Literary Club, '26; Hockey, '24-'25-'26; Basketball, '24; Tennis, '24; Minstrel Show, '25; French Club, '26.

Yes, it's spelled "l-i-n-e," but it's pronounced "l-i-n." This mistake of the pronunciation of her name and her lively troop of Girl Scouts are Caroline's chief worries in life.

ELIZABETH HOGE

"A countenance in which did meet Sweet records, promises as sweet."

Betsy is one of those whom Western hates to see leave her portals. She has been very popular around school, especially with the cadets. She and her wide circle of friends always have some news for us.

RUTH HOOPER

*"My love is young and fair,
My love has golden hair."*

Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Glee Club, '26; Literary Club, '26; The Westerner Staff, '26; "Hop-Along," '26; Carnival, '24; "Dulcy," '26.

Oh, Dulcy! Our Ruth is well known by all as a splendid actress. She has clear blue eyes, a lovable personality, and many ardent admirers.

EDWARD HORNIBROOK

"Western's long distance pipe collector."

Football, '22 (Numerals); Lightweight Football, '23; Basketball, '23 (Numerals); Lightweight Basketball, '24; Track, '25; Rifle Team, '25-'26; Civic Association, '26; February Class Night, '26.

Eddie came to us from the wild and woolly West one year ago. He is a dead shot, both with the ladies and with his rifle and also one of the original "Charlestomers." Will some one please ask him why he wears a slave bracelet?

MARY HORTON

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

The Breeze Staff, '26.

Everyone who knows Mary loves her for her winning ways. We hear she is quite an admirer of both West Point and Annapolis. How about it, Mary?

EVELYN HOYT

*"To look up and not down
To look forward and not back,
To look out and not in, and
To lend a hand."*

Glee Club, '25-'26; Rifle Club, '26; Basketball, '24; Tennis, '24.

Evelyn's sweet singing in the Glee Club and wonderful shooting in rifle have proved what a competent person she is. Later she may teach, who knows!?

CHARLOTTE HUGHES

"A Georgia Peach."

Art Club, '25-'26; Public Speaking Plays, '25.

Charlotte is known throughout the majestic halls of Western by her "peaches and cream" complexion. Her artistic ability makes her one of the best artists at Western. Good luck in all your undertakings!

ELEANOR RUTH HULBERT

"Almost shy, yet when she plays, the very Gods are moved."

Orchestra, '23-'24-'25 (Vice-President), '26 (Vice-President); Pianists' Club, '23-'24-'25 (President)-'26 (President) Glee Club, '23-'24-'25-'26; Student Council, '25-'26; Mandolin Club, '25-'26; German Club, '25-'26.

ASHTON JONES

"Oh, give us a man who sings at his work."

Cadets, '23; Glee Club, '24-'25-'26; Dramatic Association, '26; "Trial by Jury," '24; "Patricia," '25; "Christmas Play," '26; Football, '24; Civic Association, '25; Rifle, '26.

Among Ashton's many accomplishments are golf, tennis, and his musical ability. Who at Western has not heard Ashton as an orator? We hear that he is going to V. M. I.

BERNICE JONES

"'Tis thy lovely, dreamy eyes that so draws us to thee."

Pianists' Club, '25-'26; Glee Club, '26.

Strains of music, quick, jazzy, others soft and sweet. A peep into the music room, there is Bernice, just as versatile and popular as the music she plays.

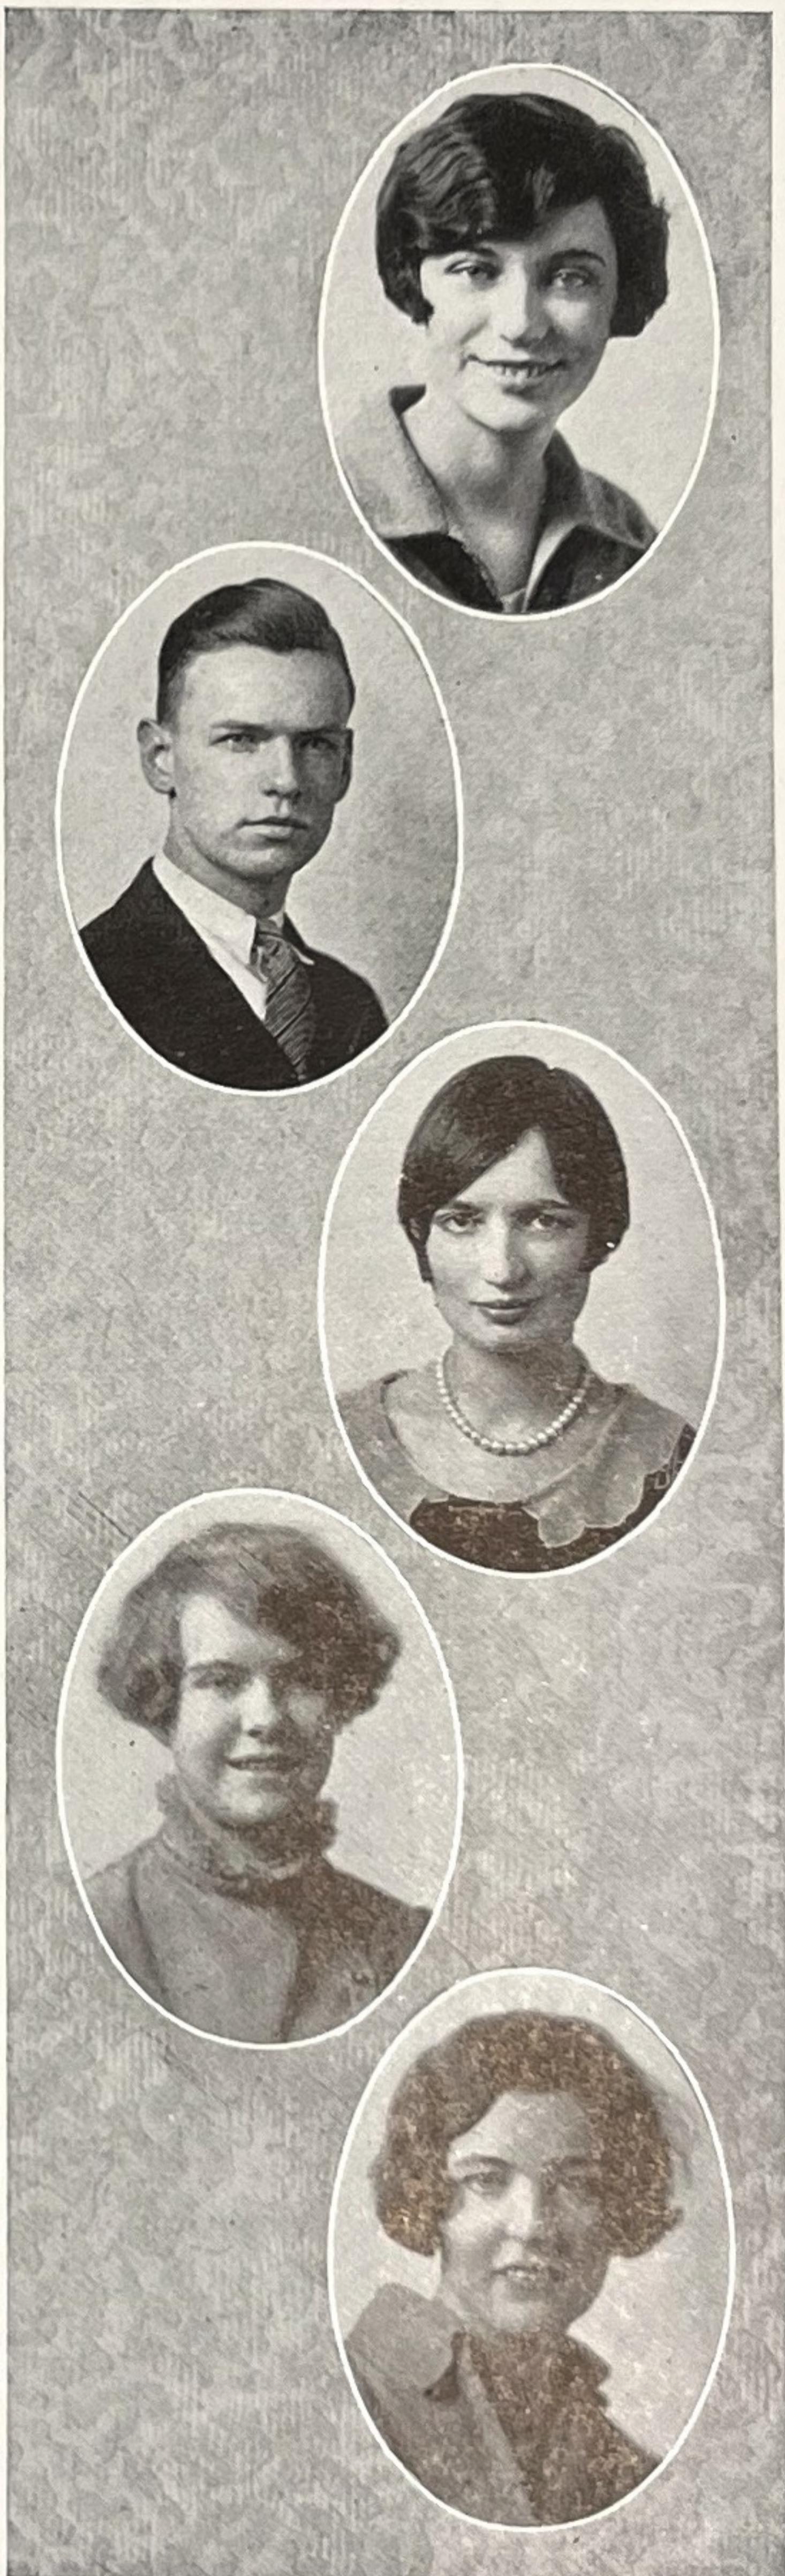

MARGARET KARR

*"As welcome as sunshine in every place,
Is the beaming approach of a good-natured face."*

Baseball, '23; Hockey, '24-'25-'26; Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Mandolin Club, '24-'25-'26; French Club, '25-'26; Spanish Club, '26; The Breeze Staff, '26; The Westerner Staff, '26; Honor Roll, '23-'26.

Got any news for Senior Notes? Yes, that's Peggy.

DOROTHY KELLY

*"Sure 'tis her broad smiles
That are full of winning wiles."*

Pianist Club, '23-'24-'25; Civic Association, '25; Rifle, '26.

Demure is just the word. Dorothy is a quiet, sweet girl with hazel blue eyes and a broad Irish smile. It is rumored that Dorothy tickles the keys quite niftily.

ARTHUR A. KIMBALL

"A soldier spirit yet unquelled, and high."

Cadets, '23-'24 (Prize Corporal), '25 (Lieutenant Winning Company), '26 (Captain Company L); Officers' Club, '25-'26 (Vice-President); War Games, '24-'25-'26 (Captain Championship Team); Rifle Team, '23-'24-'25-'26 ("W") (Manager) (Member Brigade Cadet Team); Math Club, '25 (President); Honor Roll, '25; Student Council, '26; The Westerner Staff, '26.

CLAIRE KNIGHT

*"Where'er you go, where'er you be,
May joy and happiness fall on thee."*

Glee Club, '25; Dramatic Association, '26; Art Club, '26; "Hop-Along," '26; Carnival, '24; February Class Night, '26; "Dulcy," '26.

Clair Knight? Why the very name suggests what a lovely character she is! Who would dare say that gentle Claire Knight is not nice to everybody? She possesses the most melodious voice we have ever heard.

NANCY LAY

*"This lass so neat, with smiles so sweet,
Has won my right good will."*

Art Club, '25-'26; Glee Club, '25-'26; Civic Association, '25; Basketball, '23-'24-'25-'26; Tennis, '25; Carnival, '24.

Everyone at Western knows Nancy. She has many friends and a sweet personality. It is hinted that she is to be a nurse. Lucky patient!

DOROTHY LEECH

"A gentle tongue is a tree of life."

Civic Association, '25; Hockey, '24.

Dorothy, whom we have been proud to call a classmate for four years, is much loved by all her friends. We hear she is quite a golfer.

KENDALL LEEDOM

"He gained a noble fame."

Glee Club, '25; Orchestra, '25-'26; "Alabama Minstrels," '25; "Patricia," '25; "Queen's Enemies," '25; Dramatic Association, '26; "The Trysting Place," '26.

Never more will the stage of Western be graced by this stately actor, nor will its interior tremble from the sweet music of his saxophone.

ROBERT LEONARD

"Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we die."

Cadets, '23-'24; Rifle Team, '23-'24-'25-'26 (Captain); "Hop Along," '23; Civic Association, '25-'26; Student Committee, '25-'26.

Another one of our coming orators is Bob Leonard. He has also shown his musical ability as a member of Western's Jazz Orchestra. We wish him success in all his undertakings.

DORIS LINDNER

"Her actions speak much stronger than her words."

Glee Club, '25-'26; Literary Club, '25-'26.

Doris is the gentle maid of quiet, restful voice and composed nature. She never seems to worry or hurry. Her peaceful calm is never disturbed. We'd certainly not class her as a constant talker any more than we'd call her a say-nothing.

MARGARET LUNDY

"Sweet and fair she seems to be."

The Westerner Staff, '26; Hockey, '25-'26; Basketball, '23-'24-'26; Tennis, '25-'26; Honor Roll, '24; Track, '26; Baseball, '26; "W" Club, '26.

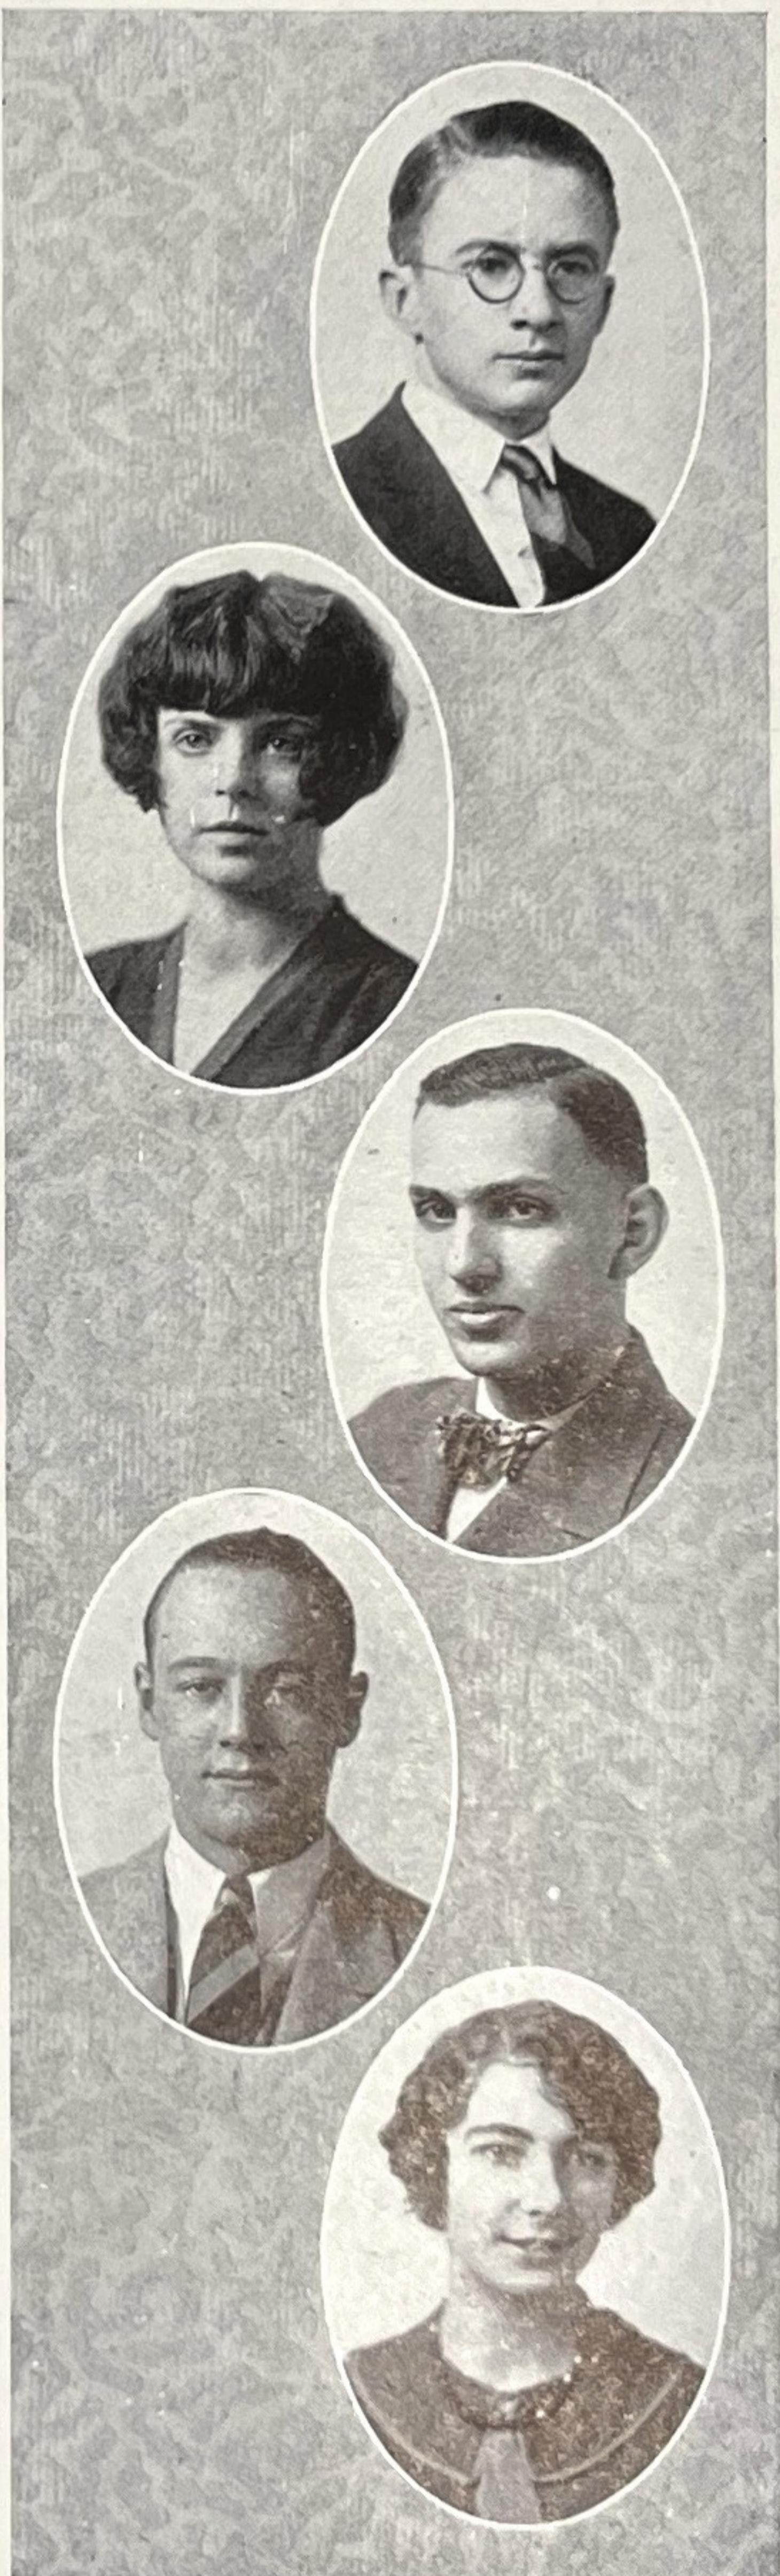

Peggy is one of those swift people who make high school in three and a half years. We congratulate her on that, but we can't help being sorry she wasn't here the full time.

HELEN MACOUGHTRY

"If Helen comes, will Alden be far behind?"

Basketball, '24 ("W")-'25 ("W"); "W" Club, '24-'25-'26; Dramatic Association, '26; Spanish Club, '26; The Western Breeze Staff, '26; Hockey, '24-'25; Glee Club, '26.

Both brilliance and beauty! What a combination! That is just what we have in Helen. She graduated in three years with exceptionally good grades in everything, including popularity.

WINSTON MANNING

"Business is my pleasure."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25-'26; Math Club, '25.

Winston is a First Lieutenant in charge of supplies this year. He is noted for his studies and good nature along with his cadet work, and we know he will succeed in anything he undertakes.

VIRGINIA MARTIN

"To know her, is to love her."

Literary Club, '26; Civic Association, '25; Dramatic Association, '24-'25-'26; Debating Society, '25-'26; Hockey, '24; The Breeze Staff, '26; The Westerner Staff, '26; "Too Much Bobby," '25; "The Trysting Place," '25; Pianist Club, '24-'25; Girl Reserves, '26.

What will Western do without "Chickie"? We fear The Breeze and Dramatic Association will be incomplete. However, the best must go.

EARL MAY

"Music hath its charms, but a soldier—"

Orchestra, '23-'24-'25-'26; Minstrel Show," '23; Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Glee Club, '23-'24; Cadets, '24-'25-'26 (Sergeant Major).

Earl, who has attained distinction in the cadets and the orchestra while at Western, is to study for a musical career. He will be a success without doubt.

HUGH McDIARMID

"The lion is not so fierce as he is painted."

Basketball, '24-'25 ("W")-'26 ("W"); Tennis, '24 ("W")-'25 ("W")-'26; Football, '25 ("W"); Track, '24-'26; "W" Club, '24-'25-'26 (Secretary); Golf, '26; Rifle, '24; Civic Association, '26 (Secretary); Minstrel Show," '24; "Dulcy," '26; "Hop-Along," '25.

MARGARET MERRIAM

"To know her is to love her."

Glee Club, '25-'26; Honor Roll; Civic Association, '25.

Wavy brown hair, big eyes, are they always so quiet? No, for they can be just as full of mischief as Margaret really is.

ESTELLE MILES

*"Not too serious, not too gay,
But a rare good fellow when it comes to play."*

German Club, '26.

Estelle's chief delight is physics, but none of the sciences seem to cause her fret or worry. We will expect great things of this budding scientist in years to come.

JEANNE MILES

"Oh to be little and blonde."

Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Art Club, '25-'26; Basketball, '24; Hockey, '24-'25; Fencing, '24.

Although Jeanne has only been with us for two years, she certainly has made up for lost time. She is famed as a "Charlestener" and for her artistic ability, especially noticed in Western posters.

BROWN MILLER

"Such a dancer!"

Cadets, '22-'23.

Brown is one of the true old style Westerners. He may almost always be seen at the best dances with the prettiest girl around school.

REGINALD MITCHELL

*"When wild syncopation spread over the nation,
And kettledrums rumbled, and saxophones shrieked."*

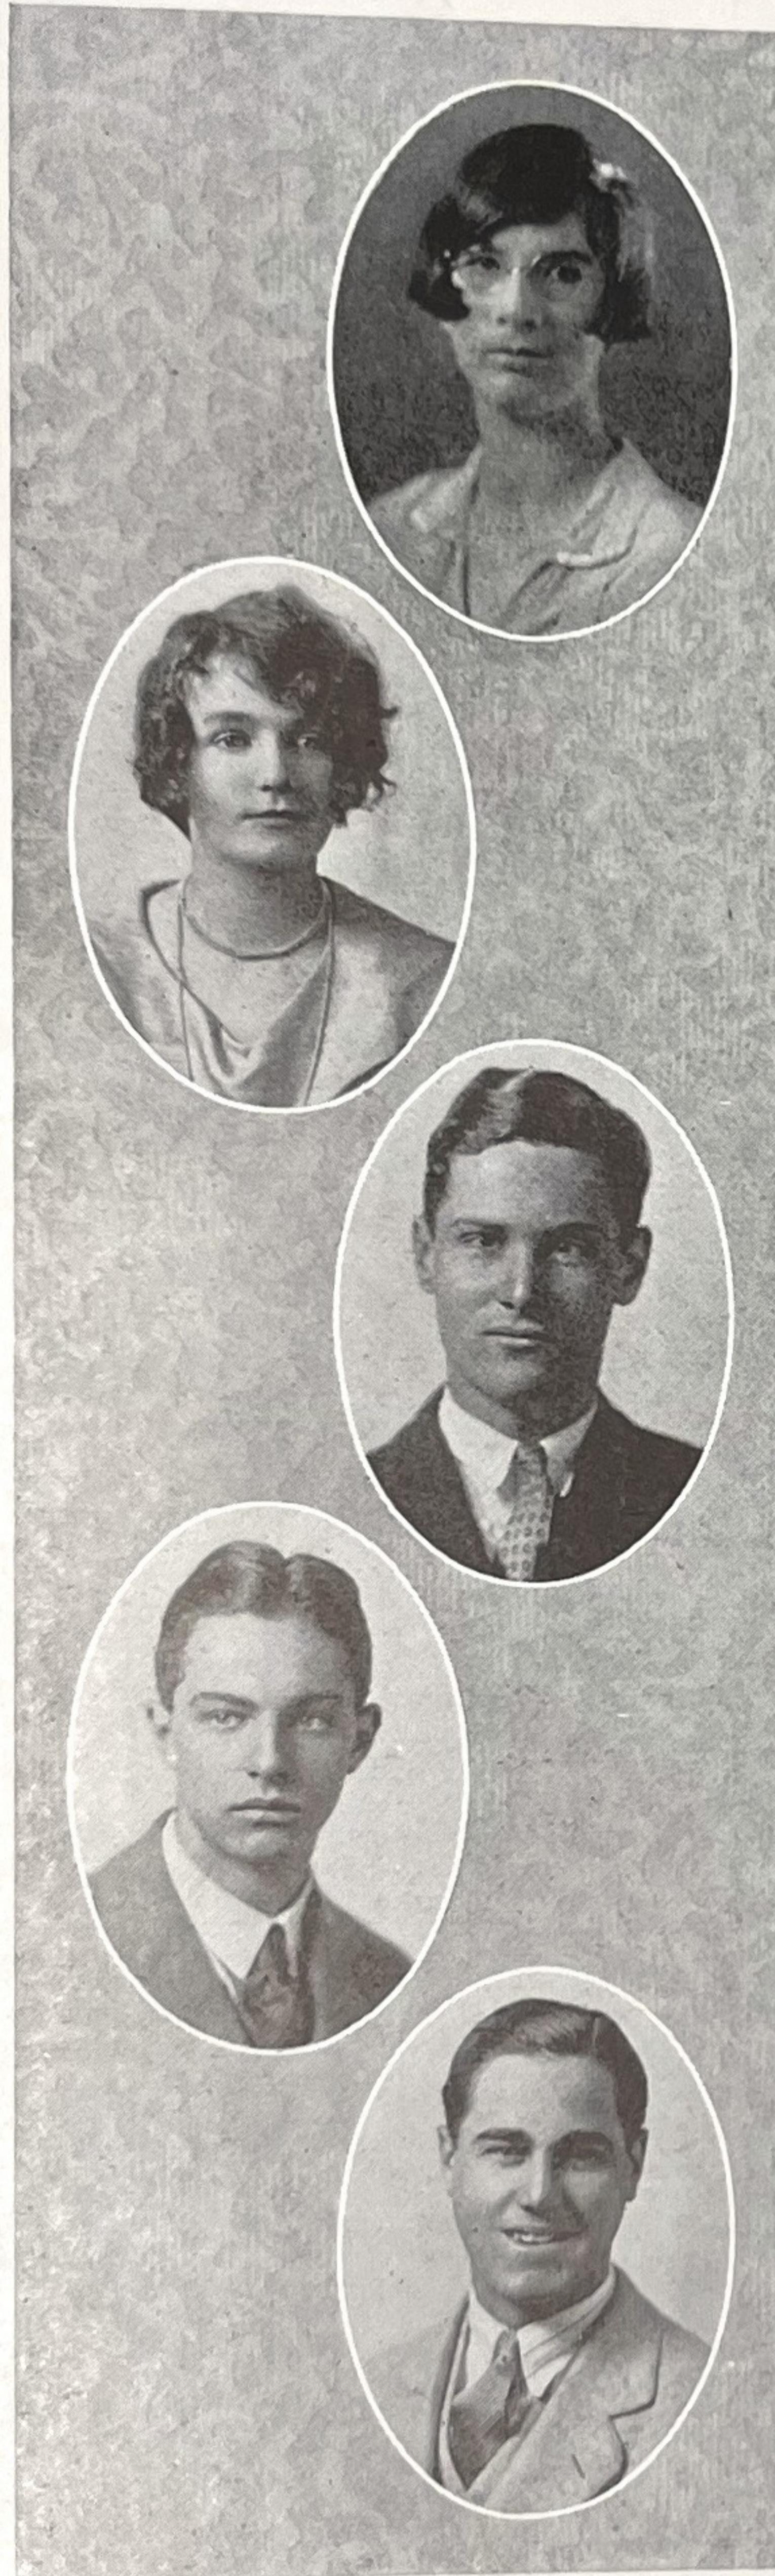

Cadets, '26; Band, '26; Orchestra, '26; Rifle Team, '26; H Company Rifle Team, '26; "Hop Along," '26; Civic Association, '26.

Dayton, Ohio, claims the first three years of Reggie's high school career, but Western claims the final honors. With his little saxophone as advertiser it didn't take him long to become known to everybody.

JAMES J. MITCHELL

"Play up, play up, and play the game."

LAWRENCE MORSCHER

"On their own merits modest men are dumb."

Cadets, '24-'25-'26; Track, '24; Math Club, '25-'26 (Treasurer); Debating Society, '25-'26; Rifle, '25-'26; French Club, '26.

Lawrence is an all-round wizard. Any subject he tackles is as easy to him as to the teacher. Notwithstanding his wisdom he is a very likeable boy and the very best of success is due him when he leaves Western.

VIOLET MEYERS

"Music hath charms for her."

Glee Club, '24-'25-'26 (President); Pianist Club, '24-'25-'26 (Secretary); Honor Roll, '24-'26; Latin Club, '25; Western Carnival, '24; "Patricia," '25; Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Student Committee, '25-'26; Literary Club, '25-'26; "Hop Along," '25-'26; Girl Reserves, '26.

BERNICE NORRIS

"Yet graceful ease and sweetness void of pride, might hide her faults, if belles had faults to hide."

And doesn't our slim friend remind one of an oriental maiden—incense 'n' everything! Bunny's individuality is most attractive and accentuated by that long bob.

LELAND NORTON

"Though short in stature, yet my name extends, To Heav'n itself and Earth's remotest ends."

Cadets, '22-'23-'24-'26; Fencing Club, '26.

Leland left us for awhile, but soon found out he could not stay away from the feminine part of Western. He is now becoming quite a Math shark. Aren't we right, Leland?

CHARLOTTE B. O'SHAUGHNESSY

"Never worry, never fret, I shall surely get there yet."

Civic Association, '26.

"Charlie" is one of the few people in the world who never worry about anything and get away with it. This, and her good humor, account for her popularity and her presence at so many bridges, dances, etc. She just can't keep out of the society column of The Breeze.

MONROE PALMER

"Modesty, that becomes all men, is especially becoming in one who has great merit."

Lightweight Football, '23; Football, '24-'25 ("W"); Baseball, '25 ("W")-'26; "W" Club, '25-'26.

Monty, our heroic football and baseball player, is very backward with the fairer sex, but we are told he has a large place in his heart for them.

VIRGINIA PALMER

"She moves a goddess and looks a queen."

Virginia is one of those quiet, calm, graceful people, who are always dressed to suit the occasion. Her chief hobby seems to be walking. One never goes down Connecticut Avenue without seeing her. May we see her oftener in the future!

MABEL PARFET

"Her voice was ever soft, Gentle, and low—an excellent thing in woman."

Glee Club, '23-'24-'25-'26; Dramatic Association, '24-'25-'26; Spanish Club, '24-'25; The Breeze Staff, '26; Minstrel Show," '25; Track, '24; Basketball, '25; "Patricia," '25; "Trial by Jury," '24.

Mabel is a shining light in two ways, her hair and her speaking voice; her hair for its brightness, her voice for its softness.

DONALD PATTERSON

"None but himself can be his parallel."

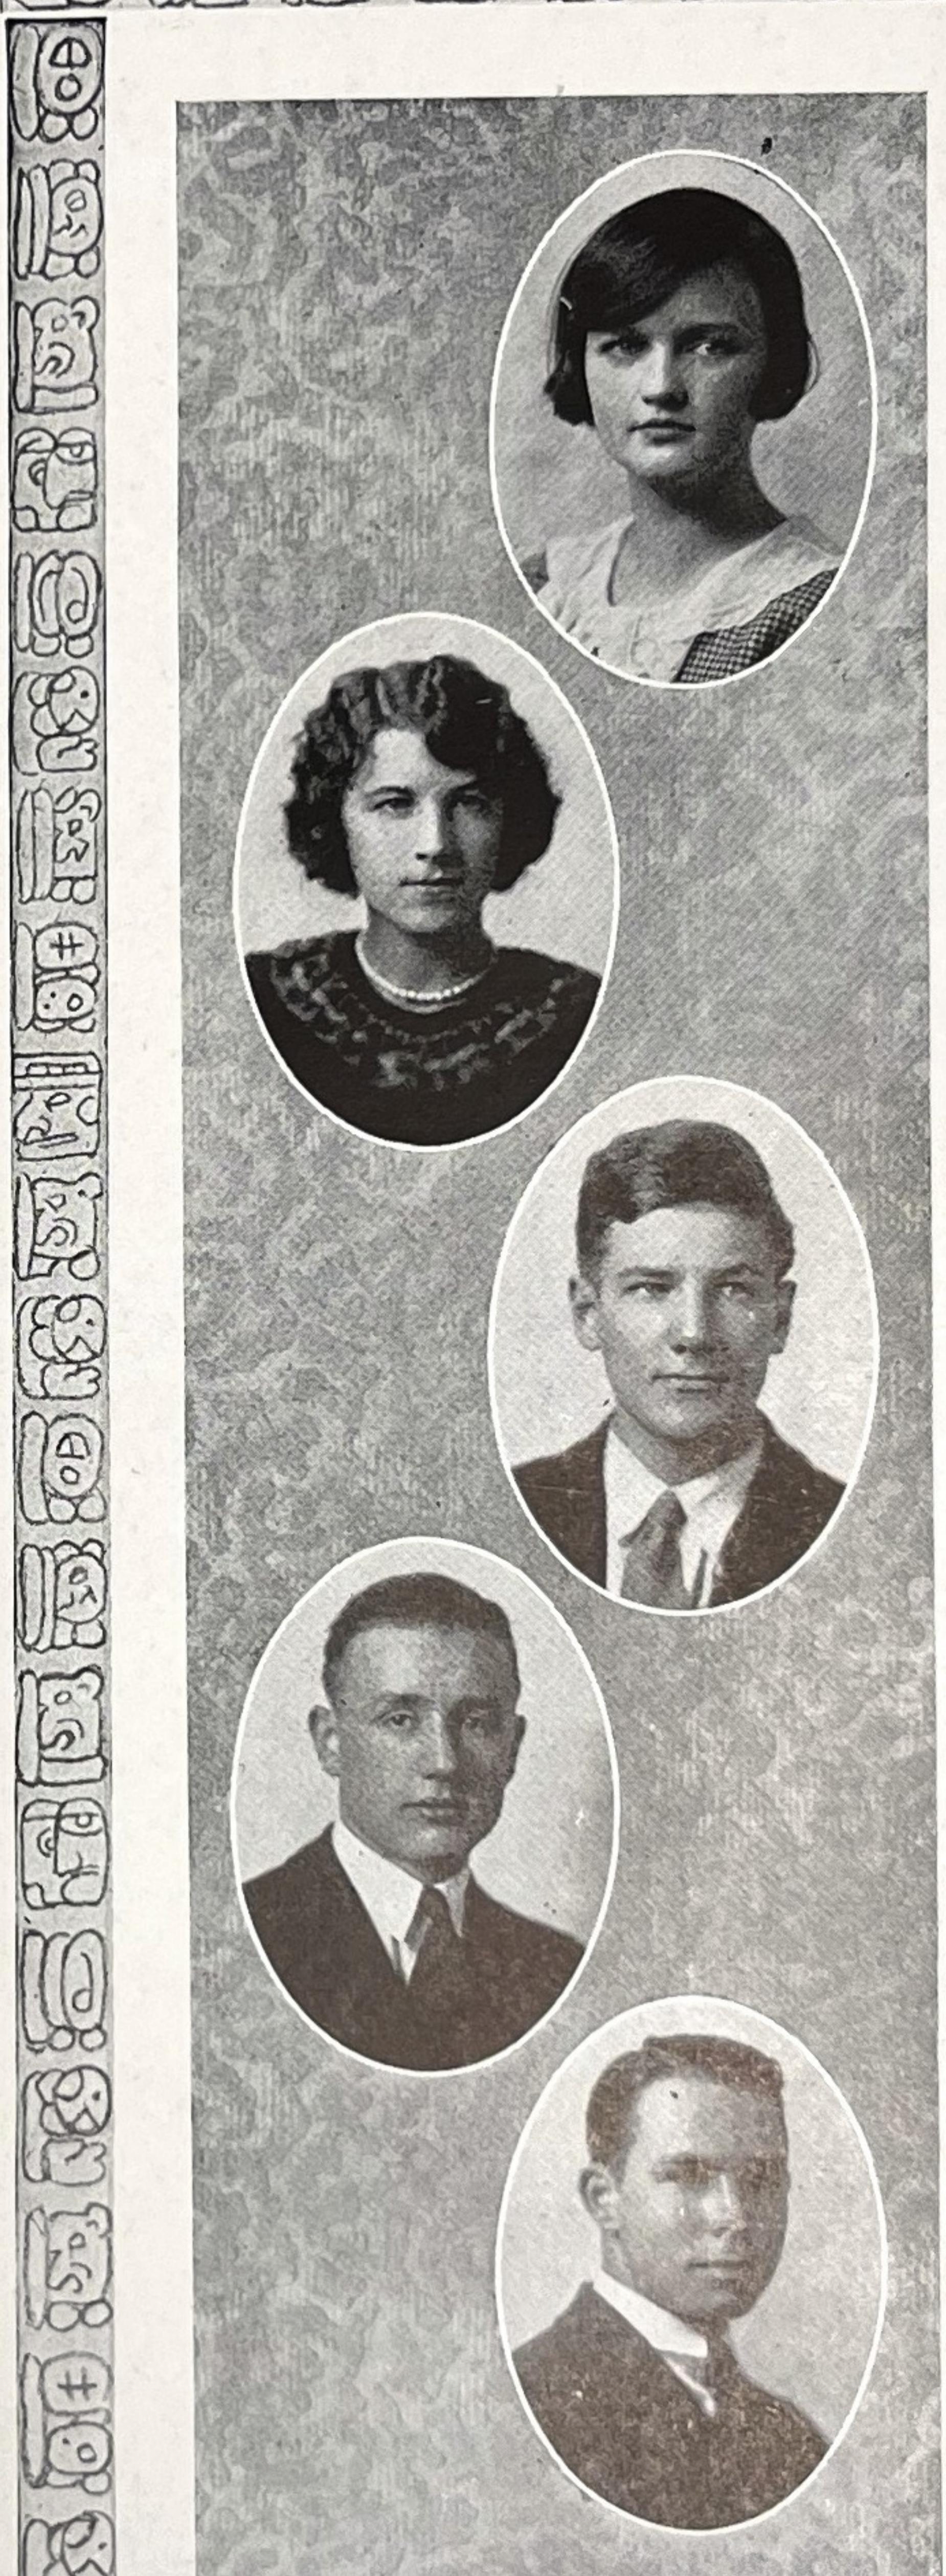

Cadets, '23-'24-'25.

Here's to a real Western backer and one of the very best cadets she can boast of! You'll always find him in the office or any place where there's something going on. Do we remember when Donald stood alone after all the rest had fallen? We do!

THOMAS PAYNE

"Always full of fun and folly."

Ever since he came to Western, Tom has achieved a reputation for his cheerful ways and playful pranks. He's a sure cure for the blues and is well known to the ladies, especially those hailing from Virginia. Among the classes on his program card is tardy study hall, which he attends regularly.

MURIEL PHELAN

"A sparkle in the eyes comes from a fountain of youthful attitude."

Glee Club, '25-'26; "Patricia," '25; Studio Club, '25-'26; Rifle Club, '25.

Muriel was in Chicago for her freshman and sophomore years, but she saved the last two (which are the best) for us. She is noted for her soft blue eyes, her love of music and art, and her happy disposition.

FRANCES PIERCE

"A bonnie, bonnie lassie!"

Glee Club, '25-'26; Dramatic Association, '25-'26; French Club, '25-'26.

A drawl, a sweet smile, and a Scotch plaid—that's Frances. She must be persevering, too, to journey to this citadel of learning from the distant regions across the Potomac. May the good things of life come her way!

RALPH PIERCE

"Of good natural parts and of a liberal education."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25; "Hop Along," '23; Glee Club, '25-'26 (Secretary-Treasurer); Civic Association, '26.

Ralph lives out in the wilds of Virginia, where men are men. He plays melodiously on his banjo until his fingers are sore, and on a quiet night you can hear his music as far as F Street.

ALBERT PIKE

"Lemme two bits, please."

Cadets, '24-'25; Hi-Y, '25-'26.

Albert has been with us only three years, but in those three years he has been a student of whom we are all very proud. He has one shortcoming, however—he is always broke! If you're ever in need of a friend, just find "Al."

CHARLES PIMPER

"Maryland My Maryland!"

Cadets, '23-'24-'25-'26 (1st Lieut. Co. K); Manager of Track, '26; Lightweight Football, '24-'25; Dramatic Association, '26; Stage Committee, '26.

Wanted—a man to fill Charles' shoes! This is a big order, as Charlie has made himself so essential to Western both by his hard work behind the "foot-lights" and beh'nd the counter in the office.

CAROLINE PLUGGE

"Fore!"

Baseball, '23; Hockey, '23-'25-'26; Fencing, '24; Literary Club, '26; Rifle, '24; Basketball, '23-'24.

Hats off to Caroline! She's the one who gets college credits before she's through high school. She's the one who would rather play golf than eat. Some day she'll capture the women's golf championship title, and we won't be a bit surprised.

HELEN PLUMMER

*"Unthinking, carefree, gay and young,
I laugh'd and danc'd and talk'd and sung."*

Civic Association, '26.

Helen is one of those happy-go-lucky people who always seem to enjoy themselves. It's useless for her to try to keep out of the society column of The Breeze. We don't have to wish her luck and a merry life for she will have them anyway.

DOROTHY PRINGLE

*"To those who know her not, all words are faint;
To those who know her, no words can paint."*

French Club, '26; Literary Club, '26.

Need we introduce you to this new comer at Western with the much envied peaches and cream complexion? We think not.

GERTRUDE PRUNTY

"Still achieving, still pursuing."

Honor Roll, '24; Glee Club, '26.

Gertrude and the different branches of knowledge have no trouble at all in getting acquainted. If in doubt about Latin, French, or anything, ask her. She is not a slave to study, either, for she often finds time to visit West Point.

EDWARD PURNELL

"Ye air sae grave, nae doubt ye're wise."

Track Team, '25; Math Club, '26; Football, '26; Track, '26.

Edward is from Maryland and has given a good impression of his State. If you are uncertain about anything, see this quiet but wise youth, and you will not leave unrewarded.

FRED RANDALL

"If you would hit the mark, you must aim a little above it."

Lightweight Basketball, '22-'23; Basketball, '24-'25 ("W"); "W" Club, '24-'25-'26.

Freddy is not only good as a basketer, but also at things outside of school, especially at night. Nuf ced!

LOUISE RHEES

"The chief of a thousand for grace."

Basketball, '23-'24; Baseball, '23-'24 (H. M.); Tennis, '26.

Yes, she is that tall blond goddess, with the twinkling eyes and merry laugh. We all like her, and we are glad she will be as near as George Washington next year.

GERTRUDE RICHARDSON

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace."

Girl Reserves, '26; Spanish Club, '25-'26; Glee Club, '26; Literary Club, '26; Honor Roll, '26.

Quiet, a blonde, a member of half the school clubs, Gertrude has become quite popular in her three years' stay at Western.

ESTELLITA ROBINETTE

"Here's a girl who's as quiet and sweet as any you ever will meet."

Spanish Club, '24-'25-'26; Fencing Club, '24-'25; Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Literary Club, '25-'26 (President); Student Committee, '26; The Breeze Staff, '25-'26; Tennis, '24; Honor Roll, '23-'24-'25-'26.

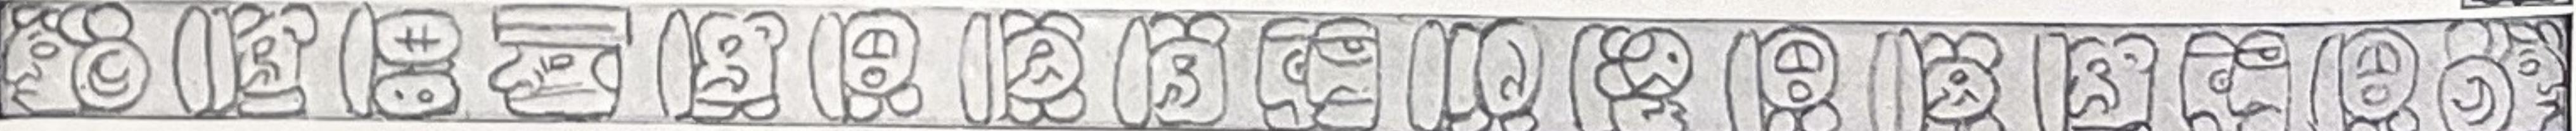

Here's the other member of "The Inseparables." Even their teachers cannot tell them apart.

BETTY RODIER

"As merry as the day is long."

Hockey, '23; Baseball, '23; Girl Reserves, '23-'26; Pianist Club, '23-'26; Glee Club, '25-'26; Girls' Rifle Club, '24; Literary Club, '26; Civic Association, '26.

If you want to be cured of the blues, or the dumps, or any such ailment, just hunt up Betty. She is an optimist in every sense of the word, and as jolly as they make 'em.

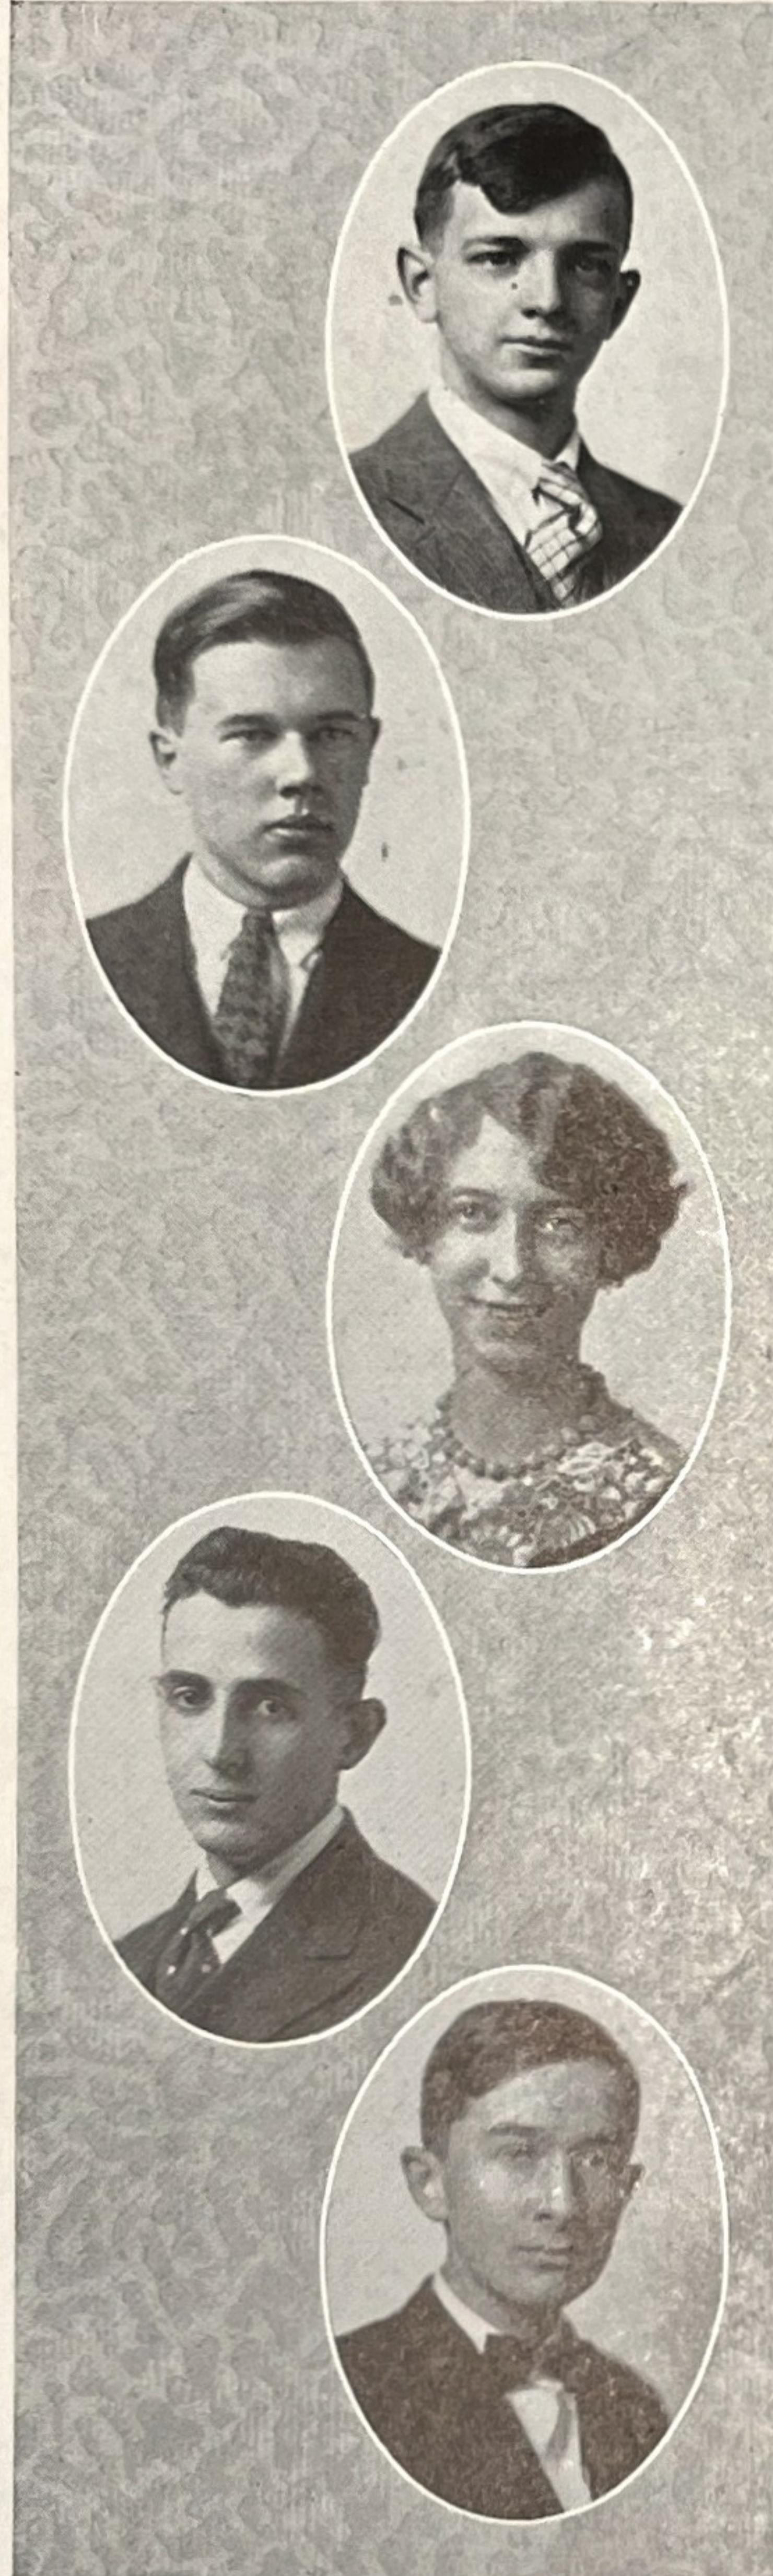

JOHN O. ROGERS

"Seest thou a man diligent in his business."

Cadets, '24-'25-'26; The Breeze Staff, '26; Debating Society, '26; Radio Club, '24; Honor Roll, '25.

John is one of our quick workers, who can do four years' work in three and a half years. He doesn't seem to be a bookworm either, for he has found time for a variety of outside interests.

WADE SAFFORD

"Good nature and good sense must even join."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25 (2d Lieutenant), '26 (Captain); Swimming Team, '24; French Club, '24-'25; German Club, '25-'26 (President); Student Committee, '25-'26; Officers' Club, '26 (Secretary-Treasurer); Fencing Club, '26; Breeze Staff, '26; War Game Team, '25-'26 (Captain).

JANIE SCANTLIN

*"The joy of youth and health her eyes display'd,
And ease of heart her every look convey'd."*

Math Club, '25-'26; Honor Roll, '25; French Club (Secretary), '26; Debating Society (Secretary) '26; Literary Club, '26; Civic Association, '26; Girl Reserves, '26 (President of Senior Club); Student Committee, '26; The Breeze Staff, '26.

ANDREA P. SCKOPPEGLIA

"What's in a name?"

Cadets, '22-'23; Mandolin Club, '22-'23-'25-'26; French Club, '25-'26; Honor Roll, '25-'26; Minstrel Show, '25; Philatelic Club, '26; Student Committee, '26; Cheer Leader, '26; Civic Association, '26; "Hop Along," '26.

The way "Sckoppy" has borne our outrageous misspelling and mispronunciation of his name is sure proof of his good nature.

JOHN SCOFIELD

*"My only books
Were woman's looks—
And folly's all they've taught me."*

Cadets, '23-'24-'25-'26; Radio Club, '23-'24; Officers Club, '26.

As a cadet, John is a winner, having been in a winning company every year so far. Western will miss him. And just think, now the girls will have to ride home on the street cars!

VIRGINIA SCHAEFER

"If she had any fault, she has left us in doubt."

Glee Club, '26.

Virginia is always smiling and full of fun, but she, too, has her serious moments. For example—she thinks "W" is the nicest letter in the alphabet, for two reasons. Need we say more?

ELEANOR SHANLEY

"She has two eyes, so soft and brown. Take care! She gives a side glance and looks down. Beware!"

Spanish Club, '26; Literary Club, '26.

Let's go to Philadelphia! So say we all if this be a product of that Quaker City.

EDNA SHANNON

"She lends a sweetness to the ungenial day."

There was never a girl with a more pleasing disposition than Edna. She is petite and quiet, and with her winning and ready smile and her gracious manners we are sure she will make her way in the world.

HELEN SCHECKELLS

"Speak the speech, I pray you, as I pronounced it to you."

Baseball, '23; Hockey, '24-'25 ("H")-'26; Basketball, '23 (H. M.)-'24 (Capt.) ("W")-'25 ("W")-'26; "W" Club, '24-'25-'26 (Vice-President); Glee Club, '25; Dramatic Association, '25-'26 (President); "Too Much Bobbie," '25; "Minstrel Show," '25; "Dulcy," '26; "The Trysting Place," '26; "Hop Along," '26; German Club, '25-'26; Student Committee, '26; Honor Roll, '23-'24-'26; The Breeze Staff, '26.

THEDA SHERMAN

"Stately and tall, she moves in the hall."

Rifle, '24; Arts Club, '25; French Club, '26; Math Club, '26; Girl Reserves, '26.

There is something interesting about a tall, quiet girl; and Theda is no exception to the rule. Her conversation is by no means limited to the weather, for she doesn't lack wit, and is quite well read and well informed.

CASSIN SHOEMAKER

*"A fig for care, a fig for woe,
If I can't pay, why I can owe!"*

Cadets, '23-'24; Lightweight Football, '25; Banjo-Mandolin Club, '25-'26; Track, '25; Football, '26; Tennis, '26; Glee Club, '26.

Cassin is a midshipman-to-be, so we hear, and, to judge from his actions so far, he'll be a dashing one. Besides this, he is an expert on the banjo and a master of repartee.

WILLIAMSON SMOOT

"Men of few words are the best men."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25 (1st Lieut. Co. H)-'26; Tennis, '23-'24-'25-'26; Student Committee, '25; Officers Club, '25-'26; Spanish Club, '24-'25.

Western is losing in Bill one of her staunchest backers. He has been right behind all her activities for his four years. His two favorite fields of endeavor were cadets and tennis.

LELAND SPRINKLE

"Let every man mind his own business."

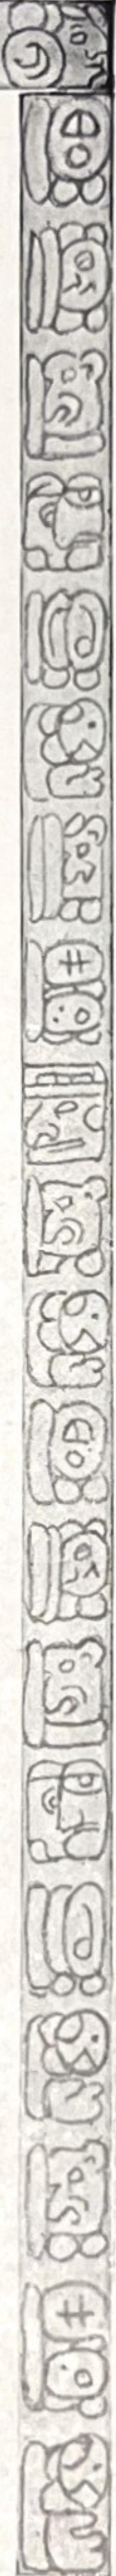

Leland ought to be a good business man with all the experience he has had with the change machine in the lunch room. Everyone knows him by the official looking brief case he carries. He's a good student, and we hear that his pet hobby is playing the organ.

JOSEPHINE STEVENS

"Her wit will shine."

Fencing, '25-'26.

"Jo" is always right there with her ready wit and her jolly good nature. You can't find any one more clever and original than she. We like her a lot, but we can't help envying the way her hair curls.

LEVERETT STOWELL

"Say it with Stowell."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25-'26 (Lieutenant Company L); War Games, '23-'24-'25-'26; Officers Club, '26; Debating Society, '26 (Inter-high Team); Spanish Club, '26; Philatelic Club, '26.

As a spokesman Leverett can't be beat. It is very probable that he will some day be one of our great congressmen.

EDITH P. STRAWSER

"She is a winsome wee thing."

Glee Club, '25; Basketball, '24-'25-'26.

Edith has a personality that will always furnish her many friends, and her pretty brown eyes are the envy of us all.

CLAUDIA SUTTON

"A woman's hair is her crowning glory."

Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Glee Club, '26; Literary Club, '26.

When we first saw Claudia, we all succumbed either to envy or fascination because of her beautiful, brown curls. She's quite a "public speaker," too, and, no doubt, a future contestant for Sarah Bernhardt's laurels.

JAMES SWINDELLS

"Mathematics make men subtle."

Radio Club, '23-'24; Math Club, '24-'25; Glee Club, '25-'26; Lightweight Basketball, '25-'26; Basketball, '26.

Here's a boy with enough patience and sense of humor to take Math all four years. His broadmindedness and good nature have stood that test well, and have come through improved, if anything.

GERTRUDE TAMPLET

"To know her is to love her."

The Breeze Staff, '25-'26; Honor Roll, '25; "Hop Along," '26.

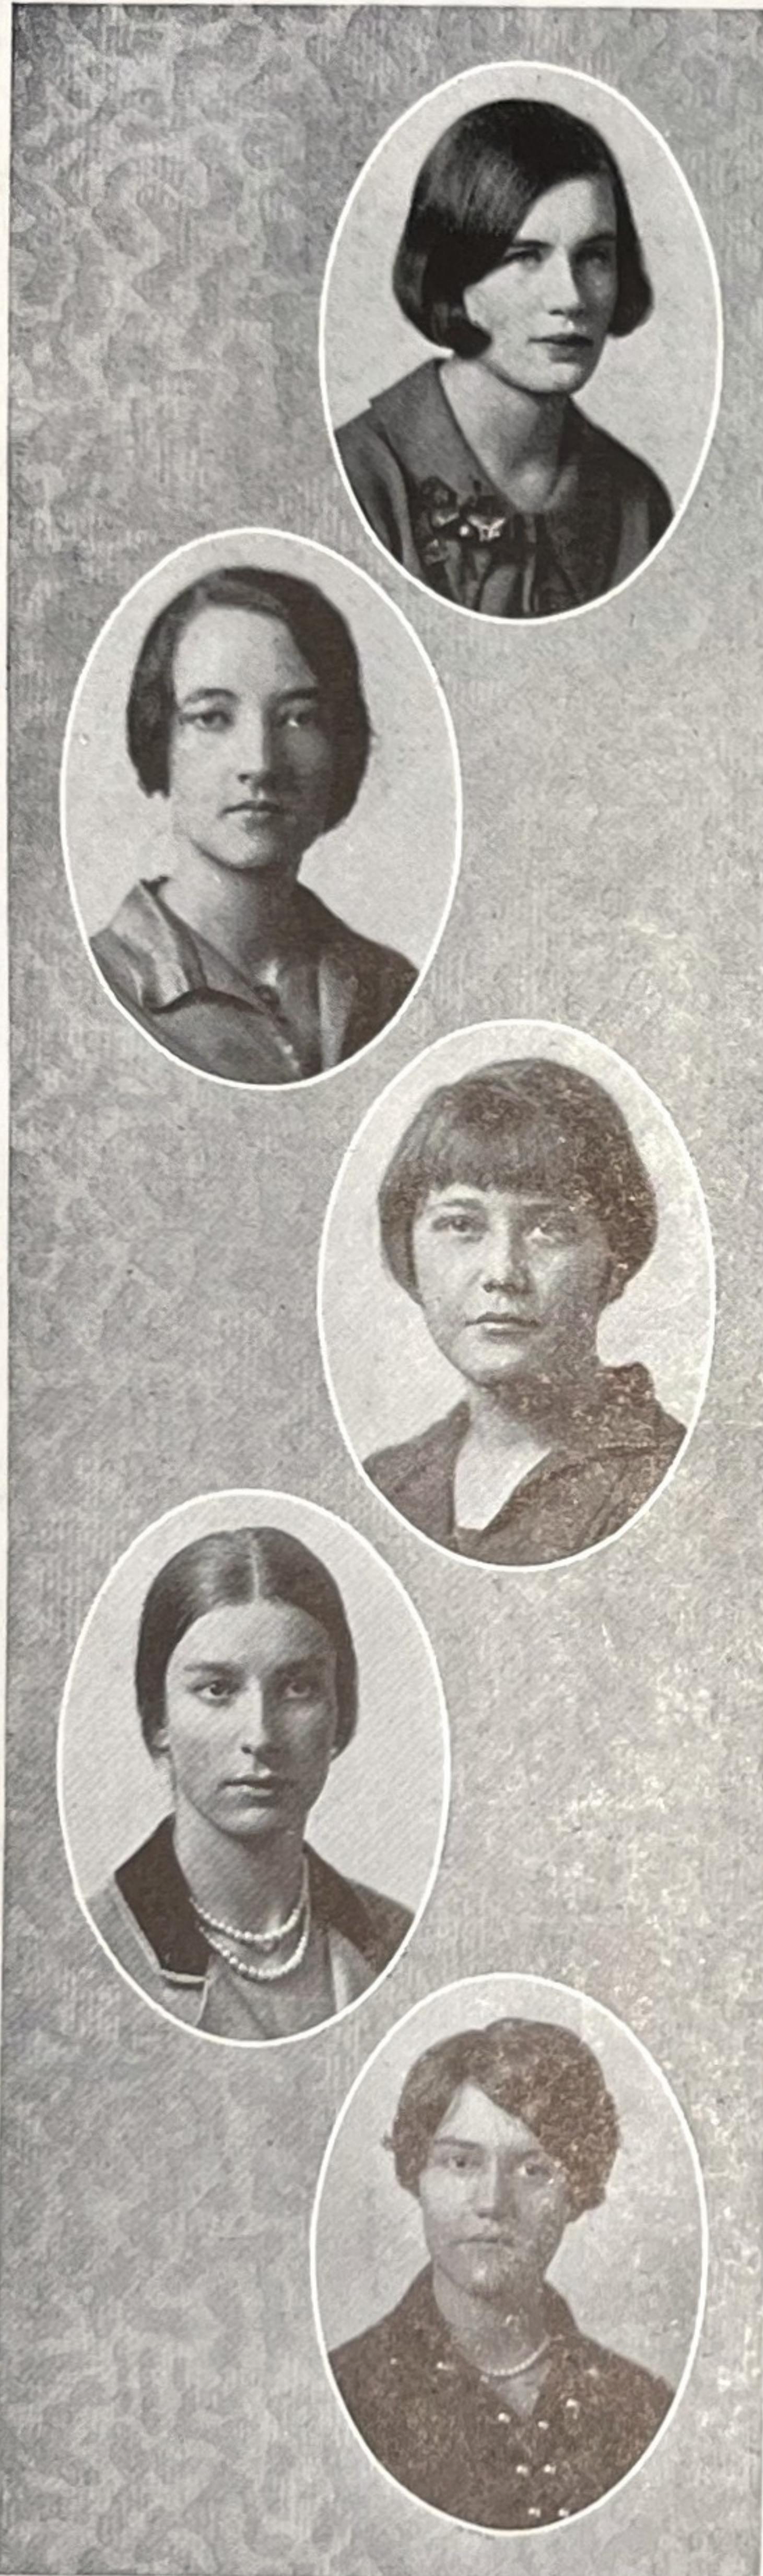

Here she comes! Dinner parties, bridges, pink teas, dances, all at your service, Lady Society! Little—but with big brown eyes and a southern drawl to complete her fascination. Her talents are well placed as one of the society editors of The Breeze.

ANITA TILLEY

*"Discussing with important face
On ribbons, fans, and gloves, and lace."*

German Club, '24-'25-'26; Glee Club, '26; Art Club, '26.

"Now you should wear—to express your personality." Anita is very fond of all art work and is particularly interested in dress designing, which she intends to make her life work. Some day we'll be buying clothes copied from creations of Mademoiselle Tilley, n'est-ce pas?

ALICIA TRAPIER

"A skillful mistress of her art."

French Club, '24-'26; Hockey, '24.

We have a future artist in our midst. Alicia says she is going to art school after leaving Western's renowned portals. We are expecting great things of you, Alicia, and don't forget your old friends when you are in the same class as Phidias and "Mike" Angelo.

LOUISE TUCKER

"To know her is a liberal education."

Louise comes up to Western from the wilds of Virginia and is most sociable and friendly. She is a very quiet appearing girl, but you always know when she is around by her pleasant, pleasing ways. If you are ever in need of a good sport, always ready for fun, just call on Louise.

JENNY TURNBULL

"A daughter of the gods, Divinely tall, and most divinely fair."

The Westerner Staff, '26; Hockey, '25 ("W")-'26 (Captain); Basketball, '24-'25 ("W") (Varsity)-'26 ("W") (Varsity); Fencing, '24; Rifle, '24; Tennis, '24-'25-'26 (Manager); French Club, '26; "W" Club, '25-'26 (Sergeant-at-Arms); Baseball, '26; Track, '26 (Manager).

AMY VAN HORN

"A merry heart thou hast, and kind."

Hockey, '25-'26; Basketball, '25-'26; "W" Club, '25-'26; The Breeze Staff, '26; Debating Society, '26; Tennis, '25.

Owner and manager of the Van Horn bus line; dashing forward in basketball; hard hitting back in hockey; clever phrasing alumni editor of The Breeze; the girl with the black boyish bob—such is Amy.

ARTHUR A. VARELA

"Governed by a strain of music (?)"

Radio Club, '23-'24; Cadets, '23; Banjo-Mandolin Club, '25-'26; Lightweight Football, '24; German Club, '26; Glee Club, '26.

Who doesn't know Arthur? He's the boy who strums the banjo so jazzily that he's an asset to any orchestra. That's his chief hobby. Want to know anything about amateur radio? Ask him.

MARY WALKER

*"Friends she has whom envy must command,
But not one foe whom she would have a friend."*

Art Club, '24; Honor Roll, '25-'26; Literary Club, '26; Debating Society, '26; The Westerner Staff, '26.

Mary is another of Western's shining students—always in a good humor and a fine pal, nothing is too much trouble for her to do.

BETTY WALLER

"Grace was in all her steps, Heaven in her eye."

Basketball, '24-'26 (Manager); Civic Association, '25-'26; Baseball, '24; Hockey, '25.

Betty is the tall, graceful blond you've often seen. A favorite at West Point and Annapolis as well as at Western, a dandy basketball manager, and, above all, attractive—that's Betty.

VIRGINIA WALTHALL

"Her lively looks, a sprightly mind disclose, Quick as her eyes, and as unfixed as those."

Hockey, '23-'26; Tennis, '23-'24-'25-'26; Fencing, '24; Dramatic Association, '23-'24-'25-'26; Literary Club, '26; The Breeze Staff, '25.

Absent again! Yes, but where is our popular little sub-deb? Is it Annapolis or West Point this time? For personality and cleverness, Ginsie can't be equaled.

VIRGINIA WARREN

*"A dancing shape, an image gay,
To haunt, to startle and waylay."*

Track, '23; Baseball, '23.

A good comrade and lots of fun. That's our Virginia. Always cheerful, always popular, she will long be remembered by her many friends at Western.

LUCILLE WEBER

"What is worth doing at all is worth doing well."

Basketball, '23; Rifle Club, '23; Fencing, '25 ("W") '26 (Captain and Manager); Student Committee, '26; Mandolin Club, '25-'26; "W" Club, '25-'26.

At least this is what Lucille believes. First she becomes an Eagle Scout and then distinguishes herself in fencing. Congratulations, Lucille!

GORDON WEBNER

"A man with a ready wit."

Dramatic Association, '26; Glee Club, '22-'26; Orchestra, '22; Band, '26; Spanish Club, '26; "Dulcy," '26.

Everyone knows that elderly distinguished looking man of "Dulcy." Gordon is not only a skilled actor, but he is an accomplished orator and musician.

FRANK WEITZEL

"There was a man in our town, and he was wondrous wise."

Cadets, '22-'23-'25-'26 (Captain Company K); War Games, '23-'25-'26; Officers Club, '25-'26; German Club, '25-'26 (President); Math Club, '25 (Secretary); Dramatic Association, '26 (Treasurer); The Breeze Staff, '26 (Associate Editor); Honor Roll, '22-'23-'25-'26.

Here is one of those unpleasant fellows who get 100% on a Latin test that everybody else flunks.

KATHERINE WELLS

"Woman's at best a contradiction still."

German Club, '24-'25-'26; Pianist Club, '26.

Katherine is among our foremost linguists and musicians. In fact, she is going to teach music when she leaves Western. Marian Talley came from Kansas, but Katherine comes from Virginia.

JOHN WHEELER

"He that hath knowledge spareth his words."

Spanish Club, '25-'26 (Treasurer); Debating Society, '25-'26.

A wise old owl sat in an oak, the more he saw, the less he spoke; the less he spoke, the more he heard; John follows the teachings of this old bird.

ELIZABETH WILSON

*"Where are you going, my pretty maid?"
"Off to the 'Breeze' office, sir, she said."*

"W" Club, '24-'25 (Secretary), '26; Hockey, '24 ("W"), '25 ("W," Captain), '26; Hockey, Varsity, '24-'25; Basketball, '24-'25 ("W") (Numerals), '26; Basketball, Varsity, '25; Tennis, '25-'26; Track, '24; Dramatic Association, '25-'26; French Club, '25; Breeze Staff, '26 (Editor); Student Committee, '26; Vice-President Senior Class, '26; Honor Roll, '23-'24-'25-'26.

ELLEN WOOLNOUGH

*"I have a little shadow that goes in and out with me."
Glee Club, '26.*

Ellen is a recent addition to Western; in fact, this is her first and last year here, but we have already discovered what we have missed. What would she do without Virginia?

MARY WORTHINGTON

"Busy, busy all the time."

Baseball, '23; Hockey, '23; Glee Club, '23-'24-'25; French Club, '23-'24-'25; Dramatic Association, '24; "W" Club, '25-'26; Rifle Club, '26 (Captain).

Mary is famed for finding the bull's eye as captain of the rifle team. We are sure she will repeat her success and hit the bull's eye in her life work.

WILLIAM WRENN

"Thought is deeper than all speech."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25.

Bill is one of those quiet fellows both at school and on the golf course. He is one of the kind who say little and do the right thing.

ROBERT W. YELLOTT

"Ranks and squadrons and the right forms of war."

Cadets, '23-'24-'25 (Second Lieutenant)-'26 (Captain); War Games, '25-'26; Officers Club, '25-'26; Track, '24; Student Committee, '26; Civic Association, '26; Golf, '26; Honor Roll, '23.

Bob is a golfer and soldier, par excellence, and has shown his talents as a "general" of our little "army."

ELIZABETH ZALESKY

"For thou shalt find she will outstrip all praise."

Honor Roll, '23-'24-'26; Basketball, '24-'25-'26; Hockey, '24-'25-'26; "W" Club, '24-'25-'26; Dramatic Association, '25-'26; Math Club, '25 (Secretary)-'26 (President); The Breeze Staff, '26; Student Committee, '26; Literary Club, '26.

Hail to our class poet with her adored dimples and fascinating smile. Besides being second cousin to a Math problem, she is one of our star athletes.

MARIAN ZIEGLER

*"And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew,
That one small head could carry all she knew."*

Math Club, '25; Hockey, '25 (H. M.); Basketball, '25-'26 ("W"); Tennis, '25-'26; "W" Club, '25-'26.

Marian comes very near being the featherweight of the senior class. In her spare time she rides horses bareback, in the gym, to amuse the Rookies.

GEORGE HAGEAGE

*"George Hageage, Western's athlete and Captain of his team.
Will be missed by all his comrades, but such is life it seems."*

Freshman Football, '22 (Captain); Football, '23 ("W")-'24 ("W")-'25 (Captain) ("W"); Track, '22 (Manager); Boys' "W" Club, '23-'24-'25-'26; Baseball, '24 ("W")-'25 ("W")-'26; Basketball, '24; Glee Club, '24-'25-'26; Boys' Vocal Club, '23-'24-'25; Student Council, '25-'26; "Patricia," '24; "Trial by Jury," '23; "Spring Play," '25.

Officers Club

This year Western had the largest Officers' Club it has ever had, with the officers of the Regimental and Battalion Staffs and those of four companies bringing the total to eighteen. This club, which was first formed in 1922, is one of the most successful organizations at Western. In the line of drill and on the social side it has proved itself very worthy. Since the club has been in existence, Western has been supreme on the drill field, with two winning, two second place and two third place companies and three winning battalions. It has staged several very successful dances every year, that have come to be almost a part of the school program. Besides the main purpose of the club, that of promoting co-operation and spirit between the men and officers of the Third Battalion, it is also a judicial body, conducting court martials when necessary. It arranges competitions between platoons, and in the manual of arms. Among other things, it arranged the Cadet Day program.

This year, for the first time, the club had a room of its own, number 263, for its headquarters. The elections, which were held as soon as the officers were appointed, resulted in the choice of Major Clark as president, Captain Kimball as vice-president, Lieutenant Mitchell as secretary-treasurer, and Colonel Free as sergeant-at-arms. In the mid-year elections, these men were re-elected, with the exception of the secretary-treasurer, whose position was filled by Captain Safford. As Major Donovan was transferred to Central, the new instructor, Major Raymond G. Payne, U. S. A., became the club's adviser, and although the loss of Major Donovan was keenly felt, Major Payne has more than fulfilled the expectations of Western.

Company H

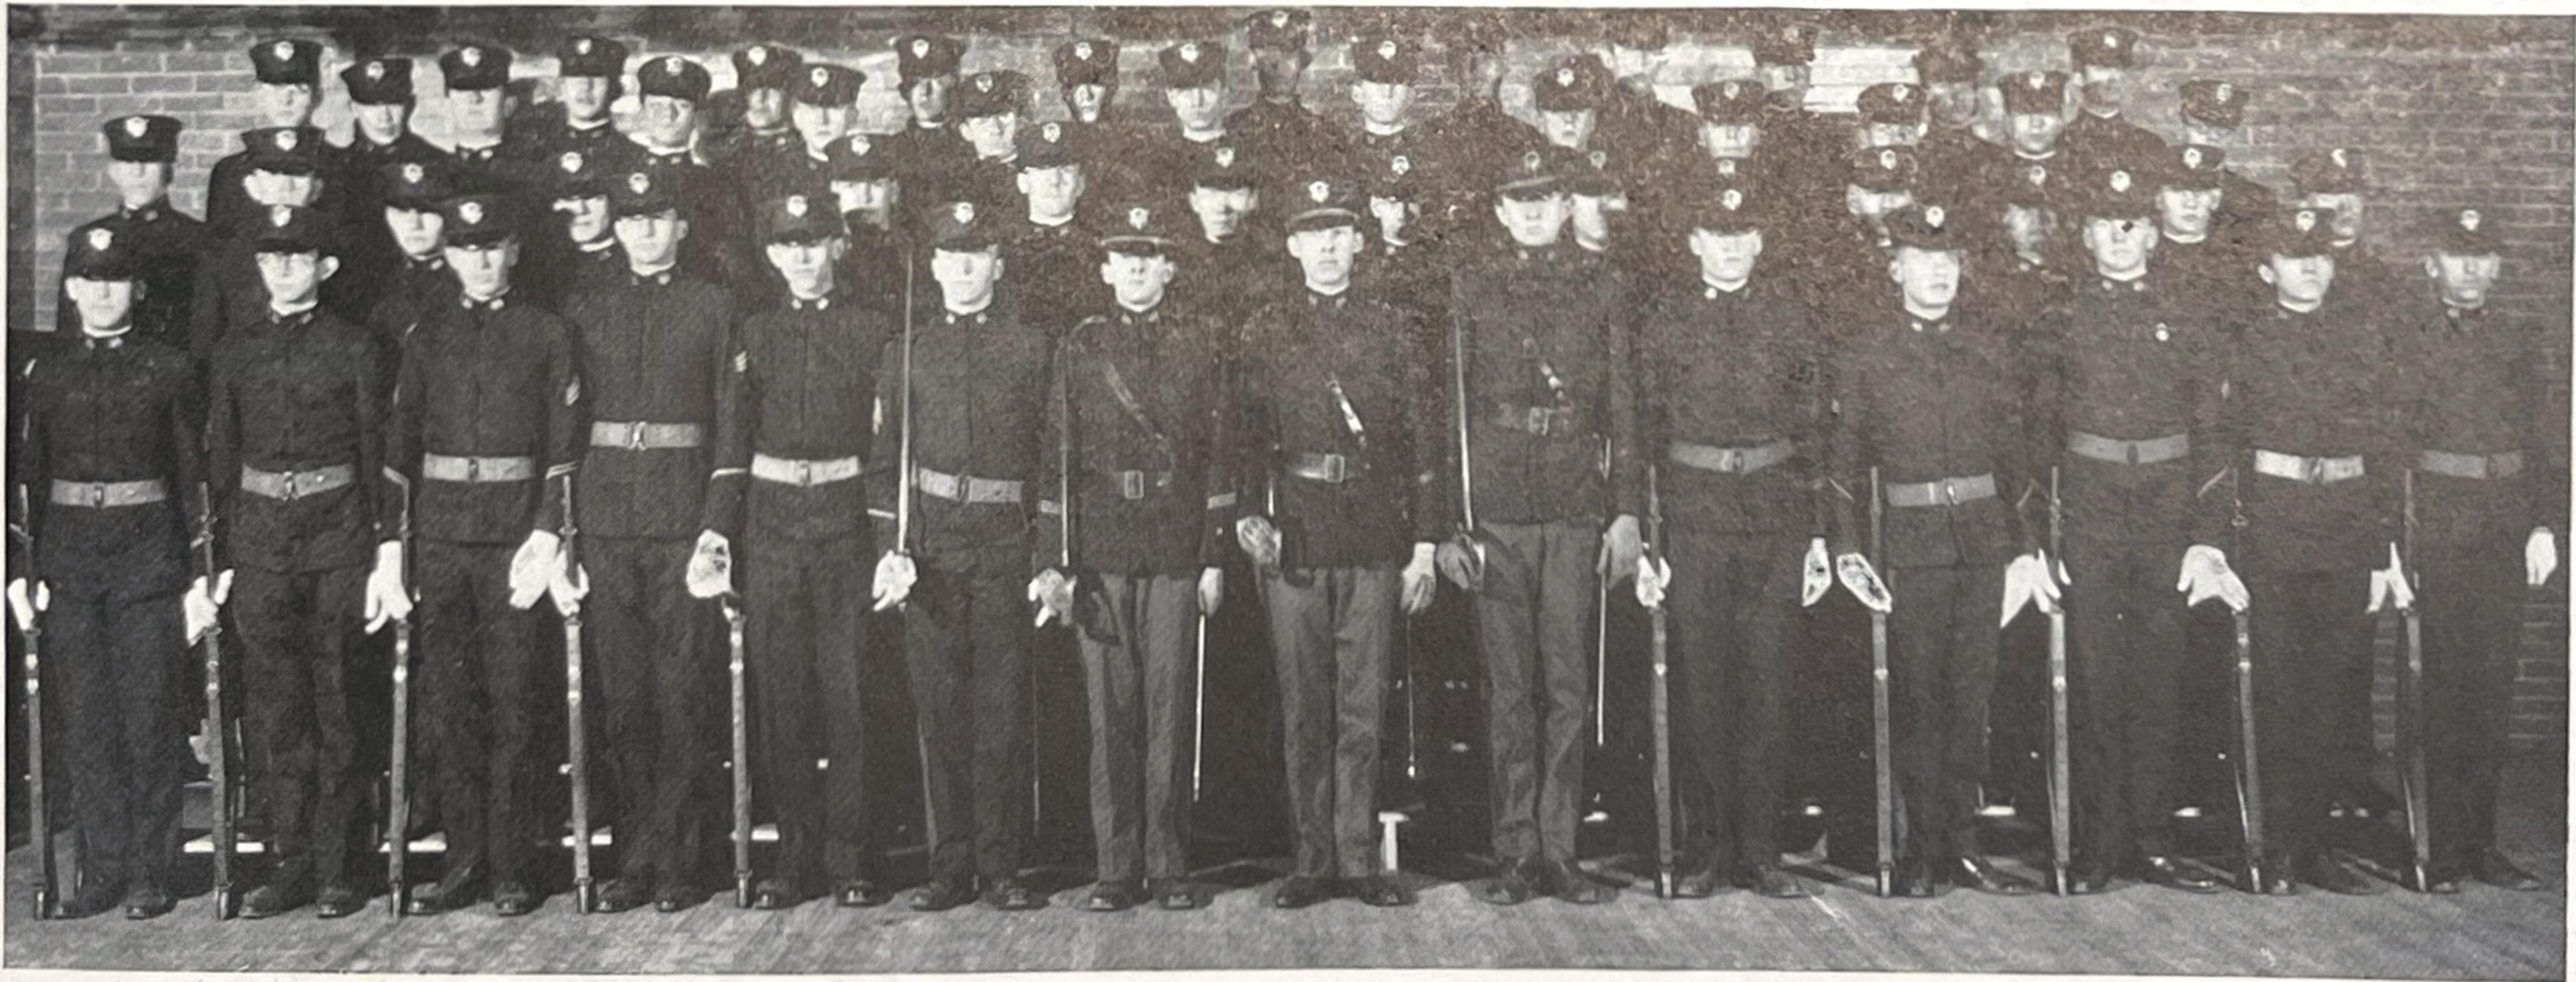

In the latter part of October, the company was formed under the command of Captain Robert W. Yellott, First Lieutenant Berchmans Fitzpatrick, and Second Lieutenant John Scofield. An exceptionally fine corps of non-coms was obtained and three squads of experienced men turned out which lightened the work of the officers allowing them more time to spend on the rookies.

The first few drill days witnessed unusual progress and a fine quality of drill due to the eagerness and enthusiasm which the men showed for the work. The school of the soldier was soon taught and completed. The school of the squad was then mastered and the manual of arms.

However, with the coming of winter and monotonous, unproductive indoor drills, the company encountered a slump and was unsuccessful in the several competitive held at the school with the exception of Corporal George Reeves, who took second place in the manual of arms competitive. With the coming of spring the old fight returned and the quality of drill improved greatly. The company received many compliments upon its showing in the several competitive.

An experienced men's club was formed in H Company this year as an experiment and functioned so successfully in promoting co-operation between the officers and men and generally improving the spirit of the company that it is hoped that it will be continued in the future.

Company K

Last October the familiar commands of "Right, Face!" and "Forward, March!" were heard in Western's neighborhood after a silence which had lasted since the preceding June. The recruits were being divided among the four companies. Since that day, when a new K Company was drawn up ready for business, under Captain Weitzel, First Lieutenant Pimper and Second Lieutenant Craighill, the company has drilled as regularly as the weather would permit.

Due to lack of experience, the war game team did not get far in the series, but those members who return next year will have the benefit of the valuable training received.

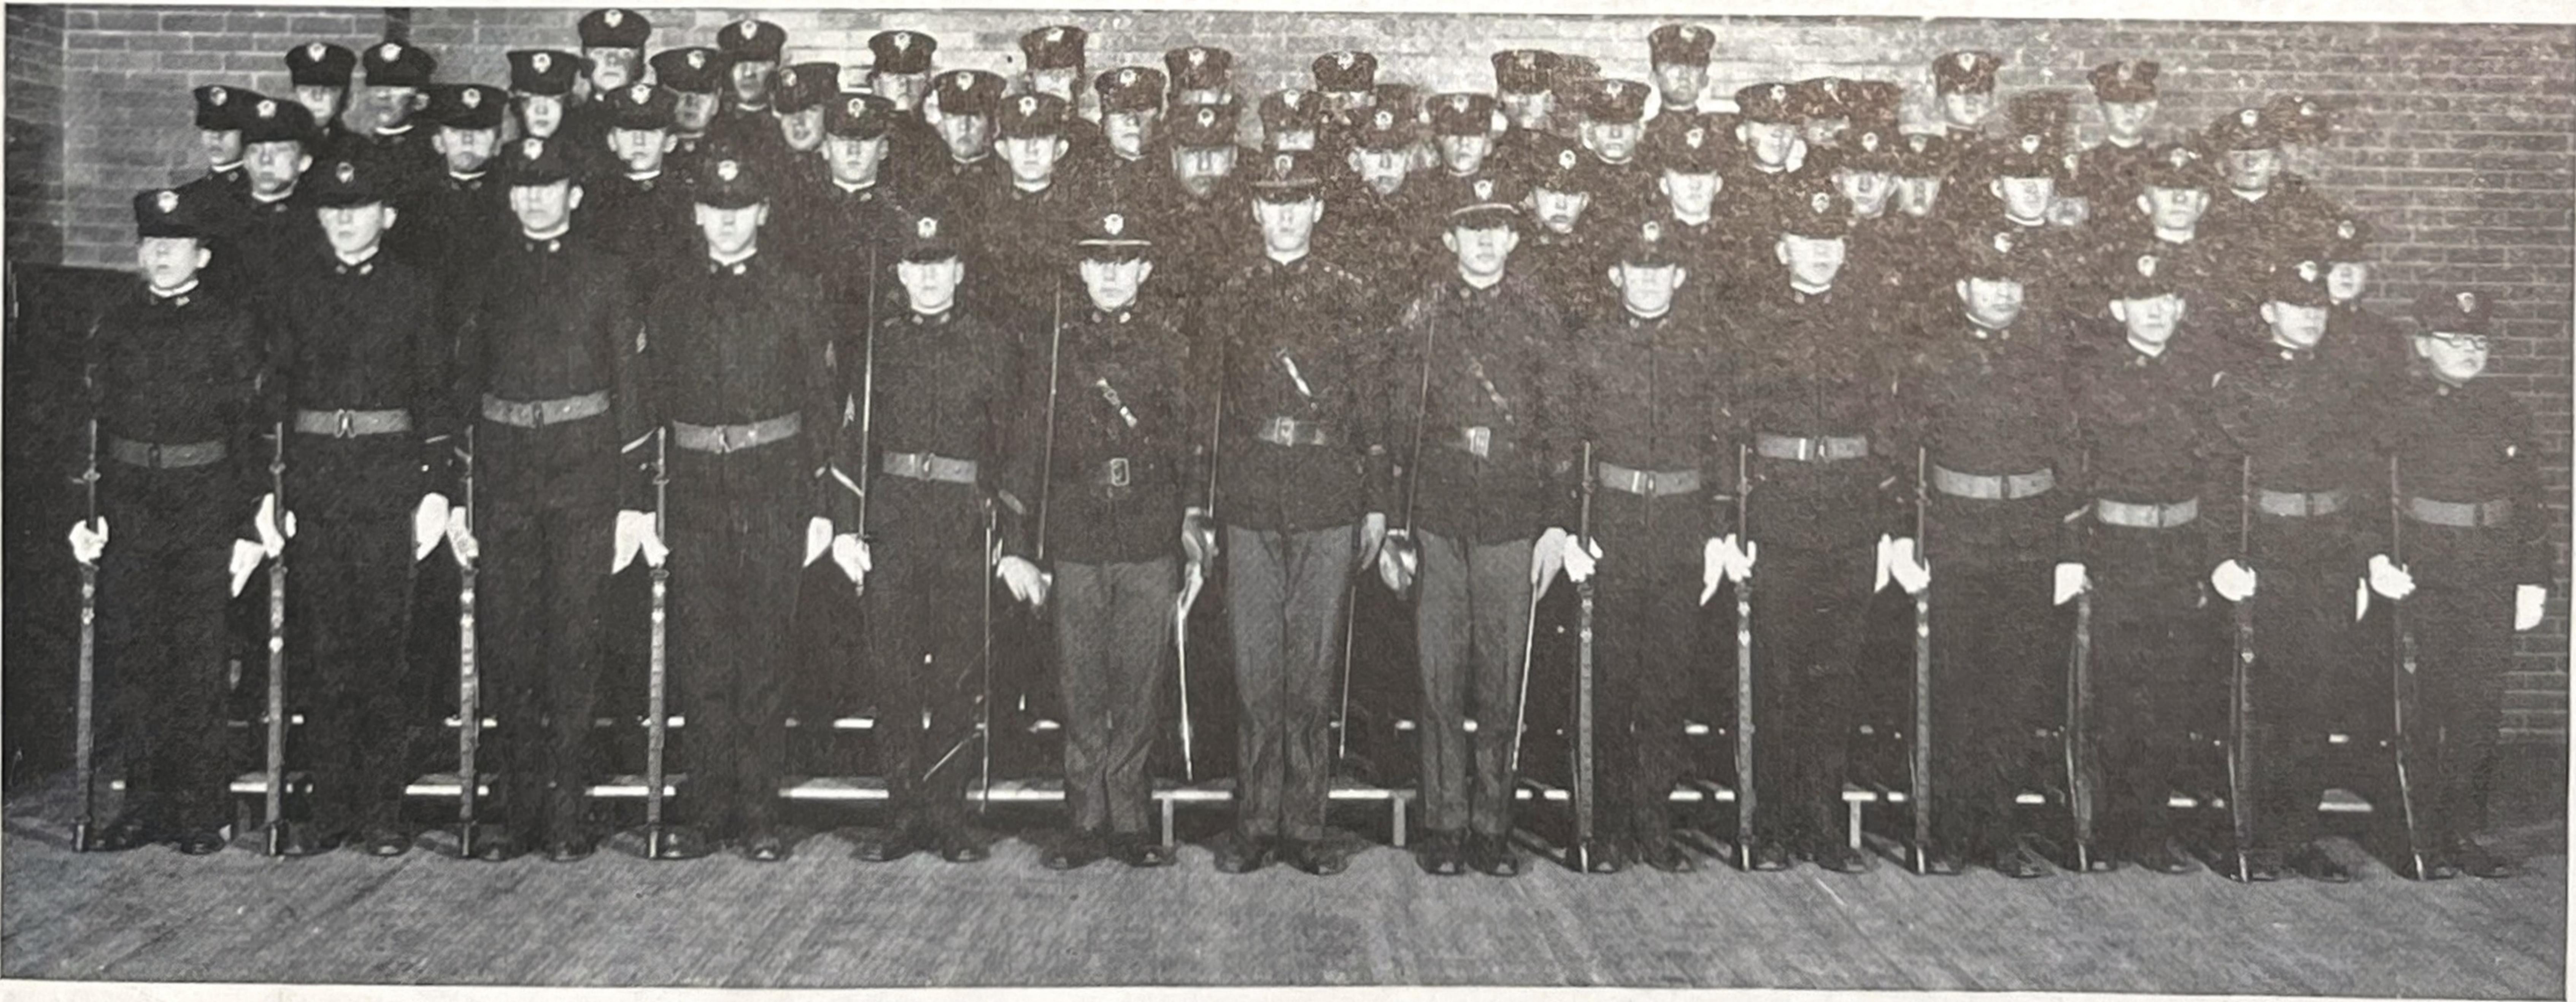

This year a company rifle team was organized to compete against other cadet units in outdoor matches, composed of Pvt. Patterson (Captain), Sgt. Gilbert, Pvt. McDougal, Lt. Craighill (Manager), and Pvt. Huiess.

The second platoon under Lieutenant Craighill took second place in the platoon competitive held just before Easter, finishing two-tenths of a point behind the winning platoon.

The officers, non-coms and privates have worked hard and believe that they have developed a unit worthy of upholding Western's reputation on the Competitive field.

"H," "L," and "M" are good, and "K" knows it. That is why Company K has worked so hard.

Company L

When, later in October than usual, the companies were formed, Company L was under the command of Captain Arthur A. Kimball with G. Leverett Stowell and George W. Watson as First and Second Lieutenants, respectively. The non-coms were First Sergeant John C. Whitwell, Sergeants Kendrick, Whisman, Morscher, Schreiber and McLaughlin, with Sterling, Black, Carter, R. Stowell, Smoot and Phillips as corporals.

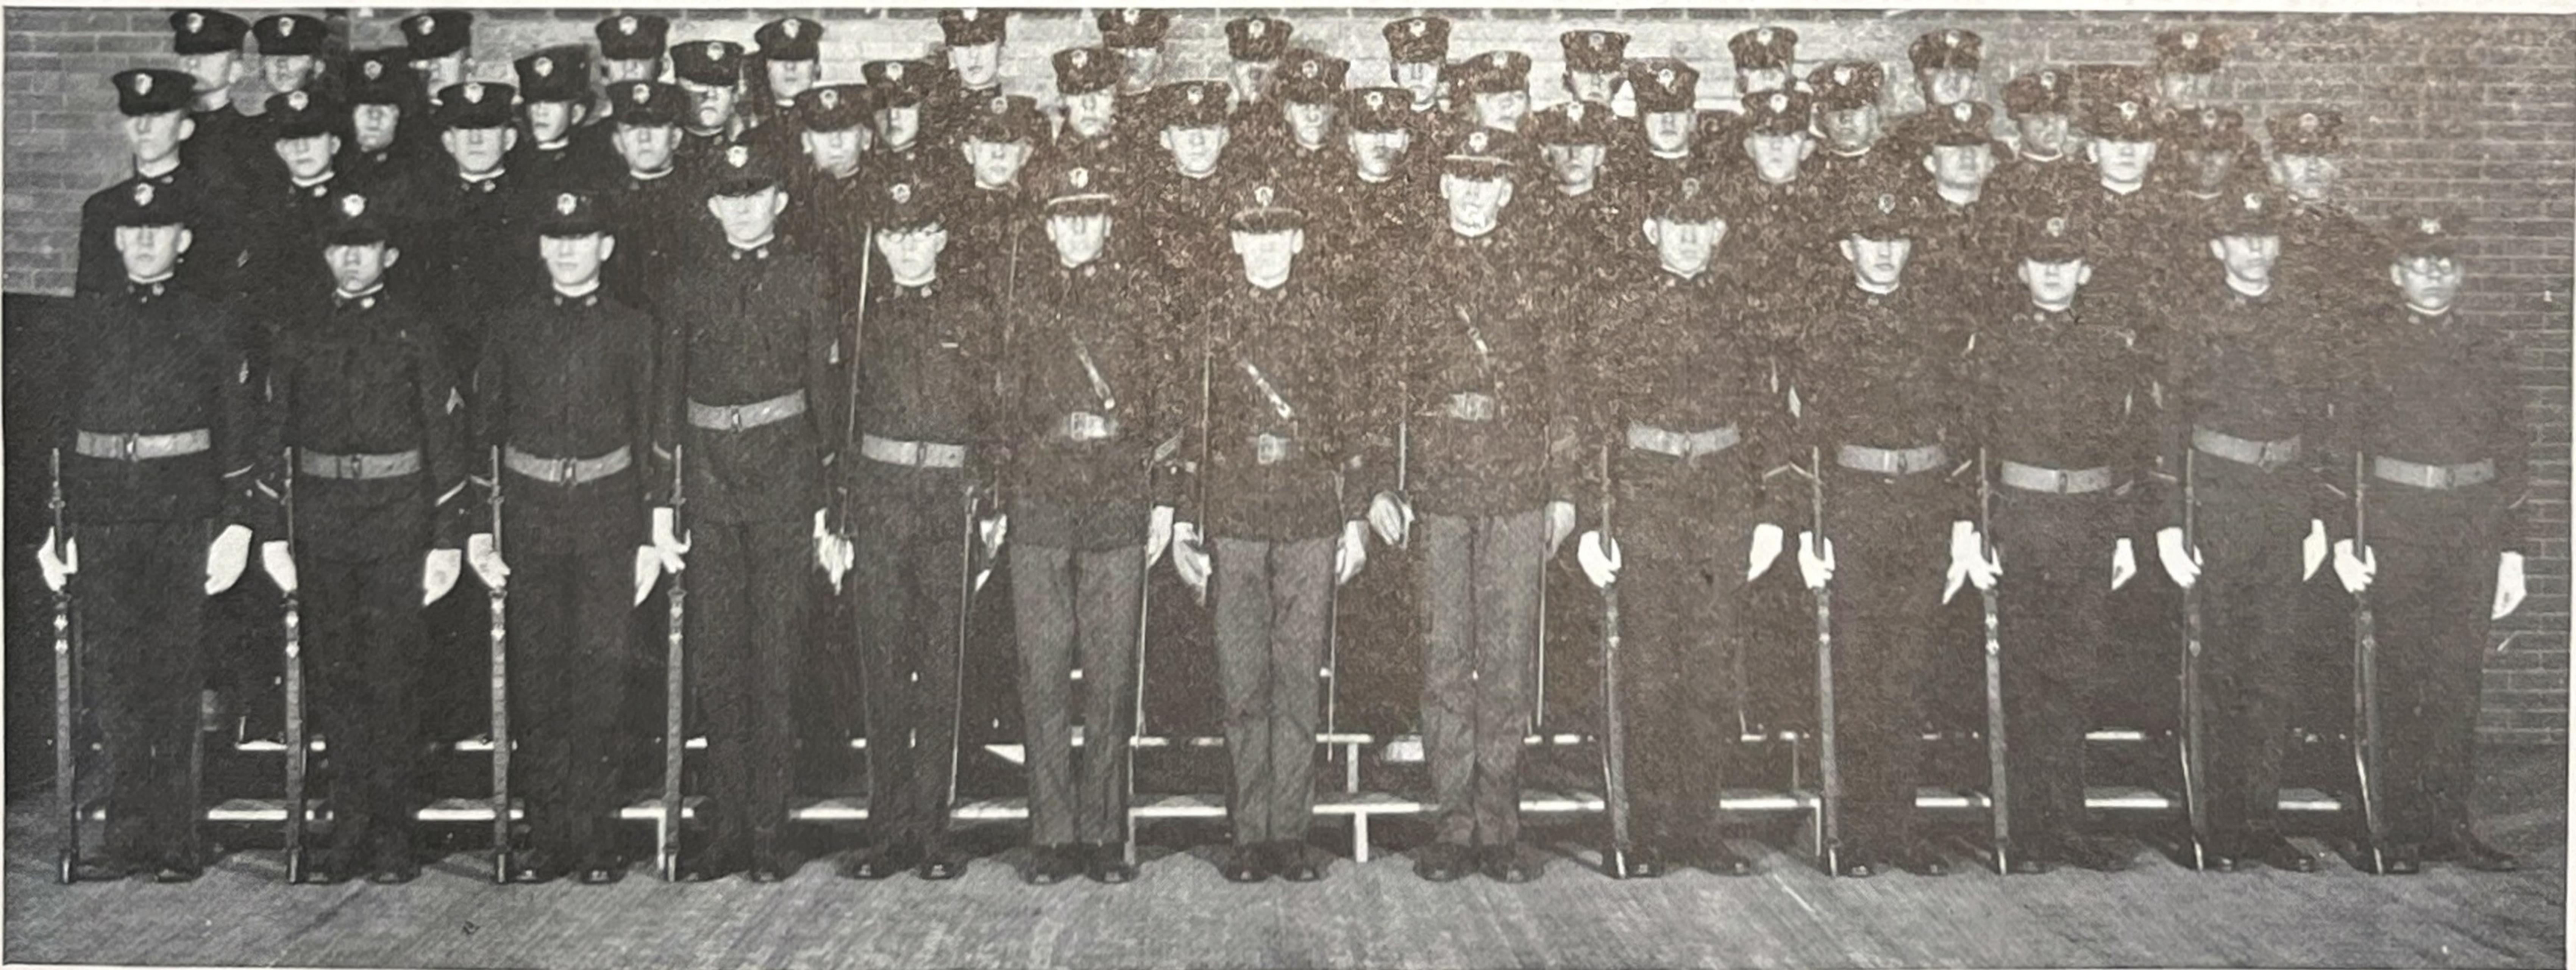

"L" has men of average size making it easier to handle than a company of very small or very large men. These men have established a fine record for the company. In the last five years they have brought to Western two first places, two second places, and one fourth place.

"L's" first victory was the War Game Championship of the Brigade.

On April 1, a Platoon Competitive was held at Western in which "L's" second platoon commanded by Lieutenant Watson won first place and the first platoon, under Lieutenant Stowell, took third. Lieutenant Watson received a gold medal donated by the Officers' Club. "L" justly feels proud to have two such fine platoons.

With the medals and prize squad pins to work for, the men have put all possible effort into perfecting "L's" drill.

Company M

Some doubt was expressed at the close of the 1925 cadet season whether "M," the fourth and newest company at Western, would have enough men to fill her ranks for the next year, as the Junior High Schools annually take a greater number of freshmen from us. However, the following fall there were enough to make the fourth company, probably due to the effect of the victorious season of 1925. M Company, therefore, is sure to be a permanent institution.

Due to a lack of experienced members, the War Game team was not very successful against the other companies, but in choosing the members, the officers took care that at least one freshman, Pvt. Keller, would gain the experience so he could continue with the War Games throughout his career at Western.

Although it came when many of the men were sick with grippe and colds, the annual mid-year inspection at Western was won by M Company, which proved a stimulus in averting the monotony of late February drilling.

During the year the men have worked seriously, realizing that a company their size cannot wait until the end before buckling down. "M" cannot fail to produce over its share of corporals and sergeants for the season of 1927 and each one will be a credit to his organization.

WAR GAMES

War games are taking a more prominent part in cadet work than ever before, and are now ranked by Colonel Craigie, who originated them in 1921, and Major Payne, the new instructor, as second only to the company competitive. Much interest was shown this year and Western had five teams, the two staffs combining and forming the fifth team.

The first game was played on January 5 between the Staff team and Company H with an "advance guard" problem, and the Staff team won. In the next game, on January 19, in which Company L met Company K, in another problem on "advance guard," "L" came out on top. Company M then made its debut against the Staff team, on January 26 with an "outpost" problem, and was defeated. This left the final game at Western, which was played on February 2, with an "attack on a convoy" problem, between the Staff team and Company L. "L" won the game, becoming champions of Western. "L" then traveled to Eastern on February 9 and annexed the Regimental Championship by defeating Company C, the champions of Eastern, in an "outpost" problem. Then the final game was held at Tech on February 25 between "L," "A" of Tech, the winner of the Second Regiment, and "G" of Central, representing the First Regiment, with an "outpost" problem. "L" won this game, becoming Brigade Champions, with Central second and Tech third. This broke Central's record of four consecutive victories, bringing a cup to Western and giving Captain Kimball a gold medal.

The members of the winning team are Captain Kimball, who was on the winning team of the Third Regiment last year; Lieutenant Stowell, who had the same distinction in both 1924 and 1925; Sergeant Whitwell, Corporal Smoot, on the Regimental Championship team in 1925; Corporal Carter, and Private Holland, with Private Shea as alternate. Other men on the team who deserve credit for playing in one game or more, although they did not make the final team, are Corporal Stowell, Private Jumper, Private Weed, and Private LaGarde. All of these men except Captain Kimball and Lieutenant Stowell will be back next year, so the victory may be repeated. Outside of Central, "L" is the only company to have won, taking first honors in 1921, the year they were introduced, and again this year.

The teams owe much of their success this year to their instructor, Major Payne, whose lessons in minor tactics were very valuable.

At the time of Western's first inter-high school series game, only thirteen men were eligible, which consequently had a great influence upon the team's defeat, at the hands of Central, for the first time since 1922. Although the game ended with the score 17-0, a single fumble at an inopportune time, and an intercepted forward pass were the only disastrous plays that could be attributed to the Red and White team.

The first quarter was devoted mainly to kicks back and forth by both sides without much gain by either team. Central scored in the second quarter when a field goal was made. In the third quarter a Western back fumbled and the Blue and White carried the ball across for a touchdown. Later a short pass was blocked by a Central man and another touchdown was scored. The Western team played exceedingly well during the last quarter, keeping the ball in Central's territory all the time, but they did not succeed in scoring and Central emerged victorious with a final score of 17-0.

On Friday, October 30, Western fought Eastern to a 6-6 tie, in a game that included every possible angle of freak football, before a scattering of loyal supporters who braved the icy cold and drizzling snow to back their teams. The field was covered with a thin coat of snow which made the playing extremely difficult. In the first quarter McDiarmid made a thirty-yard run and soon after David slid over the line for a touchdown. The kick for the extra point went wild. Eastern scored early in the third quarter and likewise their try for goal was unsuccessful. The game ended with the score at 6-6.

The Western team played Tech on November 6. The game ended in a scoreless tie. Two or three times the Red and White Eleven was within scoring distance, but each time failed. Although Tech received all the breaks of the game, Western put up a fine battle to the finish. Late in the first quarter Tech had its only chance to score, but the Western team stiffened and held them on their own nine-yard line. In the second quarter an illegal substitution probably cost Western a score, as they were within striking distance of the goal when penalized forty-five yards. The Tech Eleven was outrushed in every period; their own attack failed, and not once did they complete a pass, due mainly to the alertness of the Western backs.

In the last game of the season, Western defeated Business with a score of 14-0. Western scored in the first quarter. While on Business' forty-yard line, "Pee Wee" Walker passed thirty-yards to Eddie Fletcher, who ran ten more to cross the line. Hilleary added the extra point. In the third period a heavy succession of battering blows were dealt to the Business team's line which brought the ball to within three yards of the goal, and Walker carried it over for a touchdown. Hilleary drop-kicked the point after the touchdown. Neither team made any remarkable gains during the last period.

This game put Business in the cellar position, in regard to the series' results, and enabled Western to hold fourth place.

Nineteen twenty-six was perhaps not very successful for Western, from a basketball viewpoint, but it does leave pleasant prospects for next year. The team finished the inter-high series in last place, with one win and seven losses, and although those figures appear rather startling on paper, close followers of the series will admit that Western's playing was far above the standard of usual last-raters.

There comes a time to every school when a former winning combination in some sport is broken up, either by graduation or by failures in studies. This past season proved just such a year for Western. Last season, the school placed a very formidable court combination on the floor. Four of the five regulars were lost to Western by graduation last June. This left the series just closed to be played with only one regular and two substitutes from last Coach Ahern for his success into able performers during vacancies left by graduation Gichner, mainstays of last

Tech, after one of the most exciting games of the season. The game with Central was but a repetition of the Eastern struggle, the more experienced team winning.

The second half was ushered in with the victory over Business. Eastern again proved too strong for the Georgetown representatives, and rang up a second victory. Then it was that Western received a severe blow from the ineligibility of McDiarmid, and lost to Tech in another close game. Coombs, who had been placed in the pivot position, when Wilson was shifted to forward, was also ineligible, and the graduation of Young in February, further weakened the team. The season closed with a loss to Central.

Walker and Wilson were mentioned as selections for the second team picked by local newspaper writers.

Baseball

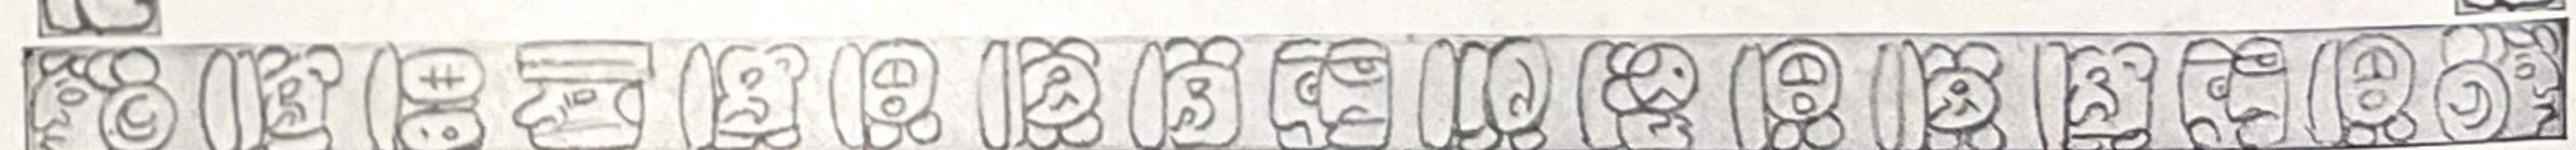

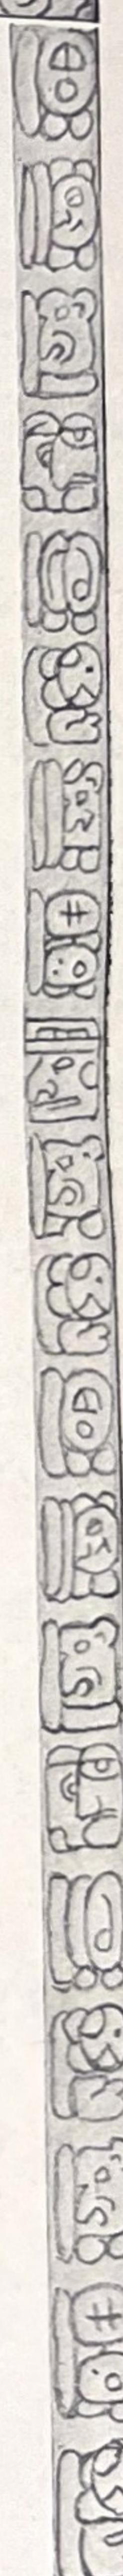

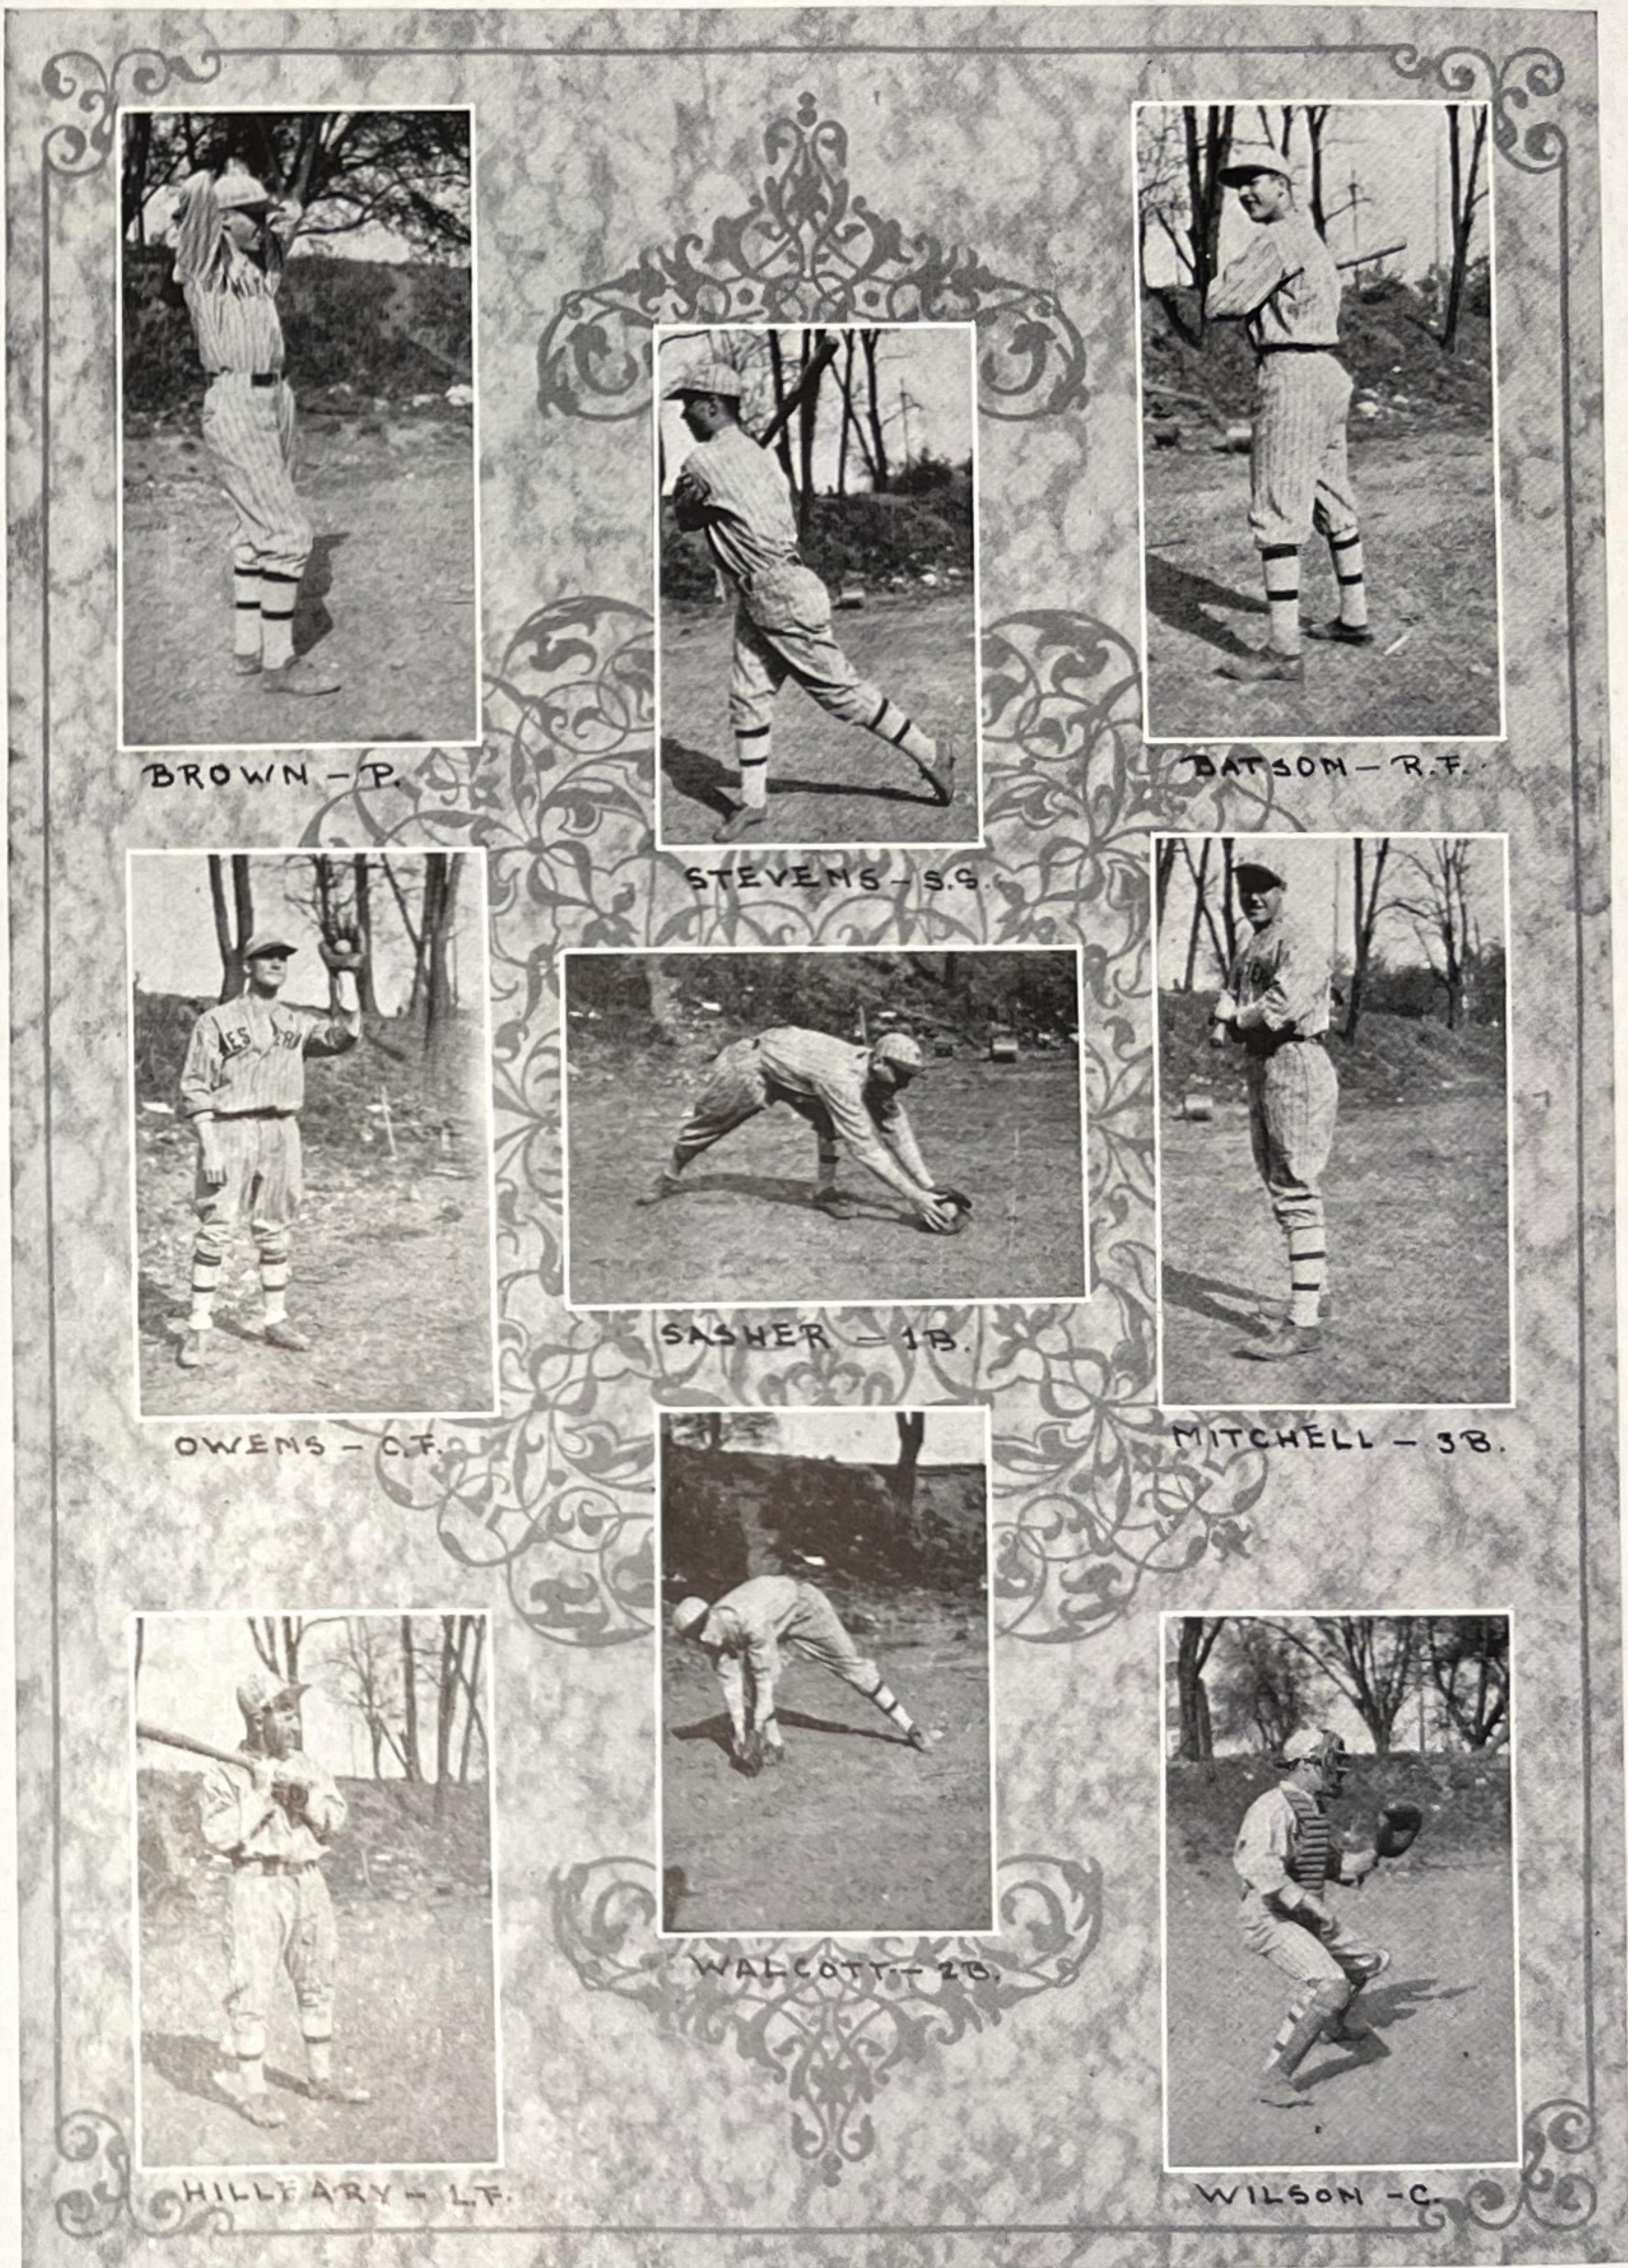

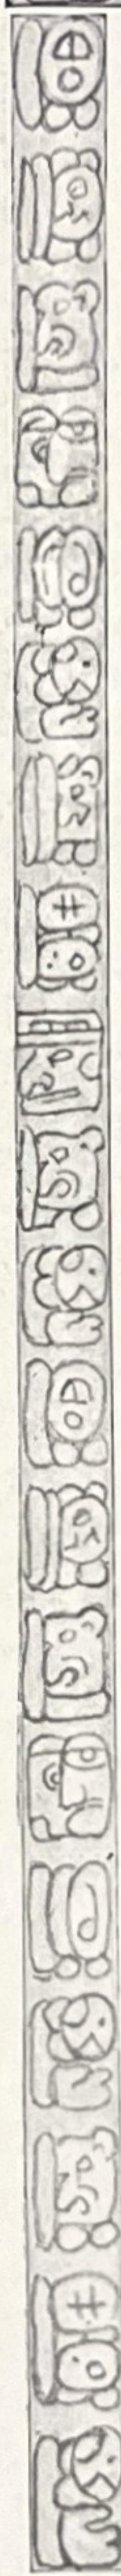

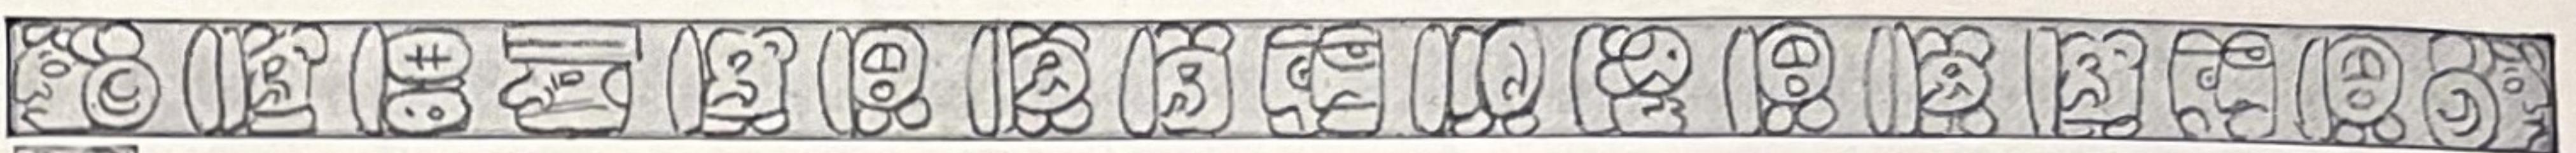

Western opened the 1926 baseball season with a promising showing in the first trio of games of the season. The first scheduled tilt took place at Leonardtown, Maryland. Leonard Hall's nine was met and defeated by the Westernites, 8-1. The team's second contest was with Briarly Hall, who turned the tables on the visitors and handed them an 8-2 defeat. The third game, however, resulted in another Western victory, Mt. St. Joseph's leaving the field with the short end of a 7-5 score.

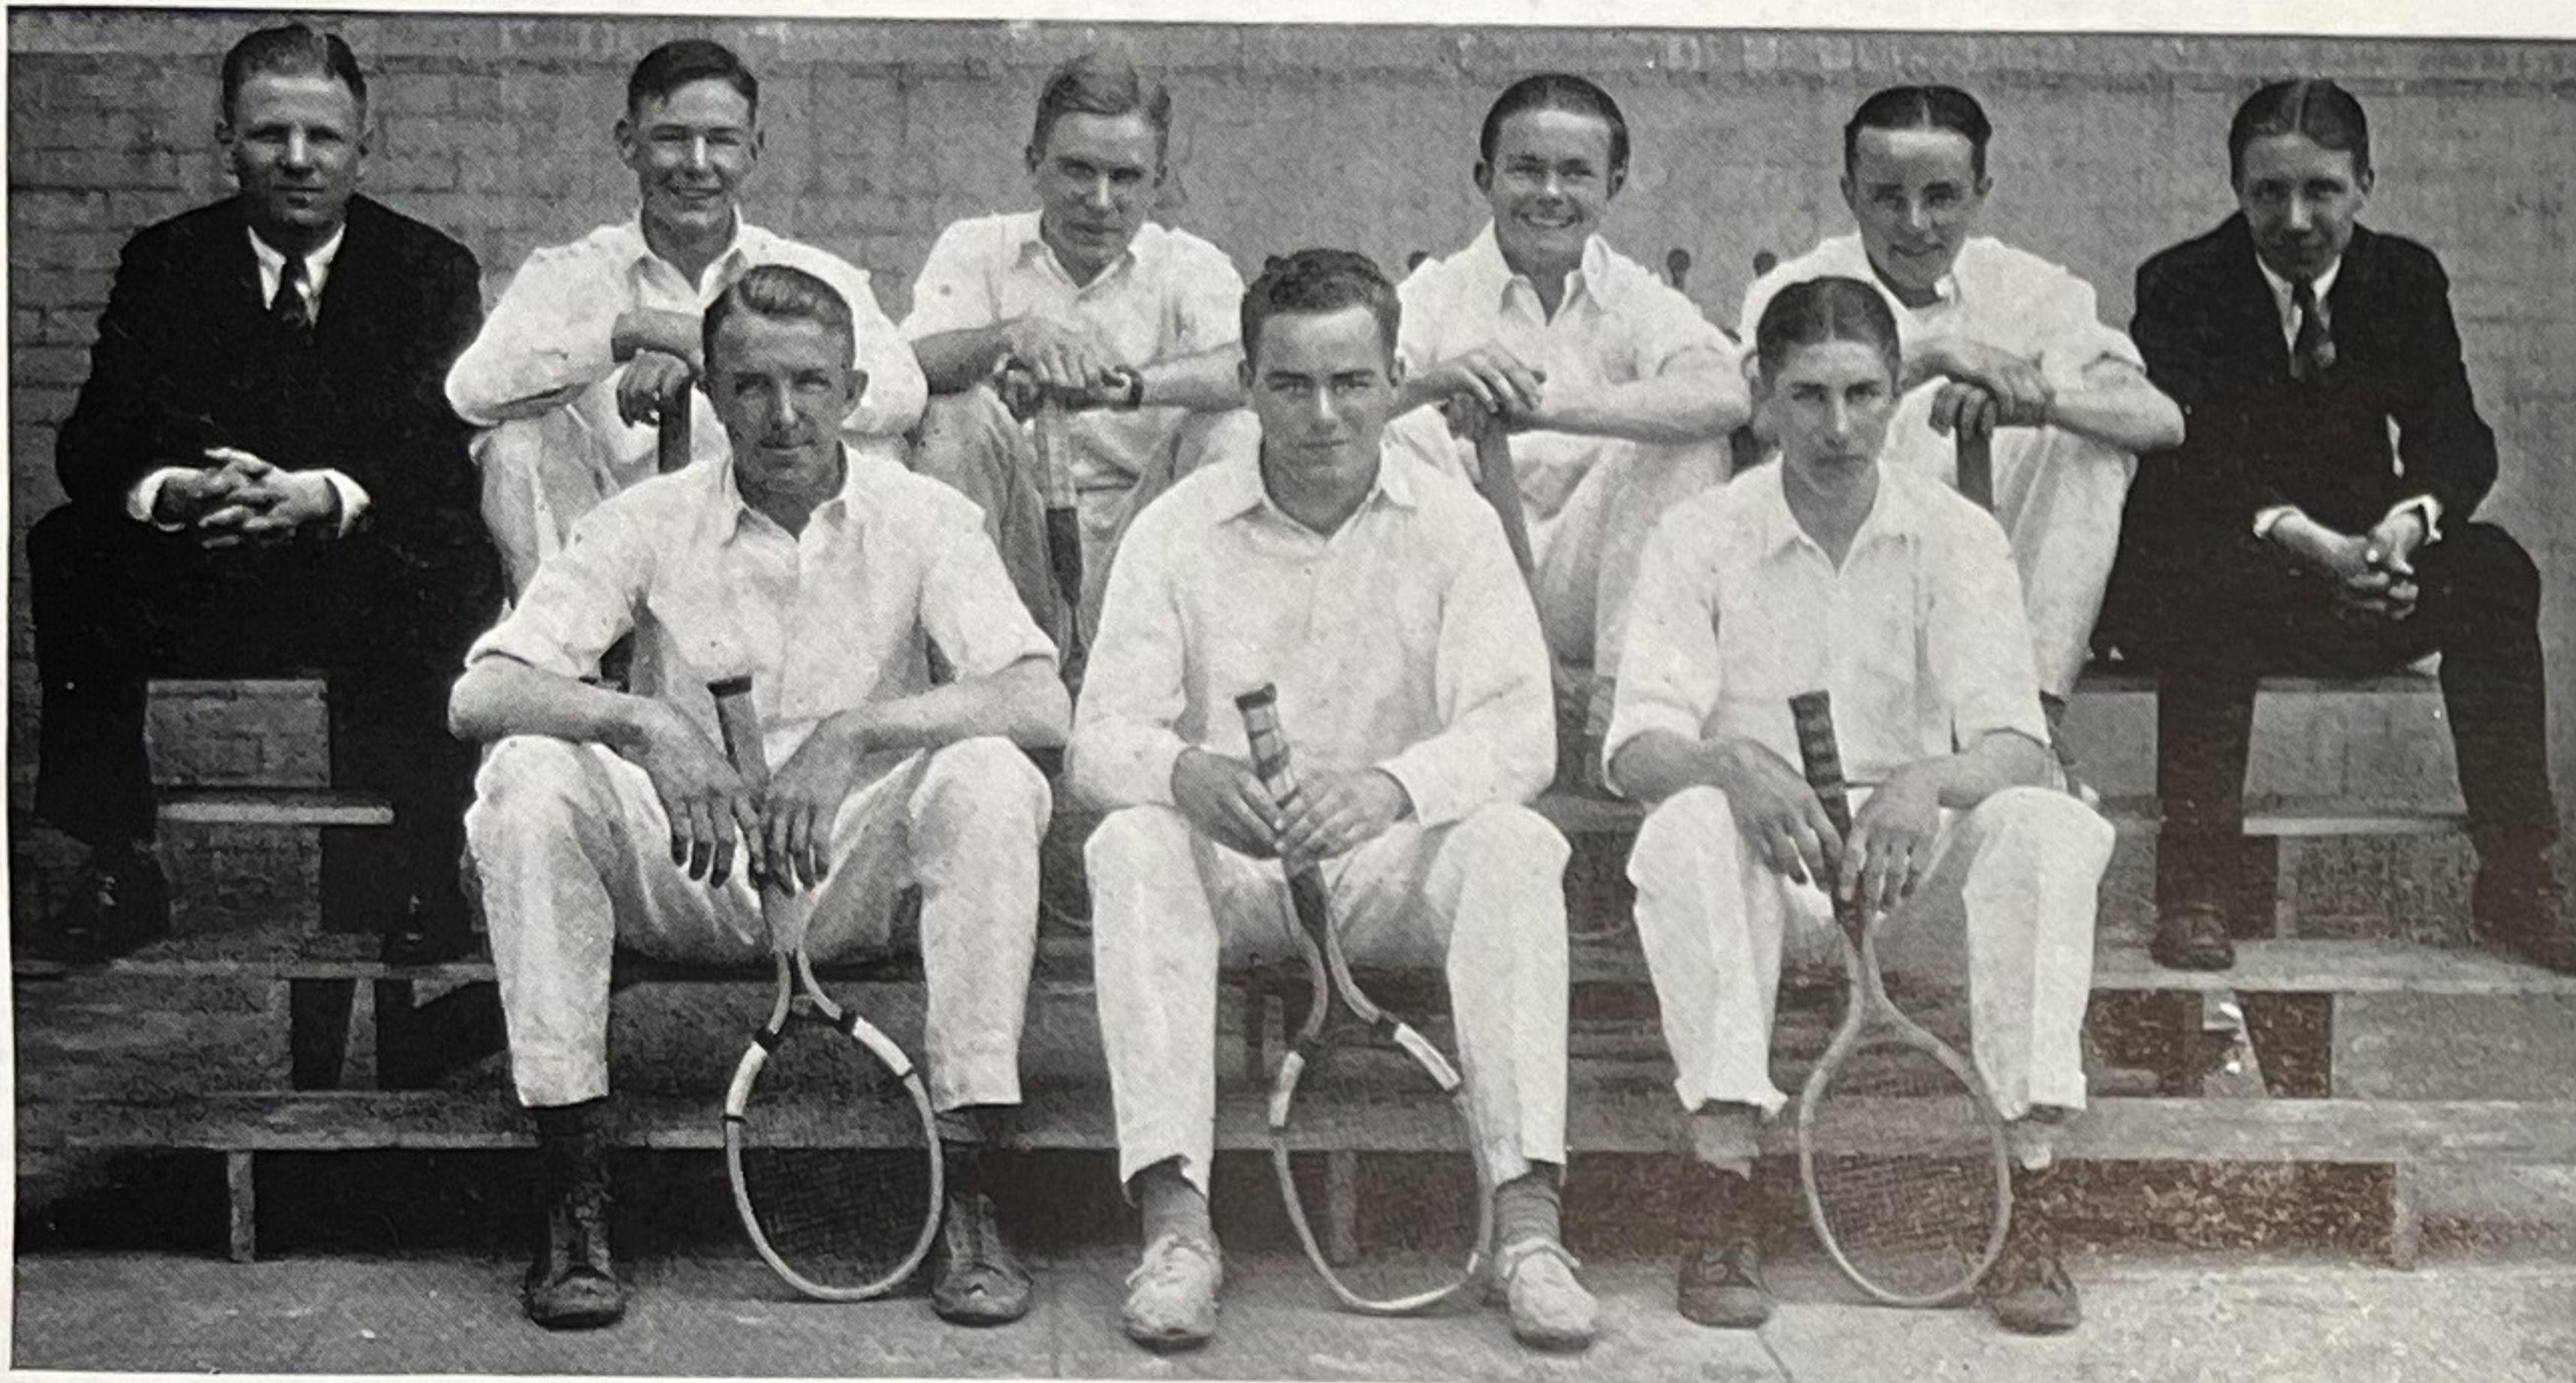

St. Alban's was encountered on April 23, and, through Bobby Steven's four home runs, Western managed to pile up a 15-2 score against their opponents.

Western, playing their first game of the inter-high series on April 24, defeated Central 3 to 2. Brown pitched a truly fine game for the entire nine innings and held the Central nine to only three hits. The Mt. Pleasant team was the first to score, making their first run in the second inning. Mitchell singled in the sixth and scored on Bobby Stevens' hit to right. Owens singled in the following frame, reached midway on Batson's sacrifice, and scored on Simmon's error of Sasher's high fly. Later, Sasher scored from third on Munroe's error. These two runs ended the scoring, except for Central's one run in the next inning, but they were sufficient to win the game for the Red and White.

The Western team's defeat at the hands of Business on April 30, came as a surprise to everyone. The game ended with the very close score of 4-3. The Stenographers' team played fine ball, and it seemed to be the off-day for Western. The Georgetown team out-hit the Business team by six to four, but failed to make any valuable hits when they were most needed. Schneider occupied the mound for the Westerners during the first six innings and Brown for the remainder of the game.

Western lost their chance to tie for the championship by losing to Eastern on May 11 by a 13-8 score. The Westerners appeared to have the best of the game up until the eighth. They scored three runs in the third, four in the fourth, and one in the sixth, to Eastern's four in the third and one in the seventh, so that at the beginning of the eighth inning the score stood 8-5 in the favor of the Red and White team.

First Row: Harold DeVeau, Dennison Mitchell, Don Garber.
Second Row: Millard Lewis (Coach), Louis LaGarde, Williamson Smoot, James Lowe, Lecky Cox, George Bates (Manager).

Tennis

The tennis season this year started in March. At the first meeting there were over forty out. Mitchell was elected last year to captain this year's team. George Bates was appointed manager in March and arranged an elaborate schedule.

The team met with some trouble at first in getting courts to practice on, but through the courtesy of Mr. Arthur Hellen and the rest of the Tennis Committee at the Chevy Chase Club, their courts were obtained for regular practice. In a series of elimination matches, judged by Mitchell, McDiarmid, and Lewis, stars of last year's team, the squad was narrowed down to the best eight players, namely: DeVeau, Smoot, LaGarde, Garber, Cox, Brady and Lowe under the able leadership of Mitchell. Lewis was later officially appointed as coach of the team.

An average of three days a week were devoted to strenuous practice and each weekend the team went on a short trip. The initial match of the year was with Leonard Hall, who was turned back by the Westerners by a count of 3-1. The next, with St. Alban's, ended in a tie score of 2-2. Devitt was the next opponent, and again the Red team was the victor, defeating the prep school by a score of 4-2. Lastly, Georgetown was met, and another tie score was the result. The score on this occasion was 3-3.

The inter-high series began on April 30 with the match with Central. The encounter, played on the Reservoir Courts, went to the Red and White by a score of four matches to three. Western annexed three of the five singles and split even in the doubles. As Central had already easily downed Tech, and as Tech had downed Eastern, seemingly with only business in the way, the Western racketeers appeared to be headed toward the championship for the third consecutive year.

The team met with its first defeat when it journeyed to Annapolis to meet the Plebes on May 8, but this, in no way, should hinder the team from securing the championship.

Thus far, the season has been very successful in spite of the fact that the men were inexperienced, except for "Dooley" Mitchell, who is now the District Junior Champion.

Boys' Fencing Club

This is the first time that there has been a boys' fencing club at Western. Through the earnest efforts of Prescott Blount, a junior, who was unusually enthusiastic about this sport, all boys interested were asked to meet on November 13, at which time the club was organized. The school equipped the club with all necessary paraphernalia, and Major Walter E. Blount, at one time intercollegiate fencing champion, offered his services as instructor.

The first actual use of the foils started on December 4, and after sufficient work had been accomplished, the club organized a team to enter into competition with other high schools and prep schools. The team was selected through a number of elimination bouts on the stage in the Auditorium. The team as finally chosen was composed of: Prescott Blount, Lee Browne, and Norton Barnhart, with McLean and Pratt named as substitutes.

The fencing team met the Naval Academy Plebes, March 27, in the Annapolis gymnasium. Each of the Western men, Prescott Blount, Norton Barnhart and Lee Browne, was matched against each of the Academy's team of three. Blount and Barnhart won a bout apiece, despite the greater experience of their opponents. The hitherto unbeaten best man on the Plebes' team, Wait, was defeated by Blount. The results of the match were very encouraging and showed the quick response of Western's fencers to the training which they have received this winter from Major Blount.

The season was brought to a pleasant close with a club dance held in the boys' gymnasium on April 23.

Track

The first meeting of the track candidates was held sometime during the latter part of March. A great number turned out, but among those, there were only two or three who had had any experience. Winton Elliot captained the team, while Charles Pimper was its manager.

Western possessed no track nor any suitable place to jump and pole-vault, so the squad came out in full and worked behind the school for a month preparing a small plot for high-jumping, pole-vaulting, broad-jumping, and short dashes.

The team had its first meet with Eastern High School on April 23. Although they were defeated, it was not without great exercise of their best faculties that Eastern managed to skim through victorious. Winton Elliot, Western's mainstay, came out as high-point man on his team, having won the pole-vault and the broad-jump and placed third in the high-jump. Robert Craighill took second place in the high hurdles. Steve Nyman was third in the 120-yard high hurdles and third in the 220-yard low hurdles, and William Stanley came second in the shot put.

The next opponent was Swavely Prep's team, which won through its greater experience. Elliot won the pole-vault in this meet also. Western's track team was entered in the interscholastic meet held at Maryland University and through this gained much valuable experience.

On May 15 the team entered the "C" Club meet held at the Central Stadium and took part in the inter-high meet on May 21.

The majority of the members of the squad are underclassmen this year, so that with more experience, a successful season can be expected next year.

Standing: Frank Wedderburn, Lawrence Morscher, Ben Lindsey, Douglas Gilbert, Benton Brooks.
 Kneeling: Ashton Jones, Reginald Mitchell, Arthur Kimball, Robert Leonard, Edward Hornibrook, Prescott Blount, James Douglass.

Boys' Rifle Club

The Western rifle team was handicapped this year by getting off to a late start because of the lack of a range. Practice for the first two months, or so, was held at the George Washington University range, but owing to the inconvenience and the infrequent practices, not much headway was made. On February 12 the team competed against Eastern in a practice match at their school. Western was victor with the overwhelming score of 748 to 653. Hornibrook was high scorer with 166 points.

The match with Lawrenceville Prep, of Lawrenceville, N. J., was shot on February 5 at George Washington University's rifle range. The final score was 491 out of 500 for Lawrenceville Prep, and 490 out of 500 for Western. Blount was the high scorer with 100 points out of a possible 100. LaGarde and Brooks tied for second with 98 points out of 100, and Kimball and Mitchell tied for third with 97 points each.

About March 1 the range at Western was completed. The team was entered in the Astor Cup Match, and on March 27 shot the last of the three stages, finishing with the score of 1480 out of a possible 1500. In this match Prescott Blount was the highest scorer with the perfect score of 300 out of a possible 300.

In their first match of the inter-high school series, on April 14, Western lost to Central by a very slight margin. There were six members on each team, each shooting ten shots in each of the four positions. The Western team was as follows: Hornibrook, Leonard, Blount, Douglas McDougal, Wedderburn and Brooks.

The Western Rifle Team made their first win of the inter-high school series against Eastern on April 23. This was the second match of the series. Western's score was 2184 out of 2400, while Eastern's was 2156. The Western scores were as follows: Hornibrook 372, Brooks 371, Blount 370, Leonard 369, Wedderburn 354, and McDougal 348.

In a match with Carnegie Tech, of Pittsburgh, Western won with a score of 907 out of 1000, to Carnegie Tech's 890. The team shot their first match of the high school series with Tech on April 30.

On May 8 the team journeyed to Annapolis to shoot an outdoor match with the Plebes. Because of their greater experience the Plebes easily won over the Western team.

The second outdoor match was shot with Eastern on May 22, and the third with Tech on May 2.

First Row: Edwin Hartshorn, John Owens, Robert Callahan (Manager), Gordon Stone.
Second Row: Browne Miller, Thomas Fitch, Robert Yellott, John Scofield, James Swindells.

Golf

This year was the first in the annals of golf at Western that an inter-high series was arranged for. Through Robert Callahan, the manager of Western's team, and the managers of the other high school golf teams, this move was made. This sport, although considered a minor one at Western, has long been an established activity and has met with great success and enthusiasm in former years. Westerners will remember, among those who have proved themselves unusually talented in this sport, the names of Roland MacKenzie and Page Hufty, members of last year's team. Roland MacKenzie has now gone abroad as one of the members of America's Walker Cup Team, while Page Hufty has distinguished himself by winning the North and South Amateur Championship.

Toward the end of February, the golf candidates were called to a meeting. Browne Miller was chosen as captain of the team and Robert Callahan as manager. Practice was begun by the first of April, and on May 8 the team had its first official match with Devitt Prep School. The Western team performed notably and won every match, making the score 6-0. On this occasion, they played with a four-man team, namely: Miller, who finished with a score of 85 for the nine holes; Stone, with a score of 86; Owens, 85; and Yellott, 88. Other members who played later in the season are Rabbit, Fitch, Hartshorn and Cook.

An elaborate schedule has been planned and all signs point to another successful season of golf at Western.

Girls' Rifle Club

The Girls' rifle club is gaining a prominent place among the clubs of Western. This is due principally to the competent leadership of Mrs. Werthner, aided by India Bell Corea, Captain, and Lillian Lindquist, Manager. Considering the handicap the girls had in the first of the year, as they had no range in which to practice, they deserve double credit for their patience and perfect example of true Western spirit in waiting for what seemed the unattainable. It so happened that the Boys' Rifle Club contrived a temporary range which the girls used for practice.

In the early part of the year the club entertained the Boys' Rifle Club and the Officers' Club at an informal tea dance, held in the girls' gymnasium. Another affair as enjoyable, if not more so, was held in June. Also Mrs. Werthner entertained the officers of the club at dinner a few days before the close of school. The girls who had the honor of attending the dinner were: India Bell Corea, Captain; Lillian Lindquist, Manager; Florence Kincheloe, treasurer; and Dorothy White, secretary.

In the match which opened the interscholastic season for the girls, Mrs. Werthner awarded three prizes, one for each of the two positions, prone and standing, and one for the best average. These were won by Louisa Olney, with the best average, Mary Worthington, standing, and Dorothy White, prone. Though the first match was lost, the girls still had hope of being successful in the remainder of their schedule. The most reliable marksmen, most of whom were on the team last year, were India Bell Corea, Lillian Lindquist, Florence Kincheloe, Dorothy White, Mary Worthington, Mary Durand, Lucille Miller, Louisa Olney, and Helen Morrill.

SPRING SPORTS

Hockey as usual was begun in the fall of 1925 with practice held in the Hollow. There were two days of practice and then inclement weather set in. Following the precedent of the year before, hockey was therefore postponed until spring. In March all was in readiness for the renewal of practice but there was no field. The Hollow could not be obtained, so spring sports were decided upon, to replace hockey, much to the joy of some and sorrow of others.

Under the heading of spring sports are included indoor track, indoor baseball and tennis. Indoor baseball is an entirely new sport at Western but not so with track. In the spring of 1924, due to the lack of a track field, an indoor track meet was organized and run off with much success. With this meet before them, the girls strove to better the records of that year and to cover themselves with glory, both of which they did very successfully. Tennis also was no new innovation and was very popular with the girls.

Track drew the honor of starting the spring season with baseball second and tennis filling in the intervals. There were eight events offered in the meet and each girl was allowed to enter four. All the events were interesting and the girls were hard put to keep their names in four events only. Each event had its own shining lights, especially the running high jump, which perhaps shared honors with the ring vault for being the most spectacular. The running broad jump and the relay races caused much excitement; and the German horse and high jump for form, and basketball throw for distance all came in for their share of glory.

Twice a week after school the gymnasium was full to overflowing with enthusiasts practicing vigorously first one event then another. Some were funny going through their stunts and some were not; some were mediocre and some were exceptional. A week before the meet was held an elimination took place which left only the best athletes still in the running. All the girls did themselves full justice on the night of the house-warming, May 13, when the track season came to its flashing climax.

Tennis might next be taken on the list, for the matches were played off while both track and baseball were being practiced. The call to tennis was eagerly answered, about eighty girls coming out for it. The sophomores were better represented than any other class while the juniors came next and the freshmen and senior numbers were about the same. Each class had its outstanding players, especially the seniors. Katharine Berrall, the runner-up in the Girls' District Tournament of '25, Caroline Jansen, Marian Ziegler and Mary Evelyn Bowers took very prominent parts. The lack of tennis courts caused difficulties but the girls cooperated by playing their matches promptly on whatever courts they were able to obtain. Courts were secured at Reno for practice while the semi-final and final rounds were played off on Montrose courts.

Last year each class had a team of the four ranking players, and these teams in turn played each other to determine the winner of the class championship title. This year a different schedule was followed, that is, class matches were played to ascertain the school champion. After an elimination of all players except one in each class the inter-class matches were played. The senior winner played the junior and the sophomore played the freshman champion. The winner of these matches then played the final round. The winner was awarded a "W," the runner-up received a "T" and the class winners each received numerals.

Baseball, the final sport of the spring season, started opportunely and interest in it was keen to the last pitched ball. Any new sport at Western is welcomed with open arms, so to speak, and baseball this year was no exception.

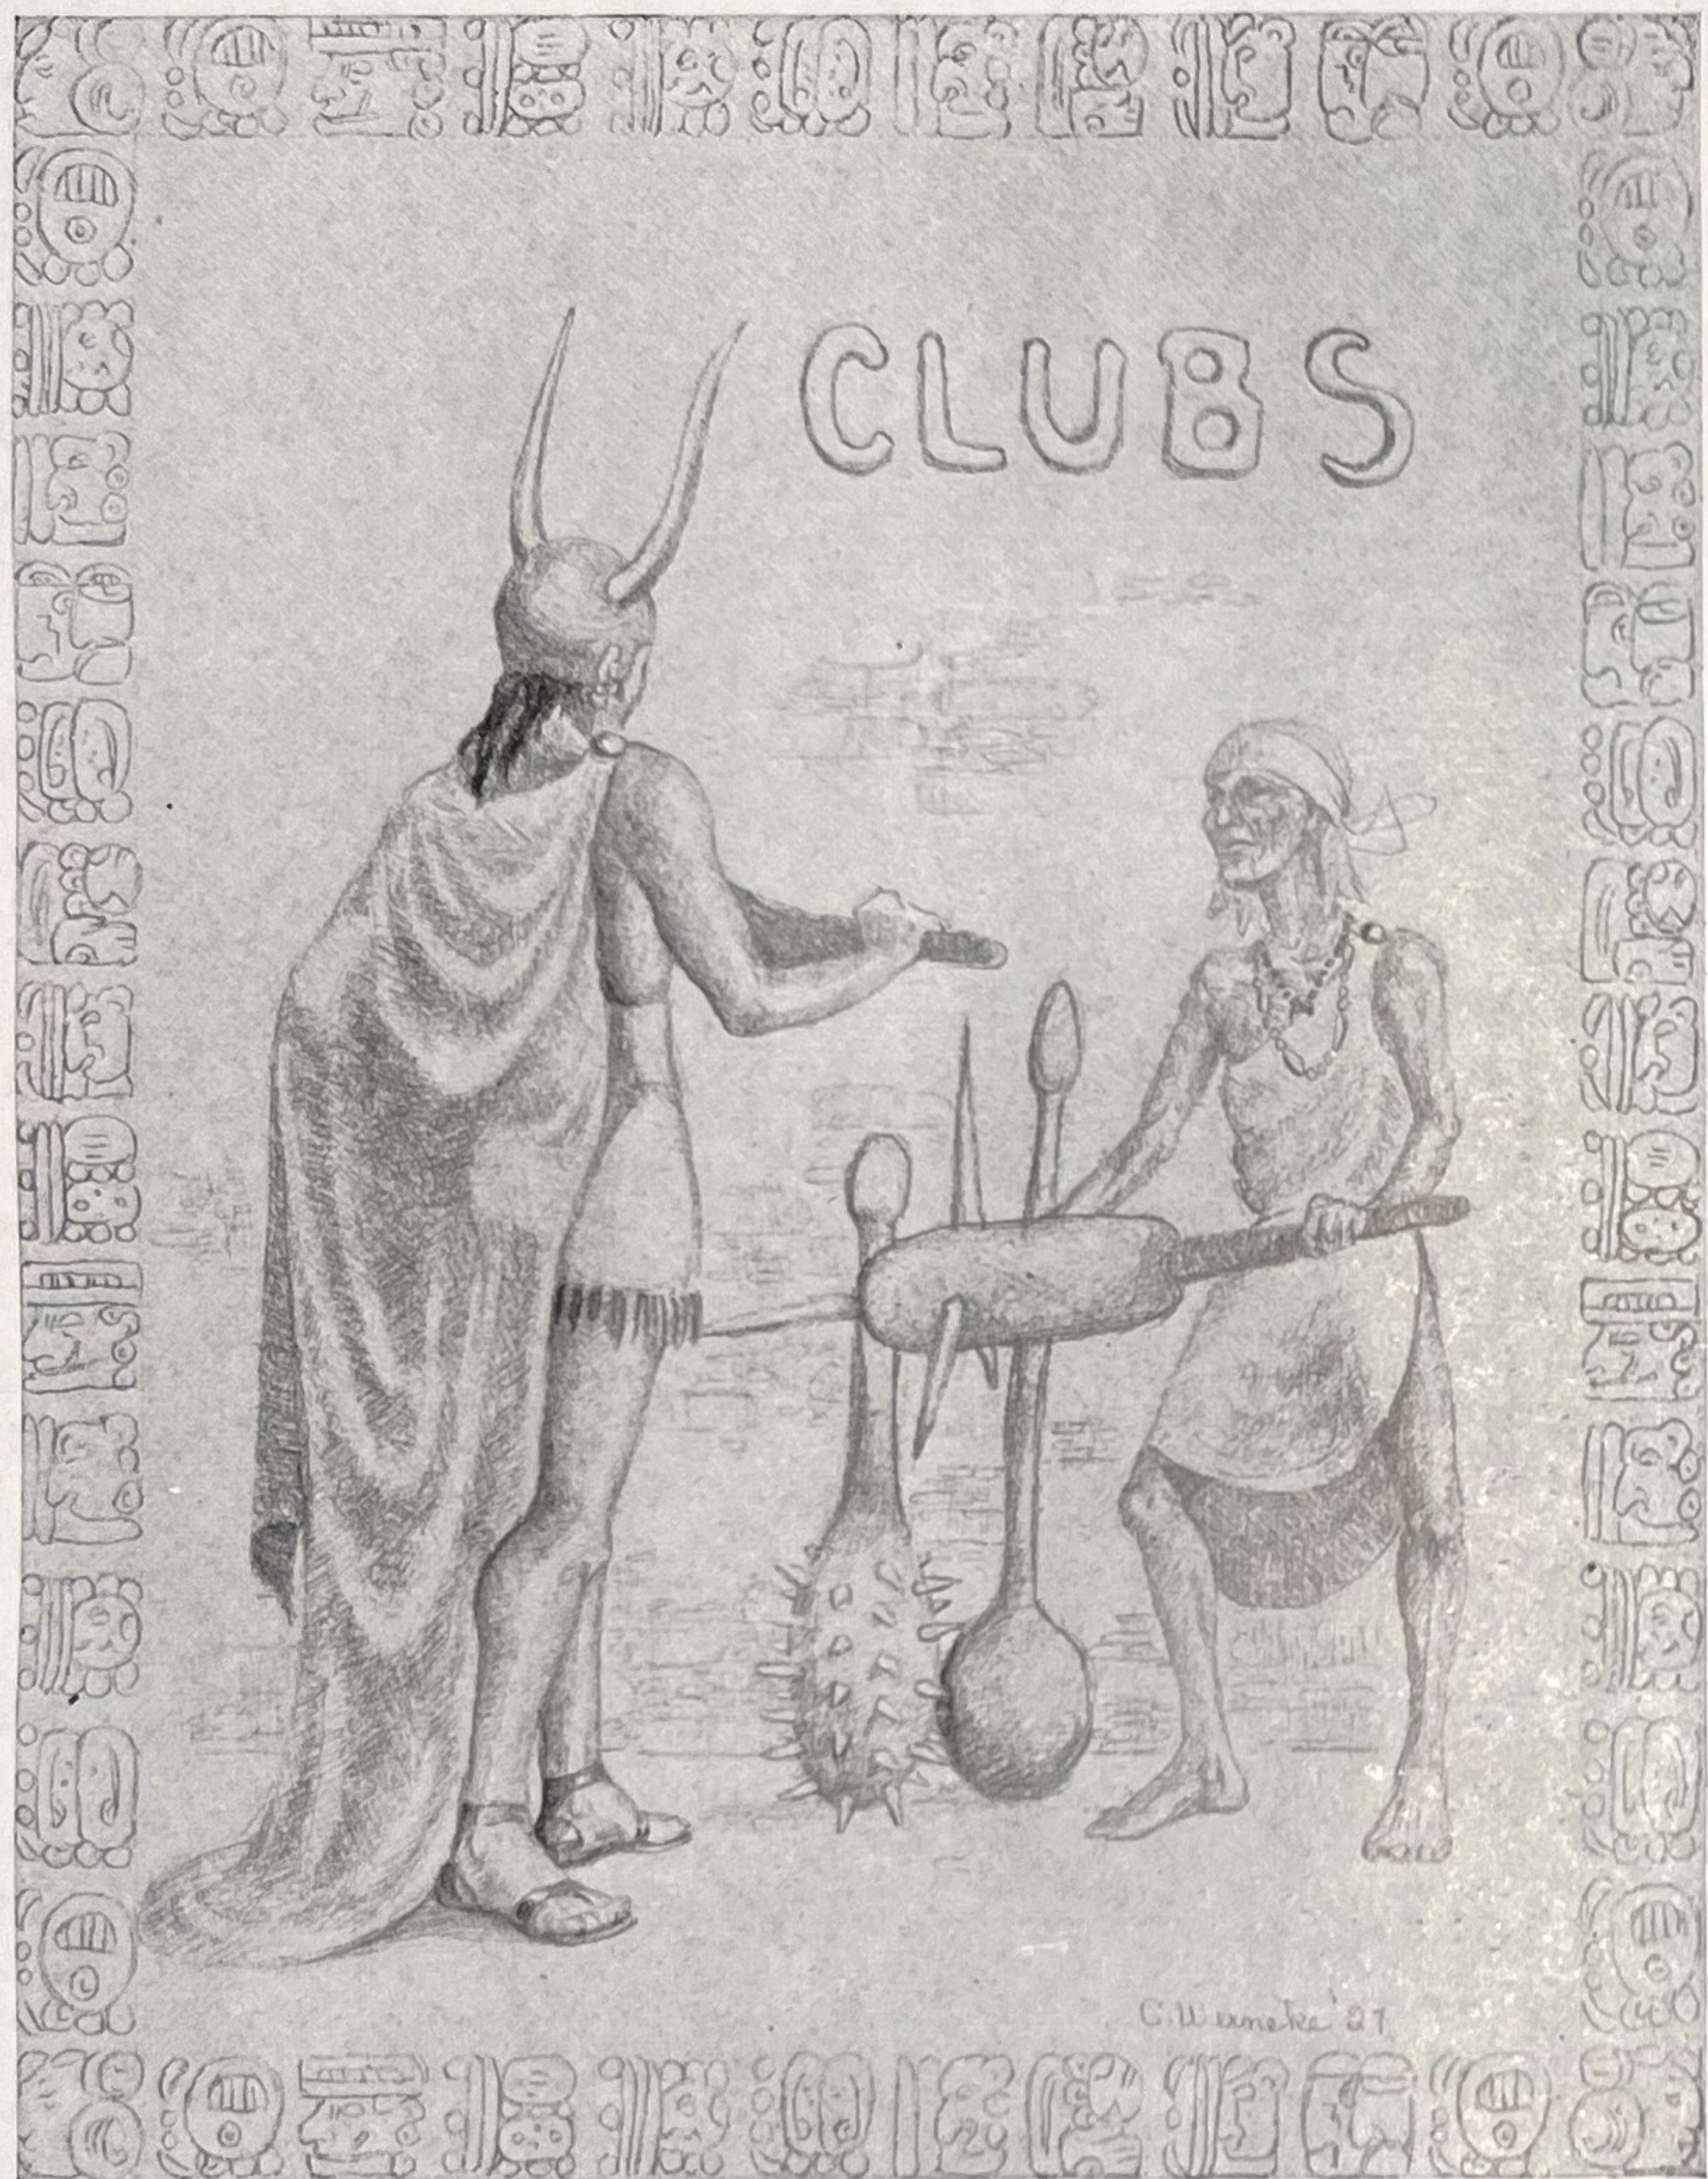

The seniors were fortunate in having on their teams girls who had played outdoor baseball in their freshman year in 1923. This was quite an advantage to the seniors, for baseball as it was played that year differed little from the baseball of this year. Each time the large, soft indoor baseball was used.

Peggy Karr, having played while a freshman, was very appropriately chosen manager. Two teams were organized for each class and following the nearly usual custom, the final game, the senior first versus the junior first, was thrilling to both spectators and participants. The presentation of "W's" to the outstanding players marked the close of the baseball series.

CLUBS

Departmental Clubs

Eight years ago En Avant, Western's French Club, was organized by Madame Bimont who has been its "Patron Saint" ever since. By her untiring efforts and Miss Rupli's valuable assistance the club has had a most interesting and profitable year. All members have been encouraged by the enthusiasm of the officers who were: president, June Robinson; vice-president, Margaret Rupli; secretary, Janie Scantlin; treasurer, Lloyd Free. The meetings were held each month at the home of some member, so that conversational French might be learned in a social rather than a school atmosphere. Programs, under the efficient chairmanship of Elma Moore, were also given consisting of sketches, poems, songs, or short plays, as well as discussions of French cities and personages. The meetings were conducted, of course, entirely in French. At Christmas time "En Avant" did its share to spread good cheer by giving food, candy, and nuts, to some old ladies in a Georgetown Institution. Later the club again helped by supplying a poor family with milk and eggs. So "En Avant" has once more upheld its motto and gone "Forward."

Nineteen hundred and twenty-six marks the fifth successful year of the Spanish Club, El Circulo Castellano. It was first organized by Mr. Devitt, a former teacher at Western, in order to familiarize its members with forms of conversational Spanish, and to promote an interest in Spanish countries and customs. The year's success is due to the faculty advisers, Mrs. Cade and Miss Brewer and the officers of the club who were: president, Margaret Fleming; vice-president, Marie Herzog; secretary, Eleanor Shanley; treasurer, John Wheeler. So much interest was aroused and so many applications for membership made that the quota admitted was changed from twenty to twenty-five. At the meetings held every two weeks at the homes of the members, a number of Spanish plays as well as talks on Spain and South America, were presented. The club has also had a pleasant social side. Two successful dances have been given, one a subscription affair, the other a most delightful evening at the home of Mrs. Westbrook.

Glück Auf, meaning "Good Luck," was chosen for the name of the German Club when it was organized two years ago. As in the other foreign language clubs, the purpose of this group was to promote an interest in the German language and to increase the pupils' proficiency in German conversation. Anyone having completed one semester is eligible to become a member. At the meetings held every three weeks, accounts of travels through Germany and many interesting facts concerning German towns and customs were recounted by the faculty advisers, Miss von Seyfried, Miss Nellie Bass, and Miss Rose Stutz. The officers for last year, who did much to help toward the success of the club, were: president, Frank Weitzel; vice-president, Margaret Fleming; secretary-treasurer, Marie Herzog.

In December, 1924, with the assistance of Miss Thompson's pupils, the Math Club was organized to encourage students to take a special interest in Math as a whole. This club has now completed its first full year of existence and has made a secure place for itself among the other organizations of the school. All persons who are taking Math Four, or are more advanced, are eligible for membership. The meetings were held every Friday, two out of three being conducted by Miss Thompson, the able faculty adviser, for the study of the Slide Rule. At every third meeting a committee worked out a program consisting of Math puzzles, games, jokes, etc. The officers for the year were: president, Elizabeth Zalesky; vice-president, Helen Bach; secretary, Robert Detwiler; treasurer, Edward Brown; and sergeant-at-arms, Jack Varela. The club has proved by the large membership which it has gained, how interesting Mathematics can be made, and much help has been obtained by the serious study of the Slide Rule.

After a lapse of four years, members of the two Civics classes reorganized in September the Western Civic Association. Constitutions were drawn up and Jack Stodder and Paul Clark were elected presidents of their respective classes. The association was formed at the suggestion of Miss Clara Stutz, the faculty adviser, to promote school spirit, to actively support all school movements, and to endeavor to better civic conditions in the school community. One of the first problems the association faced was that of keeping the halls and corridors clean. By well-directed propaganda and patrolling, this situation was met and much help given the school.

Musical Clubs

Four of the five musical clubs at Western owe to Miss Lynch, the director of music, much of their success. Through her untiring efforts and by her encouragement these organizations have made steady progress toward acquiring positions of high musical standing and have proved interesting, popular, and instructive.

The Western High School Orchestra was started in 1920 by Mrs. Byram, at that time musical director of the school, and soon became one of the most important organizations at Western. This year it has furnished music for all school assemblies and entertainments, including the play "Dulcy" and the February Commencement. For membership, applicants must be able to play some musical instrument proficiently. Each year the size of the organization has grown and for 1925-26 has reached its maximum number of 25 members. The officers for the year were: president, Reginald Mitchell; vice-president, Kendall Leedom; secretary, Margaret Becker; librarian, Arlie Huffman; assistant librarian, Francis Doyle. Several members were selected to play in the inter-high school orchestra, an honor of which Western is very proud. Some new features have been added this year. For the first time major credit has been given the members for their hard work and service to the school. The new building now offers an adequate place for rehearsals and at last sufficient time can be given preparatory work. No other organization has contributed so often to the success of school affairs, so that the appreciation and thanks of the student body should be offered the director for her efforts in bringing the orchestra to its present excellent standard and to each member for his part in its success.

The Western Band, the first club of its kind in the school, was organized in the fall of 1925. Under the excellent supervision of Mr. Manoly, this group of eleven energetic Westerners has worked hard and started a musical club which can give much service to the school. All Westerners playing wind-instruments were invited to join. An example of what has been done and what may be expected in the coming year was given when the combined bands of Eastern and Western played at one of the musical assemblies. The performance was most creditable and the boys and their director deserve much praise.

The Pianists' Club was organized in 1922 by the talented Arline Gilbert to give pianists an opportunity to develop poise in playing before an audience and to study the lives of the great composers. The qualifications for membership are to be able to play the piano and to take an active part in the programs. For three years Eleanor Hulbert has made a most efficient president, and the club will feel a serious loss when she graduates this June. At the weekly meetings the lives of Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, and MacDowell were studied and their compositions played. Following is one of the most interesting programs given: Improvisation (MacDowell), Bernice Jones; Waltz in A flat (Brahms), Violet Meyers; Shadow Dance (MacDowell), Betty Baum; 1st Movement Concerto D Minor (MacDowell), Katherine Smith; Arabesque E flat Major (Debussey), and Dance Nègre (Scott), Eleanor Hulbert.

The Mandolin Club, reestablished at Western in 1924, has shown by the work and enthusiasm of its members that it is destined to take its place among the most active of Western's associations. At the weekly meetings musical selections were practiced, both for the amusement of its members and for presentation at informal recitals. Any Westerner who was able to play a stringed instrument had the opportunity to profit by this practice and instruction.

Another musical organization, the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, met together early in the season to begin their cooperative work. Qualifications for membership to this association, one of the largest in the school, were only to have an interest in music and a pleasing voice. At each meeting, programs were rendered and also new pieces were learned, giving to the members enjoyment, instruction, and an opportunity to improve their voices. The officers of the clubs were as follows: presidents, Violet Meyers and William Stanley; vice-presidents, Molly Greeley and Linwood Bailey; secretary-treasurer, Helen Meade; librarian, Ruth Baxter; and accompanist, Eleanor Hulbert. At various assemblies the organization entertained the school with musical selections and it also took an active and successful part in the inter-high school Glee Clubs' production, the Cantata, "Lincoln."

Literary Clubs

With the idea of new fields to conquer, Estellita Robinett was instrumental in originating our latest club, "The Moderns," for the study of the better class of modern literature. Programs for each meeting consisted of reviews of modern novels, plays, poems, and often original poems were read. Much interest was added by open discussions following these reviews. The faculty advisers, Miss Wood and Miss Dessez, did much to make the club a success by their valuable assistance and advice. Any Westerner taking seventh or eighth semester English was eligible to become a member. The officers for the year were: president, Estellita Robinett; vice-president, Margaret Fleming; secretary, Helen Beck; treasurer, Helen Goodner. In the future it is hoped that the club may prove as interesting and beneficial as it has in its beginning.

The Debating Society started the season with only a few experienced members from last year. After a membership drive, it re-organized with Philip Evans, president, Molly Greeley, vice-president, Janie Scantlin, secretary, and Alden Goodwin, sergeant-at-arms. The outstanding event of the year was a debate with McKinley High School on the question, "Resolved: That the United States should have a unified air service." In preparation for this, several trial debates were given before the society as a means of selecting the most efficient team. The subject of the first of these was, "Resolved: That the United States should enter the World Court." The affirmative team consisting of Janie Scantlin, John Wheeler and Lawrence Morscher won by a vote of 2-1. Open discussions and debates were also held at the meetings as a method of preparation. Finally a team composed of Lawrence Morscher, Philip Evans and Leverett Stowell were selected to represent Western. After a close contest McKinley High School won by a vote of 2-1. Philip Evans, however, was judged the best speaker. Although the club was at first handicapped, it overcame its difficulties and with the constant assistance and counsel of its faculty adviser, Miss Lewis, has ended the year with a most successful record.

One of the most prominent and active of the organizations at Western is the Dramatic Association. This club, begun in 1922 to give to talented members of the student body an opportunity to develop their dramatic ability, has proved beneficial not only to the members but to the school at large. Tryouts were held twice during the year at which time anyone desiring to join was required to show his ability by presenting some selection before judges. Officers for the year were as follows: president, Helen Scheckells; vice-president, Ralph Burgess; secretary, Margaret Fleming; treasurer, Frank Weitzel. There were regular programs at the meetings held every Wednesday, consisting of recitations, speeches, pantomimes and plays. As a special honor to students leaving the school, certificates were given at the end of the year to those who had shown their ability before the association by reciting Hamlet's speech to his players, a pantomime and one hundred and fifty lines a semester of either prose or poetry. A memorial to Miss Houghton, the former faculty adviser of the association, was planned and efforts were made to carry through the arrangements. The faculty advisers for the year were Miss Gardner and Miss Taylor who added to their former reputation in a dramatic line still greater fame by their aid and advice.

At the Christmas Assembly, the first effort for the year was presented in a short one-act play. Its name the "Trysting Place" was appropriate, for the whole play was a series of proposals amusing and serious. Tom Fitch, as a nineteen year old youth named Launcelot, had fallen in love with a widow and found himself in consequence in a series of trying situations. Virginia Martin took the part of the widow; Priscilla Wallace, Mrs. Briggs, the mother of Launcelot; Helen Scheckells, the daughter of Mrs. Briggs; Kendall Leedom, Mr. Inglesby, an old friend of Mrs. Briggs; Ashton Jones, the lover of Miss Briggs; and Ford Young, the mysterious voice, who in the end turned out to be the fiance of the widow. The play was cleverly produced and the players deserve credit for their faithful work. In a big way the association presented "Dulcy" and furnished several acts for the annual "Hop Along Review."

Art Clubs

The Studio Club, an honor organization, requiring for membership a rating of "E" in art work, had for this season twenty-one members with representatives from the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior years. Its purpose was the furtherance of art interest. Art exhibitions were attended and works of individual artists studied. The club met weekly, following some line of definite art work decided upon by the members. A nation-wide poster contest, conducted by the "National Plant Guild" of New York, was entered by its members, and of the several thousand entrants, they won five prizes. Jean MacKay received the first. The other prize-winners were Margaret Broxton, William Woodville and Betsy Garrett, with honorable mention for Margaret Kearney. The officers were: president, William Woodville; secretary, Margaret Kearney; faculty advisers, Miss Foster, Miss Gardner, and Miss Rose Stutz.

Under the regime of Margaret Fleming, president, Ernestine Greenwood, vice-president, Claire Knight, secretary, Dorothy White, treasurer, the Arts Club has successfully completed the fifth year of its existence. For admission, applicants were required to submit one of their drawings to be passed upon by judges. The purpose of the club, to promote an interest and appreciation of art in every field, was upheld throughout the year in the weekly meetings. Under the direction of the faculty adviser, Mrs. Campbell, the club made posters for the play "Dulcy" and designed costumes for the annual Hop Along Review. The president, Margaret Fleming, was the art editor of both the Breeze and the Westerner, and all the drawings of the latter were made by members of this club.

Girl Reserves

In the latter part of March, 1926, the Girl Reserve clubs of the Y. W. C. A. organized a branch at Western. Under the leadership of Miss Casey, the city supervisor, a sufficient number of girls became interested to form two distinct groups, one from the freshman-sophomore classes and one from the junior-senior classes. Each group met separately, having its own officers and programs. The general plan, however, was the same: the first meeting in each month was given over to business; the second meeting was social; the third was devoted to social service, and the fourth meeting to discussion. Western girls took the part of the bridal party in the fashion review, "Down Petticoat Lane," given by the combined clubs of the city. May baskets and scrap books were made for the Children's Hospital and a party was given to the children of Gospel Mission. In a social way the club has been well represented at the inter-high school Girl Reserve suppers and meetings. Also a fine week-end was spent at Vacation Lodge, the Y. W. C. A. cottage in Virginia. The officers for the older group were, president, Janie Scantlin; vice-president, Rae Ballard; secretary, Helen Field; and treasurer, Mildred Fansler. For the other club Rosalie Reed was president; Jean Westbrook, vice-president; Elizabeth Tighe, secretary, and Helen Middleton, treasurer. In 1921 the Friendship Club, a similar inter-high school association, became the forerunner of the present Girl Reserves. Although a rather late start handicapped the club, its fine beginning and the enthusiasm of the members assure its success in the future.

THE STAGE

The Stage

Dramatics

1925-1926

When Dame Fortune smiled on Western and promised appropriations for a new building, hopes were high in the hearts of all its students. The rumor had spread abroad that when school opened in September, the work would be completed, and the new auditorium would be a joy forever. A decided disappointment was registered however, when the first day of school arrived. There was the fine large auditorium, new and white, spic and span, but the stage was only half completed, and occupied with workmen and tools. Furthermore it was dark, for the lights had not yet been installed.

So weeks rolled by and lengthened into months. Finally the cable came, temporary lights were put in place and the New York Studio Company began their work. Curtains were hung, beautiful lighting effects could now be obtained, and it seemed as if we were at last ready to christen the stage.

However, after inspection by the fire department, something wrong was discovered and down went the asbestos curtain to remain several more weeks. Other difficulties arose and were met with a grim determination to conquer.

It was not until the first week of March that Westerners drew a sigh of relief to find the stage at last completely finished. The product of so many months was indeed well worth the wait. The stage was a true stage, large, roomy, lighted and attractively arranged.

Dramatic work was immediately begun and the first real effort for the year took the form of "Duley," a clever and amusing play.

“Dulcy”

The first production on the new stage to set a precedent for the future was “Dulcy.” What a fine christening it made! Indeed it proved so successful that a matinee was given on the afternoon of March 26, two evening performances on March 26 and 27, and to meet the demands for seats, it was repeated on April 16. A combination of the Dramatic Association, the Public Speaking and Drama classes presented the play.

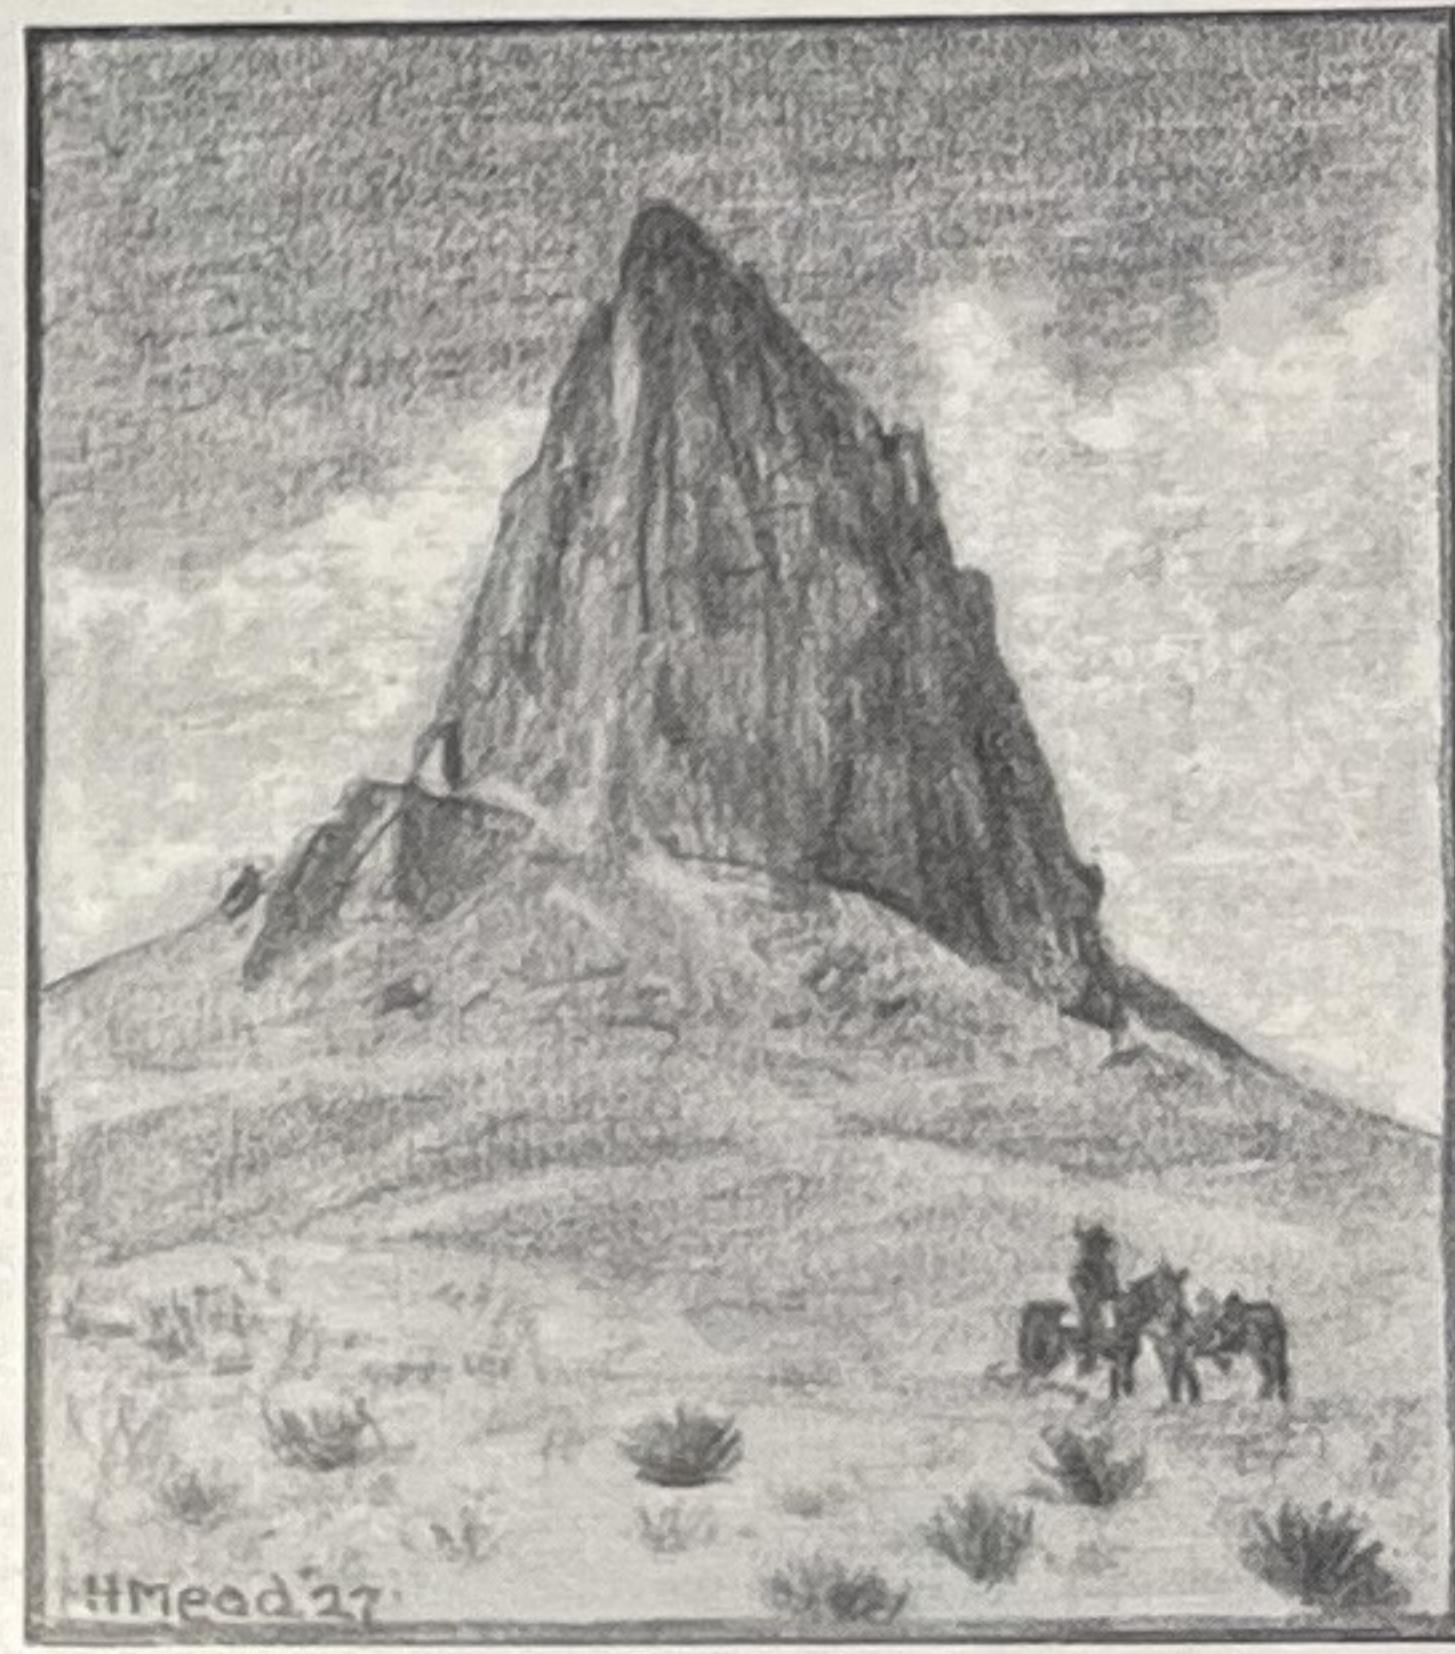

When the curtain went up, Dulcy’s brother and husband were seated in the living room of the suburban home of the Smith’s. Soon Dulcy danced in with her surprises. One of these was a week-end party that she had planned in order (as she thought) to help her husband put across a business deal. All sorts of amusements were planned in spite of the fact that Mr. Forbes, the honor guest, disliked music, entertainments, games, etc. Dulcy’s attempts to help her husband were tragic. From a kind heart she introduced Angela Forbes to a movie scenarist, who was despised by her father. Later came a thrilling elopement which ended, quite unexpectedly, in the marriage of Angela and Bill, Dulcy’s brother.

The acting through the entire play was splendid, and every part was taken exceptionally well. Ruth Hooper as Dulcy will long be remembered as one of the finest actresses Western has ever produced. Her laugh, her line of chatter, her excitement, her tender-heartedness, her s-u-r-p-r-i-s-e-s, kept the audience in a constant state of hilarity and admiration. Joe Greenwood as the movie scenarist could not be surpassed. To quote him “The first dove flew forth, and the first dove returned. And the second dove flew forth and the second dove returned,” etc. Then we saw King Solomon’s wives bathing in the fountain. This with the accompanying gestures was the crowning feat of the whole performance.

The entire cast was as follows:

William Parker, Dulcy’s brother	Tom Fitch
Henry, the Smiths’ butler	Ben Connally
Gordon Smith, Dulcy’s husband	Robert Callahan
Dulcy	Ruth Hooper
Tom Sterrett, advertising agent	{ Alden Goodwin Philip Evans
Schuyler Van Dyke, millionaire	David Fonoroff
C. Roger Forbes, manufacturer of pearls	Gordon Webner
Eleanor Forbes, his wife	Helen Scheckells
Angela Forbes, their daughter	Claire Knight
Vincent Leech, scenarist	Richard Greenwood
Blaire Patterson, lawyer	Hugh McDiarmid

Especial credit should be given to Miss Gardner and Miss Taylor whose constant work in coaching the players and in staging the performance, accounted for the professional atmosphere and the huge success of the first play in the new Auditorium.

FUZZY WILSON

Can you imagine this, the Editor of our noble semi-annual paper, THE WESTERN WHEEZE getting the staff all worked up and hurried every time her gossip goes to press, and arranging this scandalous sheet so that the headlines and articles won't balance? But this she does. Suggestions for the relief of the staff will be gratefully and overwhelmingly accepted in Room 7724.

PHILIP EVANS

This giant and prodigy of strength was imported, some years ago, at a great expense from Wilson County. If he would raise his head, with its irreproachable hair, and straighten out his legs he would be at least seven feet high. Dear Philip is one of those sad, reserved, and silent men who has strong feelings which he vainly strives to Berrall (bury).

PEGGY KARR

Peggy dear, who stirs you to such soulful renditions on the gweetar? We are naturally curious, for you know Peggy has many ardent suitors but as none of them suit 'er she holds them off in haughty disdain. Her favorite study is Bugology, in which she has made such progress that the doctor advised that she be taken out of school lest she over-study.

TOM FITCH

Tom, whose favorite name is Tommy, arrived in these parts last fall. It is supposed that he walked here in a somnambulistic state, for he has been somnambulating ever since. Talk about practicing what he preaches, Tommy never is seen out more than eight nights a week. He is always dignified and quiet as befits his profession. As our greatest, or is it funniest, actor doesn't believe in books, his recitations are purely original.

PAUL CLARK

Paul, our great major, one of the few survivors of the Johnstown flood, hails from the briny deep. This president, a contestant for the cadet beauty prize, has a very, very secret passion, did anyone know about it? Just look at him. The only reason our hero is a military genius is because of ancestral custom. But early some morning, about three o'clock, he can be seen racing madly around his back yard, in purely childish glee. "Practice makes perfect," you know. Paul now can run around twice before gasping.

JENNY TURNBULL

Oh, girls! Don't we wish we could look like this? Jenny is an ambitious girl whose aim (to quote Matthew Arnold) is "To see life steadily and see it whole." She is at present gathering material for a book to be entitled "The Love Affairs of a High School Girl." (Further information from the Sophs.)

“This is the book that we call ‘Dutch,’
The book that I have studied much,
Ich liebe French, ich liebe mich,
But as for you, ich liebe nicht.”

In Ashton's Trig.—

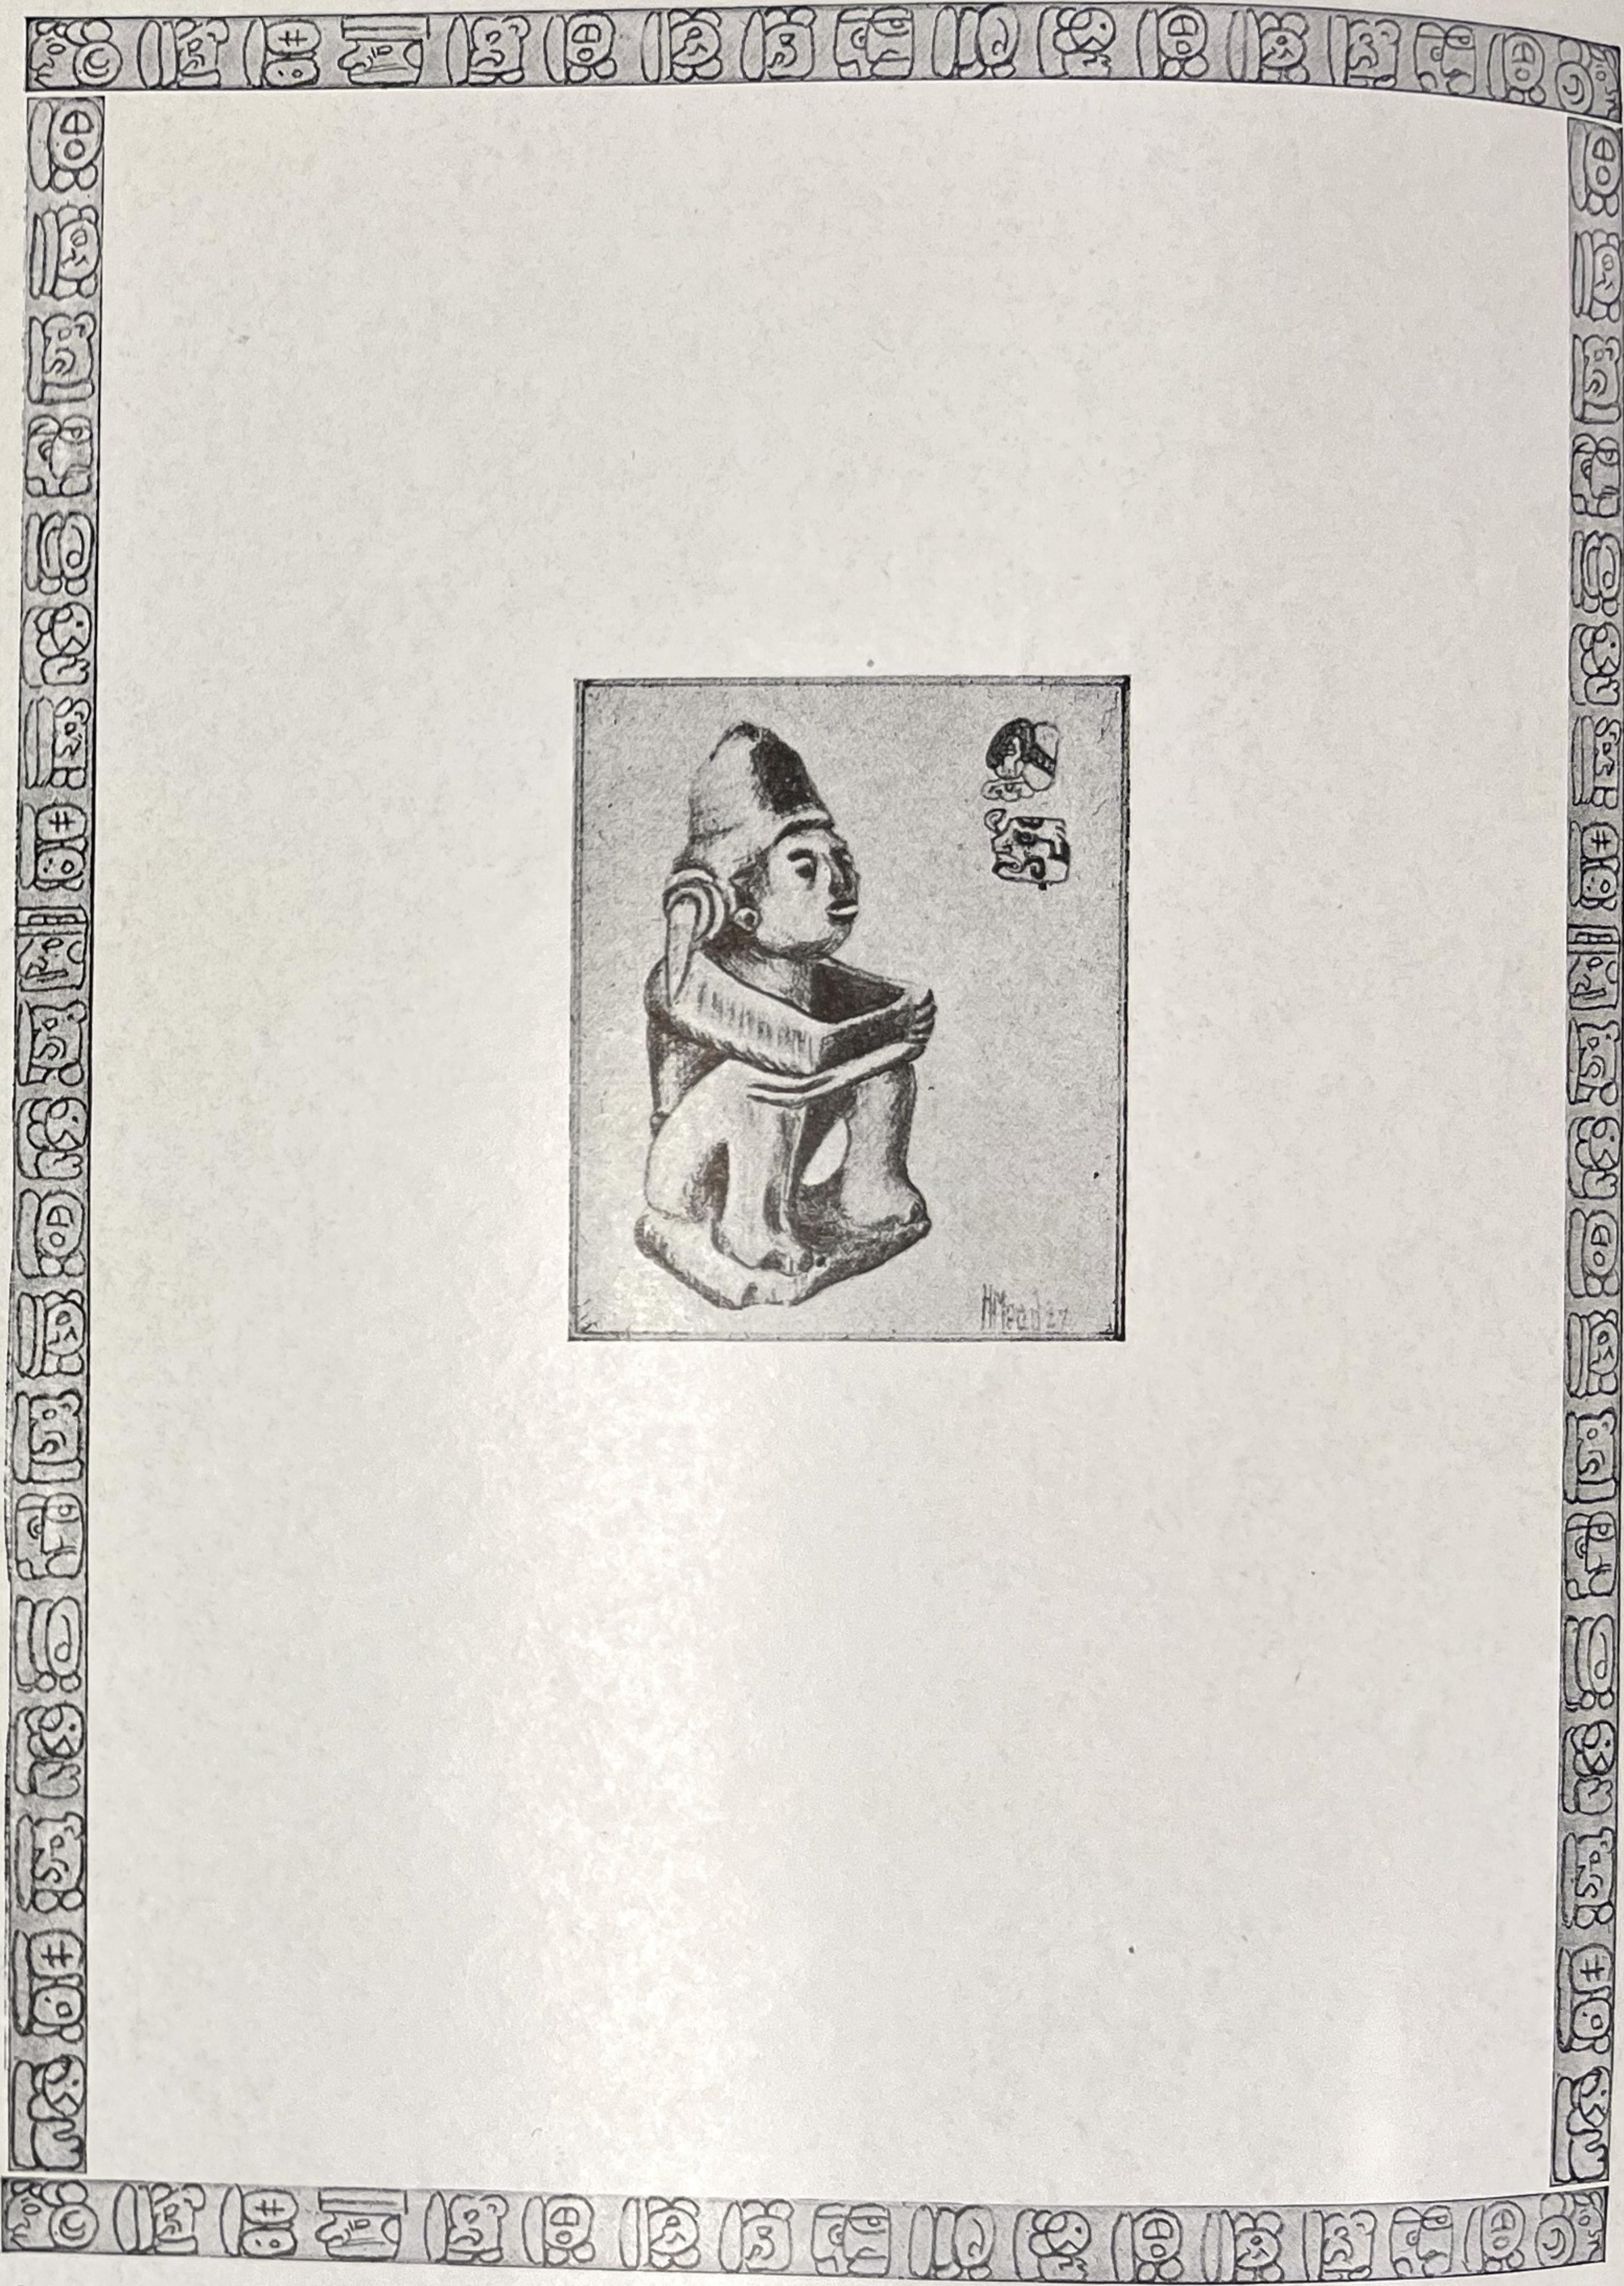

“They shall die who wrote it;
They all shall die who teach it;
We all shall die who learn it.
Oh! glorious death, we earn it.”

Acknowledgment

The staff of the 1926 WESTERNER is grateful to the members of the senior class for their assistance in writing the senior paragraphs, and to Catherine Werneke and Helen Mead of the junior class for their contributions to the art work of this volume.
